CONSTANTINOPLE SURRENDERS TO ARMY OF INVESTMENT.

Guard Around His Palace Replaced by Troops From the Constitutional Army.

Constantinople.—The constitutional forces are in complete control of the capital. The sultan is practically a prisoner in the Yildiz palace. His formal submission has not yet been given, but he and the troops with him are at the mercy of the army of occunation.

Mahmoud Schefket Pasha, the commander-in-chief of the invading forces. desires to finish the work without further bloodshed. He is in negotiation with the sultan's representatives and has extended the period of grace within which the sultan must make his final decision. The Yildiz Kiosk may be rushed during the night, for some 5,000 infantry are disposed within a mile and a half of the palace.

What disposition will be made of the ruler of the empire when he is in the hands of the constitutionalists is unknown to the embassies, although the opinion is held in authoritative quarters that he will continue as the nominal constitutional executive with a ministry responsible to parliament.

Complete tranquility prevails in the city at the present moment, but anxious looks are cast in the direction of the Yildiz because of the refusal of part of its garrison to submit. General Schefket is concentrating large forces near this point. Troops have been pouring in since noon and several batteries have been planted on the neighboring heights. But it is feared that the task of capturing this well guarded stronghold may be extremely difficult owing to its excellent defensive position and the thorough preparedness of the garrison.

The other positions already captured by the investing army were not provided with artillery, which gave the assailants an immense advantage, since they were able to shell the barracks without reply from artillery. The Yildix garrison not only possesses artillery, but it is believed that the neighborhood is mined. Apparently General Schefket and the other leaders of the Saloniki troops are anxious to avoid further bloodshed, hence their desire to give the sultan and his advisors good time for consideration.

The sending forward of the advance posts of the Saloniki army to within two and one-half miles of the palace foreshadowed the attack on the city which began at 5 o'clock Saturday morning. The bridges had been picketed and small parties of cavalry reccoitered the ground.

Constantinople.-The Yildiz garri son surrendered Sunday to the constitutionalists. The commanders of these battalions began sending in their submission to Mahmoud Schefket Pasha Saturday night and the whole of the troops protecting the palace gave their formal and unconditional surrender hortly after dawn. Sultan Abdul Hamid has been permitted to stay within the walls of Yildiz Klosk, where, in company with his ministers, he waited for the outcome of the struggle.

Death of Senator Stewart.

Washington.—Former United States Senator William A. Stewart of Nevada died at the Georgetown hospital here, following an operation. The body will be taken to Nevada. Mr. Stewart had been at the hospital since March 30. On March 31 he underwent an operation, the nature of which the physicians have not made public. About a week ago his condition became worse and he sank steadily.

The River Congress. Washington.-Senators Gamble and Crawford of South Dakota invited President Taft to attend the Missouri River Navigation congress at Yankton, S. D., July 7, 8 and 9. The president said he would like to attend but could not do so on the dates mentioned. The senators said they would see if a change of date could not be made to suit the president's con-

THE INCOME TAX.

It is Possible There May Be No Action Upon It.

Washington.-Frequent utterances by President Taft, expressive of the hope that congress will hasten the passage of the tariff bill in order that business may be restored to its normal condition at the earliest possible day, may postpone the real test of strength over the income tax proposition. At present sentiment of the senate is pretty evenly divided for and against an income tax amendment to the pending bill, and the whole matter may go over.

Bomb Shatters Cathedral. New Orleans.—The famous old St. Louis cathedral in Chartres street was shaken Sunday afternoon by an explosion believed to have resulted from the placing of a bomb in the south tower of the building. The explosion was heard for many blocks, and created wild excitement in that section of the city, occurring when the church was practically empty. A priest, a woman and a child were the only occupants and none was injured. One of the smaller altars was wrecked and windows broken.

N ISSUES AN APPEAL

Railway Commission Moving in the Matter of Getting Physical Value . of Nebraska Railroads.

Representative Wilson, after an inerview with the governor and attorney general, has issued an appeal to all of the state bankers to assist in raising a fund to employ special counsel to aid the attorney general in the defense of the bank guaranty law, provided it is taken into the courts, as has been threatened.

Pacific train near Havana February He calls attention to the fact that the executive committee of the state bankers' association is "fathering a bitterly hostile attack in the courts upon the guaranty law, enacted in pursuance of the people's verdict at the last election, and while he says that he favors a speedy decision on the constitutionality of the law, he thinks it should be conducted in a friendly, rather than hostile, spirit,

He says that the best legal talent will be employed against the bill and adds: 'While the attorney general is in hearty sympathy with the law and will give the best service to its upholding he has expressed his recognition of the fact that the many other important duties of his office deny him the time necessary to properly meet the formidable array of counsel that will be against him."

He includes in his letter a copy of a letter that was sent to him and suggests the following of the plan embodies in it. The letter follows: "Bank of Boyd County, Butte, April 10.-Mr. V. E. Wilson, Stromsburg, Neb .: I would like to know what right the officers of the Nebraska Bankers' association have to start a fight against the guaranty law without waiting for authority from members of the association. This bank does not wish to be placed in the light of resisting the law, and furthermore, we would like to be one of the hundred banks in favor of the law to contribute $10 to a fund of $1,000 to hire the best legal talent possible to defend the law. As to Physical Valuation. The railway commission will soon receive visits from engineers who are willing to manage the work of valuing the physical property of the railroads of Nebraska. One applicant has expressed a willingness to accept $50 a day, but he desires to limit his services to a short period and to give half of his time to the work after he gets his force organized. This week M. E. Cooley, dean of the engineering department of the University of Michigan, will call to confer with the railway commission. He will be accompanied by T. H. Hinchman and Harry E. Riggs, the latter at Tolado, O. Henry Rohrer of St. Louis will arrive Wednesday, J. W. Rinehardt of New York will come Tuesday and Dwight same kind of work in Minnesota, will visit the commission later. Some engineers believe the work can be done in Nebraska for $9 or $10 a mile. The cost in other states has been as high at $13 a mile. The commission has $40,000 to expend for this purpose. Chairman Clarke said that the commission has seen a dispatch in the newspapers saying the interstate commerce commission intended to value railroad property in the Spokane rate case. As this case involves the Union Pacific, Great Northern, Northern Pacific and the Burlington, the Nebraska commission has written the interstate commission that it desires to co-operate with that body. If this can be done the state commission may save some of the appropriation made by the last legislature. University Summer Session. A bulletin has been issued by the University of Nebraska relating to the summer session of the teachers college for 1909, which opens June 11 and closes July 23, together with information regarding a division for rural school teachers which will open June 7 and close July 30. The commencement for the university proper comes from June 4 to June 10 and following this on the seventh day of June the school for rural teachers opens at the state farm. Registration is held on the Friday and Saturday following and recitations begin the next Monday. The opening reception will be held on Saturday. June 19 at 8 p. m., and examinations will be held on Thursday, July 22, with graduation exercises on July 23 at 10 a. m. The division of rural schools closes the following Friday and registration for the following regular school year begins September 21 at the university.

WHAT COLORS SHALL I USE?

This Question is important in Painting a House or Other Building.

A proper color scheme is extremely important in painting a house. It makes all the difference between really attractive home and one which you wouldn't take a second glance. And it makes a big difference in the price the property will bring on the market.

As to the exterior, a good deal depends upon the size and architecture of the house, and upon its surroundings. For a good interior effect you must consider the size of the rooms, the light, etc.

You can avoid disappointment by studying the books of color schemes for both exterior and interior painting, which can be had free by writing National Lead Company, 1902 Trinity Building, New York, and asking for Houseowner's Painting Outfit No. 49. The outfit also includes specifications. and a simple instrument for testing the purity of paint materials. Pure White Lead which will stand the test in this outfit will stand the weather test. National Lead Company's famous Dutch Boy Painter trademark on the keg is a guarantee of that kind of white lead.

Writer Who Expected to Score Off of Editor Met with a Really Witty Counter.

Few editors have the humor and good nature which characterize Robert H. Davis, chief of the Munsey staff and author of the play, "The Family." A writer who had submitted a story to him received a courteous rejection. stating that the tale, although charming, was not suited to the Munsey publications. In the course of a few months the story won a prize in a contest, and, highly elated, the writer dispatched the information:

"Dear Mr. Davis: "Psalms 118:22. See ---'s an ouncements in the current issue." The Scriptural reference was: "The stone which the builders refused is become the head of the corner."
