On Tuesday, at 10:30 a. m., at the home of bride's parent, Mr. and C. F. Elise, their daughter, Gertrude was united in marriage to Alvin G. Lueschen, Rev. T. J. Collar, rector of the Episcopal church of Schuyler performing the ceremony. The beautiful ring service was used, and the couple were attended by the Misses May Ratterman and Elise Jaeggi as bridesmaids and the groomsmen were Fred Elise, brother of the bride, and Henry Lueschen, brother of the groom. The home was prettily decorated with carnations, chrysanthemums, roses and ferns, and the wedding march was played by Prof. Sike. After the ceremony a twelve o'clock dinner was served. Only a few immediate friends and relatives were present, those from out of town being Mrs. O. W. Mead of Kansas City, Mo., Dr. H. J. Arnold of National City, Cal., Mrs. Gerber of Los Angeles, Cal., Fred Elise of Council Bluffs, Ia., the Misses Belle and Anna Litgen of David City, and the Misses Stella and Mabel Morrow of Omaha. Mr. and Lueschen expect to leave about December 1 for Los Angeles, Cal., where they will make their future home.

After eight weeks of suffering from rheumatism and nervous trouble ending with pneumonia, John G. Becher passed away at his home last Thursday afternoon at four o'clock. Two months ago he went to his home from the office complaining that he was not feeling well, and from that time on he was unable to leave the house, and was out of his bed but a few times. With him when he died was his wife and children and his brother, W. S. Becher of Omaha. The death of Mr. Becher removes a man prominent in democratic political circles, and one who has held both county and city offices, being treasurer of the county two terms and mayor of the city for the year 1903. Besides this he was deputy county treasurer under H. S. Elliott and also held other positions at the court house. For the last three years Mr. Becher has been the junior member of the firm of Elliott, Speice & Co., and since the organization of the Equitable Building and loan association has been secretary of that institution, and to his efforts are due the present condition of the association. Mr. Becher was a man who made friends and kept them, and was universally liked by all. He was a member of the Orpheus, which he assisted in organizing, an honorary member of the Bissell Hose company of the city fire department. He was also a member of the Knights of Pythias, Woodmen of the World, Sons of Herman, Modern Woodmen, A. O. U. W., Modern Brotherhood of America and Royal Highlanders. John G. Becher was born in this city February 5, 1863, being the eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Becher, both deceased. Mr. Becher's father was the first Union Pacific agent in Columbus and later served as county clerk. On November 6, 1888, he was married to Miss Susan Wake, who with eight children, survives him. The children are Frank, Charles, Marguerite, Estella, Henry, Lester, and Catherine Becher, and Mrs. Lottie Kife. A brother, W. S. Becher, and two sisters, Mrs. Anna Richards and Estella Becher, are the other surviving relatives. The funeral was held from the family home at 2 o'clock Sunday and was conducted by Rev. Roush of the Methodist church, the music being by the choir of Grace church, The City Band, of which Mr. Becher was a former member, headed the procession to the cemetery, where the services were conducted by Rev. Roush. The large concourse of people who attended the services, both at the home and the cemetery, was a fitting testimonial of the esteem with which he was held by all.

The Corn show at the Fireman's hall last Saturday afternoon brought out twenty-two entries. C. R. Pugsley of the state experiment farm at Lincoln, was to have judged the exhibits, but owing to a previous engagement, could not be here. In his absence three local judges, Albert Stenger, D. A. Becher and O. C. Gray, were elected, and they awarded the prizes as follows: Yellow corn—First prize, Ed Loeske; second prize, D. G. Bartels; third prize, John Groenick-laus. White corn—First prize, Fred Mueller; second prize, M. A. Rice; third prize, Carl Mueller. Calico corn—First prize, Pella Rice; second prize, W. F. Dodds; third prize, Simon Iossi. In the evening Mr. Pugsley passed through the city and he was asked to address a meeting on corn culture, and as the judges did not consider themselves experts in corn judging, he was asked to review their awards. He did so, and in each case agreed with the decision of the local judges. As there were some very nice specimens on exhibition, it was decided to make up an exhibit for National corn show at Omaha next month, and there is a prospect that Platte county may carry off some of the honors.

Mr. George Godel, formerly of Scribner, but who is now moving on the Fred Stenger farm two miles southeast of the city, met with a painful accident Friday afternoon. The team which he was driving was very fractious and became frightened at a mattress, which had fallen from the load of household furniture that he had been unloading, and became unmanageable and ran away, running into a telephone pole near M. O. Keating's residence on East Eleventh street. Mr. Godel was thrown from the wagon and severely injured. He was immediately taken to the Keating home, where medical aid was summoned and later in the day was removed to St. Mary's hospital, where he is suffering a broken collar bone, and is also badly bruised about the head and shoulders. Many witnessed the accident and say that Mr. Godel is very fortunate in not losing his life as it was a very wicked runaway. Mr. Godel's family will arrive in the city soon.

Forty years ago the first Y. M. C. A. meeting ever held in this city was conducted by Robert Weidemann, at that time the first general secretary of the Y. M. C. A. Today Mr. Weidemann is the secretary of the International Young Men's Christian associations of New York city, and in reaching that position has traveled over world in the work, and has the honor of being the oldest secretary in America. The local secretary issued an invitation to Mr. Weidemann to take part in the opening of the new building, and in accepting it he mentioned the fact of his holding a meeting in this city forty years ago, and said he would be more than pleased to be here, saying that he had never been in Columbus since that time.

Hubert Barras, formerly editor of the Argus, and for the last three years located at Swes City, Ia., where he was publisher of the Herald, died at his home last Thursday after a lingering illness. Prior to his coming to Columbus he was connected with the World-Herald for a number of years. While here Mr. Barras took an active part in religious work and a member of the Baptist church. The Lincoln Journal has the following to say regarding Mr. Barras: The body of Hubert Barras arrived in Lincoln from Swes City, Ia. yesterday afternoon at 3:25 over the Rock Island and was taken immediately to Wyuka for burial. Mr. Barras was forty years old and the son-in-law of J. H. Elmore of 1790 H street of this city. At the time of his death he was editor of the Swes City Herald of Swes City, Ia. For several years Mr. Barras was connected with the editorial department of the Omaha World-Herald.

The Thanksgiving service will be held Thursday evening at 8 o'clock in the Methodist church. A program has been prepared which is as follows: Mr. Bragger will speak on Thanksgiving from the standpoint of an emigrant. Mr. Erskine will speak on Thanksgiving from the standpoint of practical experience. Mr. Stires will speak on Thanksgiving from the standpoint of citizenship, and Rev. Harkness will present Thanksgiving and its relation to the christian church. The choir will furnish appropriate music. You are cordially invited to this union service of the Evangelical churches. By order of the Ministerial Association. Samuel Harkness, secretary.

The marriage of Wm. Burton and Miss Hazel Smith, both of this city, was solemnized Wednesday evening at the Baptist parsonage, Rev. Reinhart officiating. The ceremony was witnessed by only a few friends of the contracting parties. The bride is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Smith, and has for the past several years made her home in this city, and has until recently been teaching school in the Gruesell neighborhood. The groom has resided in this city for the past few months, and is at present employed in the signal department of the Union Pacific railroad company. Mr. and Mrs. Burton will reside in Columbus.

John Krummel, who works at James Nevels' saloon, was the victim of an attempted holdup Tuesday morning. He was on his way home from work and just as he was passing Kaufman's lumber yard, a hobo stepped in front of him and demanded that he give him what money he had. Krummel called for help, and just at that time No. 4 pulled in, and the fireman, hearing the call, thought the engine had run over some one, and got down from the engine to see what the trouble was. His sudden appearance put the holdup man to flight and his victim got off with nothing more than a bad scare.

The remains of John Fitzpatrick, who died in Cleveland, Thursday of last week, arrived here Monday morning, and were taken to Platte Center and buried in St. Joseph's cemetery. Mr. Fitzpatrick was one of the early settlers in Lost Creek township, living about two miles east of Coonsee. He sold the place some years ago and has since made his home in Cleveland. Besides a daughter, Mrs. Sarah Bridgely, he leaves two sons, James who is a Union Pacific engineer between North Platte and Sidney, and Barney, who lives at Rawlins, Wyo. All three children were here to attend the funeral.

Mrs. Otto Kummer was pleasantly surprised Monday evening by a number of neighbors and friends gathering at her home to help this estimable lady celebrate her forty-first birthday. The hostess was presented with a beautiful dish as a remembrance of the occasion. Cards were played, Mrs. G. W. Viergutz and Otto Kummer receiving the favors. Refreshments were served. The out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. George Scheidel of Platte Center.
