Chas. Watts returned from Sargent last week, where he went to put up a house for his brother Ed. When they arrived there with the car of goods they found out that the agent who had the farm in charge had practically sold it, and the sale netted Ed over $2,000 profit on what he paid for it. When Ed discovered this he concluded to let go and change his plans, but just what he will do he has not as yet decided.

Last Saturday three Indian boys from the Genoa Indian school concluded they would return to the reservation without asking permission from the superintendent of the school. They made their getaway from Genoa all right, but soon after one of them weakened and returned, the other continuing. When they reached Monroe they thought the barber shop a good place to stop and warm. When they came in Mr. Christner at once suspected them of being runaways, and notified Marshal Grove to take care of them and notify the Genoa authorities. Word was received from the school to hold them, which was done, the marshal having them in his custody until some time Monday on account of the storm, when they were taken back by some of the employes who were sent for them.

THE "LEONA" THREE PIECE GARMENT

Is the daintiest and most desirable garment that has even been introduced. It is so cut that the three articles are in one, and yet take the place of three separate garments formerly worn, which always produced a clumsy effect about the waist line, while in the "Leona" there is no fullness about the waist line or hips. This garment is made in French Nainsook, trimmed laces and embroideries of exquisite patterns.

The Prices range from $2.00 to $4.00

Mr. Verne Taylor and Miss Mable Waterman were married yesterday at Albion. They are at home to their many friends at Lindsay where the groom is in the jewelry business. Both these young people are well known in St. Edward where they are held in high esteem.

Ross Saunders has a pair of hounds which he recently imported for the purpose of having a little sport hunting the various kinds of wild animals that infest this vicinity. Wednesday evening he, with a party of friends, went down along the Beaver and captured a coon. One of the hounds was nearly put out of business as he had a tussle with the coon in the river where Mr. Coon was on the job in the manly art of self defense. Thursday evening they went back and captured another coon that they had imprisoned in a hole the night before.

ALBION.

From the News.
E. H. Mullowney was in a gas explosion at Utica, this state, Tuesday. He was in the Merchants bank on business the explosion occurring in the basement of the building. All the occupants of the bank were hurried to the ceiling but escaped without injury. The explosion was of carbide gas being forced into an automobile tank. The building was badly wrecked.

From the Argus.
When it comes that at a public sale P. C. hogs bring an average of $30, Berkshires $22, bulls $66, cows $70, colts $265, and mares sell for $400, $440, $465 and $650, you can begin to understand why our land is selling for $100 and better per acre. These were the prices at King Bros. sale Thursday.

For three weeks A. R. Leedom has been a very sick man. In fact when he came home the first of the year he was practically a nervous wreck and in condition to take most any kind of disease that might come along. And he has had them. Chief of which has been inflammatory rheumatism. For three weeks he has been almost helpless. Dr. Thompson has been in attendance and has about come to the conclusion that a warmer climate is necessary to his recovery.

SCHUYLER.

From the Sun.
Peter F. Carry, of Platte Center, has purchased the furniture business of August Herde and will take possession at once.

In our conversation with H. M. West Wednesday morning he informed us that his father, Wm. West set the type for the first paper ever printed in Schuyler. It was edited by Captain McBride and was issued 38 years ago. The name of the paper was The Register which was afterwards consolidated with The Sun. Mr. West has the complete files of The Register for the first two years.

Geo. H. DeVasee was captured by policeman Kunkle Wednesday and taken to Fremont by Sheriff Kaspar on a charge of embezzlement. He bought a farm near Fremont claiming that he had $3400 in a Kansas bank and on the strength of this he got $500, security by Palmer & Terry of Fremont, when the draft was presented it was not honored and the man was looked after. He came to Schuyler and was probably trying the same deal here when Mr. Kunkle captured him. It is reported that he was just released from the asylum.

CENTRAL CITY.

From the Nonpareil.
Word comes to Central City that Miss Ellen Larson, of Hordville, and George Dolan were united in marriage in Council Bluffs last Friday. The marriage comes as a surprise to the friends here and but few of the details have been secured. The bride was employed at the Nordstrom store here for several months a year or so ago and has spent much of her time in Central City. She is popular with a regiment of friends. Mr. Dolan is a brakeman on the Union Pacific and makes headquarters in Omaha, where they will reside.

Sheriff Her, Deputy Sheriff Disney Marshal Foster and Milt Solt entered the Klondike restaurant Friday night at 8:30 and after a short search found a case containing 20 1/2 quarts of whisky. The liquor was found in a bed room opening off from the main room. Will Baratt and Chas. Johnson were taken into custody. They were taken before County Judge Peterson immediately. Johnson pleaded guilty and was fined $100 and costs. Barritt was held until the following day when the case against him was dismissed, there being no evidence to show that he was implicated in the keeping or selling of the liquor.
