PLATTE CENTER.

From the Signal.

Miss Johanna Burke came up from Columbus last Saturday evening to visit her relatives and many friends, at this place during the week.

Mrs. John Hasselbrook went down to Columbus Wednesday to accompany her daughter, Miss Edith home from St. Mary's hospital. Miss Hasselbrook's many friends will be pleased to learn that she is much improved in health.

Roberts received a hog on yesterday morning's freight, shipped from Oconee by J. C. Dawson. While he lives but three miles from Monroe, Mr. Dawson says he made money by paying freight on the hog to the Platte Center market. It weighed over 600 pounds.

Louis Schroeder of Columbus, came up Wednesday and took the contract for raising the Brueckner store eighteen inches. This is no small job, the building having a frontage of sixty-six feet. The object of raising this store is to put it beyond the possibility of being flooded when the creek overflows.

A very serious accident happened Monday afternoon to a nine-year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Dick Jones, living in the Postville neighborhood. The boy ran in front of a mowing machine and the sickle caught one of his ankles on the front side, near the joint and cut it so badly that the best Dr. Pugh, who was called to dress the wound, says he can hope for it to save the foot, with a permanently stiff ankle.

Our people were somewhat startled last Saturday morning when it was learned that a five year-old son of Mike Kaipust, living on the Cronin farm about a half a mile west of town, had that morning died of diphtheria. It was not known by the public that the child was sick, and evidently the parents did not realize the nature of the disease as a physician was not called until Friday evening. The remains were taken to Tarnov Saturday evening and interred.

Two older boys in the family were also afflicted, but they are now nearly well again. The house is under quarantine. It was discovered that same day that the two year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Ripp, who had been sick for several days, also had diphtheria, although she was fast recovering. However, this house was also placed under quarantine. No other cases have developed, and is surely hoped that none will.—P. S.—Since the above was in type the house of John Kaipust, near the high school building, was quarantined yesterday, a son having been stricken with the disease. This is particularly unfortunate as a child was born to the parents Wednesday evening.

ALBION.

From the News.

The county attorney has agreed to an arrangement whereby the restaurants and dealers in refreshments may sell all kinds of perishable merchandise on Sunday from 8 a. m. to 3 p. m. and from 5 to 7 p. m. This will include ice cream but not cigars.

Will Olsen sustained a broken leg Tuesday night as the result of a runaway. Mr. Olsen and Gilbert Esacker were driving into town from the northeast, when they came to McGill's auto near Tom Pain's residence. The auto was standing still and the engine was not running, but for some reason the team started to run, breaking the neck-yrke. Mr. Esacker managed to get out of the rig, but Mr. Olsen was not so fortunate. In trying to get out, his foot caught some way throwing him and breaking both bones in one leg just above the ankle. The accident will lay him up for some time.

FROM THE ARGON.

One of the biggest parties for little folks ever held in Albion was at the home of James Nevels Thursday. It was Bonnie's birthday so they made him a party with the yard full of little fellows. They had all kinds of good things to eat that little ones delight in. All this was for sale but there was plenty of ready cash furnished so no one was cramped for lack of money. It was the old greenback idea a little extended, as the money was home made and furnished to those who asked. The party will long be remembered by those present and they wish Bonnie might have a birthday every day.

All things come to those who wait, so at last it came Leonard Hohl's turn to take a vacation. He and his wife and daughter Clara started Saturday for Fort Laramie, Wyo. to visit his son Lieut. Lawrence. He will be gone a couple of weeks while Clara and her mother expect to spend the rest of the summer. We don't see how the U. P. office will survive during his absence but then there is Billy Calhoun. All this is no reflection on Mr. Ford, the supply man. Conductor Compton said it was worse than a Sunday law. We have heard of a loud clam but never appreciated Hohl's noise till since he is gone.

MONROE.

From the Republican.

Mr. A. Griffin and son James went to Schuyler last week to attend the funeral of Mrs. Sumption. They returned Saturday.

The board of education are contemplating having cement walks built around the school house yard before the fall term opens. While the present board walks are in fair condition, they are in constant need of repairs and this would be a substantial and in the end, an economical improvement.

There was a pleasant surprise for Prof. and Mrs. J. R. Alcock Tuesday evening at the Ziegler home, being planned by Mrs. D. W. Ziegler as a farewell party for them prior to their leaving for their new home in Bette, Neb. A social evening was enjoyed and refreshments were served.

visiting his grand mother, Mrs. Thomas Jones and went out in the yard to watch his Uncle Will mow and in some manner got in front of the sickle and had one of his legs almost amputated at the ankle. All of the cords being severed. Medical aid was summoned and the wound dressed, and he bore up under the ordeal bravely, never uttering a cry. It is thought he will be crippled for life, but his many friends hope this will not be the case as he is a bright little fellow.

At a special meeting Wednesday evening the village board took steps toward getting construction work on the water works started. Engineer Early of Columbus was present and submitted a plan, which was adopted, and the board also authorized the advertisement for both bids for construction and sale of the bonds, which appear this week. The location of the pumping station will be on the rear of the lot owned by the village, a portion of which is now occupied by the town hall. It is the intention of the board to have the wells sunk at once, and then test them out to be sure of their supply. The bids for construction will be opened in twenty days, at which time the contract will be awarded, and it is expected that the successful bidder will begin work as soon as possible.

LEIGH.

From the World.

Small pox was discovered at the home of Peter Clausen last Sunday, the son Fred being the victim. The quarantine law was placed in effect immediately.

Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Held went to Columbus in their auto last Saturday to see Mr. Held's father who is undergoing treatment in the hospital at that place. They report that the old gentleman is getting along nicely.

Early Wednesday morning Nick Dunkle met with an accident at the elevator, the effects of which will be felt for some time. While trying to start the gasoline engine he braced his right foot on the frame of the pitman. The engine started suddenly and his foot was caught between the frame and the oil cup. The fore half of his foot was badly mangled and although no bones were broken it is a distressing and painful accident.

At the Catholic church in Snyder at 8:30 o'clock Wednesday morning, by Rev. Father Roth, Miss Edith Kloppel and Eugene H. Hyland. The ceremony was performed in the presence of Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Hyland parents of the groom, and Mr. and Mrs. Julius H. Pieper. During the ceremony nuptial high mass was celebrated and immediately after a wedding breakfast was served at the priest's home. The groom needs no introduction, having grown to manhood in this vicinity. Last Spring he was graduated from the Kansas City Veterinary College and since that time has been a practicing veterinary at Columbus. He is a young man of sterling qualities, exemplary in word and deed. The young couple left on the morning passenger for Columbus and will visit relatives and friends in Stanton and Boone county for about three weeks. They will go to housekeeping in Columbus after August 15th.

CENTRAL CITY.

From the Hesperian.

William Oarn, one of the old settlers of Merrick county, passed away at his home in this city on Wednesday evening, July 15, 1908.

The Union Pacific added another to its long list of victims in Central City Tuesday when Andrew Carlo, a section hand, was struck by No. 13, the local westbound passenger, and instantly killed. The section gang, under Foreman Thomassen, was working about two miles east of town. The men had just finished their dinner and were returning to work when Carlo suggested to the foreman that they count the ties that had been put in that morning on the south or eastbound track. Accordingly, they started westward on the south track. Carlo counting the ties as they went, Thomassen walking ahead of him a few steps. Soon the latter heard a train approaching from the east and knowing it to be on the opposite track only stepped to the south side of the track on which he was walking, supposing that Carlo would follow his example. It appears, however, that his mind occupied with the counting of the ties, he became momentarily confused when he heard the train, for he stepped across the space between the two tracks and directly in front of the train which was running rapidly. No one saw the train strike him, but the other members of the gang, who were on the north side of the track, saw his body as it was thrown into the air above the engine. The supposition is that the pilot of the engine struck him, as his hips were broken and the back of his skull crushed. His body was thrown fully seventy-five feet and a strange feature of the accident was that both shoes were jerked from his feet, one being thrown north and the other south of the tracks. His ankles were also broken.

That Old Ham Bone.

This need not be thrown away just because you have taken off all the slices. When you cannot get any more (apparently) scrape every vestige of lean and fat from the bone. Chop fine and put in a baking dish. Add a layer of bread crumbs, then another layer of the meat, and so on, until all is used. Pour over it a little water and set in oven till nicely browned.

Even the bone itself need not be thrown away. Crack well and let simmer for three hours. Add some rice, a clove or two, a few celery leaves (dried or fresh), and any vegetables, raw or cooked, that you happen to have in the pantry. So the ham will have done yet another faithful service, for the combination of the savory soup, and the delicate baked ham, will make an appetizing and wholesome dinner.

Sheep's Tongue with Spinach.

Take six sheep's tongues, blanch them for five minutes to enable the white skin to be removed, then trim and put them in a frying pan with about a pint of broth of consomme (which can be bought in tins), one bay leaf, a little thyme, salt and pepper. Set the frying pan over the fire until it comes to the boiling point, then let it simmer until the tongues are well cooked and glazed, take them out, cut them lengthwise in halves and return them to the frying pan.

Meanwhile dish some spinach, place the pieces of tongue over the spinach, pour the gravy over and serve immediately.

Put Pineapple Through Chopper.

Slice and pare pineapples, then put them through a meat chopper. Save the hard center and put through last. Save the juice and no water will be needed. It is much easier than cutting pineapple with a knife.

Mint Sauce.

Take three tablespoonfuls of freshly gathered mint, chopped fine; dissolve two tablespoonfuls of sugar in three tablespoonfuls of vinegar; mix all together. Serve in sauce boat.

Fish Suggestions.

Vinegar is better than ice for keeping fish, and a fish often improves in flavor by putting a little vinegar on it.

Vinegar added to the water for boiling any kind of fish, except salt fish, hardens the flesh and is a great improvement.

While baking fish should be laid on strips of salt pork, as this not only improves the fish but keeps it from sticking, also.

Chicken, Creole Style.

Heat three tablespoonfuls of dripping in a skillet and fry in it until light brown three sliced onions. Disjoint a large tender chicken, roll it in flour and fry it in the hot fat until brown. Place the chicken in a large heated casserole. Add to the fat in the skillet two tablespoonfuls of flour and stir it until smooth; then add slowly one pint of strained tomatoes, three or four minced green peppers, one-half bay leaf, a sprig of parsley, minced, and a teaspoonful of salt. Cook five minutes and then pour over the chicken. Bake two hours.—Good Housekeeping.
