BETZVILLE TALES

Miss Petunia Scraggins and the Clothespins

By Ellis Parker Butler Author of Pigs is Pigs Etc. WILLUSTRATED By PETER NEWELL

For awhile Miss Petunia was a complete outfit of divided skirts for her clothespins. Sim Wiggins sold a being some curiosity about them

It is wonderful how a little thing is as fond of them as can be. She says that putting clothes on them makes them really clothespins, and that that is all some people are. She was lonely and sad and always working her fingers to the bone to get a husband, but now she has learned how much human companionship there is in a well-dressed clothespin, and she has given up all intention of getting married. In the long winter evenings

she just goes out to the clothespin basket and gets a clothespin and sets

it astraddle on the edge of her work-basket, and the evening passes as quickly as could be desired. And she says she has raised such an affection for the dear good things that she can't abide thinking of them all alone in the cold cellarway in a draughty willow basket, and every night she puts them

the east bedroom. Miss Petunia says that they look so sweet and innocent.

lying there 72 in a row, with just their ittle pat on the cheek before she turns out the light. Bless their little

(Copyright, 1909, by W. G. Chapman.)

Turkish Kindness to Animals.

their mother at the side of the street

The Walrus' Defenses.

Office Repartee.

carries her own headlight," remarked

"Yes," rejoined the bill clerk, "and

And the office boy stared at them in astonishment, for he had his own

Too Trusting.

The early robin freely acknowl-

"I was fooled by the boys playing marbles in the streets," pleaded the

For there are times, as Solomon or

Alice-Ethel tells me she is engaged wimning the honor were under dis-

"Well," said Mr. Rogers, "if I had

"No, Henry," retorted Mr. Whitney,

Mr. Rogers always told that story

"You can print that, some time," he been as long around Yale college as cussion.

with a chuckle.

some other wise man has remarked.

edged that as a harbinger of spring

you have your own private entry-the humorous bookkeeper.

"The blonde typewriter over there

A full-grown walrus will weigh as

In the matter of kindness to anihearts!

For a great many years Miss Pe-1 day, and so she would if she hadn't tunia Scraggins of Betzville sent her happened to hear that the best so washing away from home to be done, ciety elsewhere was wearing divided but it was not in order to appear styl- skirts for horseback riding. ish, as some of our invidious citizens have hinted. It was because she was doubtful about divided skirts. She modest that she couldn't bear to was a little old-fashioned and she ook upon a naked clothespin. The feared they might not be modest, but mere sight of six dozen pale, nude when she spoke to the city censoring clothespins in a basket always over | committee they said the divided skirts came Petunia so that she became were perfectly proper and suitable for the most well-bred clothespins to weak and trembly and had to go and wear. So she set to work and made lie down on the red-plush sofa and sniff at the uncorked camphor bottle. But when adversity overtook her few reserved seats for the first ap and she couldn't afford to have her pearance of the divided-skirts, there washing sent out, she saw there was nothing to do about it, and that she among those who had never seen must do her own washing. For three weeks she hunted high and low for them, but the next Monday the grandstand was as empty as a church on some kind of lady-like clothespins Fourth of July. that she could put skirts on and that would ride side-saddle on the clotheslike clothes changes things. Formerly tine, but she could not find any of that Miss Petunia was afraid to look a sort, and she didn't know what in the clothespin in the face, and now she world to do. Then she tried putting skirts on the two-legged clothespins any way, but although they looked all right in the basket, the way they behaved on the clothesline was perfectly says that for upwards of 40 years she scandalous. Skirts were never in the clothesnin was never intended to do be surpassed. Thus at Stamboul the anything else. Miss Petunia couldn't wandering dogs are treated with great so much as hang out a handkerchief gentleness and when puppies come on the line without being shocked and into the world they are lodged with blushing like a mile a minute.

It Irked Miss Petunia Almost to Death to Go Out and Hang Up a Towel and Hear the Loud Cheers as She Stuck the Clothes-Pin on the Line.

It didn't make the least difference in improvised kennels made out of old boxes lined with straw and bits of carthat Miss Petunia was not sparing of clothes. A well-informed stranger pet. And frequently when a young who visited our town stated in the Turk happens to be flush of money he hearing of some of our best citizens goes to the nearest baker's shop and that he had never seen, anywhere in buys a quantity of bread, which he the world, as well gowned and out- distributes among the dogs of the fitted clothespins as Miss Petunia's. quarter, who testify their gratitude by They were fully robed in skirts and jumping up at him with muddy paws underskirts and general trousseau and sniffing muzzles. stuff, including stockings, and yet when they were stuck on the clothesline they looked like reckless creamuch as 2,000 pounds-a mountaintures whose acquaintance one would ous mass of muscle and blubber. He not care to make.

The thing that worried Miss Pe- is armed with tusks of ivory, sometunia most was that Sim Wiggins, who times two feet in length, and when owns the lot next to her humble from his upreared bulk these formidhome, built a grandstand on it, facing able weapons are plunged downward Miss Petunia's yard, and sold seats upon an enemy, they are as resistless every wash day at ten cents a seat. as the drop of a guillotine. Such a The grandstand was always crowded thick layer of blubber lies under the on wash days by spectators come to skin that he is practically clad in arsee Miss Petunia's clothespin ballet, mor impervious to teeth and claws and it was not at all a nice crowd. alike. So, unless the enemy is greatly The best society all stayed away after favored by luck, he has little chance they heard what kind of a show it to overthrow his antagonist.—St. was. It irked Miss Petunia almost | Nicholas. to death to go out and hang up a towel and hear the loud cheers as she stuck the clothespins on the line. The audience got so it knew each individual clothespin, and gave them all names, and when their favorites appeared and began to dance in the breeze they just went wild. And Sim way." Wiggins used to sell peanuts and temonade, and parade up and down before the grandstand as proud as if he had thought of the show himself. It riled Miss Petunia dreadfully.

At last the crowd got to be so noisy that the city council met and considit had been a failure this time. ered the bad effect the clothesline baltet was having on the public. They appointed a committee of censors, and bird. in extenuation. the next Monday the committee went around and censored Miss Petuna's week's wash and declared it injurious when all signs fail. to the morals of the community and ordered her to discontinue it. They said she still had the right to use aude, unadorned clothespins if she to Jack. Do you think she really wished, but she couldn't bring herself means to marry him? to do that, and it looked for awhile as Kate-Not if she can get anybody if she would have to discontinue wash- else.

H. H. Rogers' Humor.

One of the characteristics of H. H. Rogers was his love of a joke, even at his own expense. This was one of Prof. So and So I'd be president." his favorite stories:

"you would probably own the ground He, William C. Whitney, and several other friends were discussing the suc- and the buildings, but you would not then vacant before the election of Prof. Hadley, who then held the chair of economics. Another professor longer at the university than Dr. Hadley said to a reporter to whom he told it was a candidate, and his chances of some months before his death.

Under the Friendly Awning.

"He's a-er-conductor, is he?"

Painter's Colic.

Mamma-What's the matter with

Tommie-Oh, I was playing with my soldiers and he came in and insisted upon licking the whole army.

dent policy."-Chicago Tribune.

ning scare you dreadfully?"

Fido?

"How it rains! Doesn't the light-

Up to the Minute. Mrs. Gossip-They do say that her husband has acquired locomotor

"Not when my husband is around. ataxia. Mrs. Parvenue-I don't think much "Oh. no. He carries a $5,000 acciof those cheap cars; my husband has an imported one.

> Matching His Feelings. "Ragsby is very cheaty since he started to buy a new house." "Yes, so much so that he insisted on getting one with a swell front."-

Yonkers Statesmap

Why guess at things when it safest to be sure?

The road drag is a good thing to keep going the year round.

Give your neighbor a lift occasional-

Be sure you lay in sufficient roughing the winter.

Grain ration every day for the growing lambs. That means early marketing day and cheap mutton.

The right brand of gumption mixed s sure to make the old farm pay.

and quantity of feed which will prosible expense. One way of cultivating the orchard

A well-balanced ration is that kind is to fence them and then turn in the hogs, and after they have cleaned things up plow and cultivate. The rainy days are godsends to the ing crops but because it affords him time for repairs and inside work which he would otherwise neglect. A trip through the fields and around the place for the purpose of inspection rather than driving away at some par-all snugly to bed in the spare bed in notice. little wooden heads sticking out be- | during the hot weather. Contaminat- | it. It makes their flesh fat and their yond the covers, that every night she ed water supply means contaminated skins glossy. It gives zest to their cows, and the milk supply.

two litters a year and can be carried humored cow is the best milker." from year to year after weaning their litters, quite cheaply, with little or no grain after the spring litter is weaned of about six dollars per ton for feed mals it is said that the Turk cannot much of the feed as possible.

> the ground, place them on the ground joints covered with earth within a few will shed rain perfectly. weeks and later in the senson these new grape plants may be separated from the parent plants.

The well cultivated corn field will one that is neglected. Give the boy cultivator, and he will do more and better work than half a dozen men corn is half grown, put wire muzzles they will forage about and get exeron the horses, use narrow single trees cise. Young pigs only partially para and set the teeth to cut about four lyzed will often come right treated at inches in depth, by using the shovel teeth to throw a slight furrow to the hills at the fourth working, and the cultivator teeth at the fifth working. The corn can then be thoroughly weeds cut out before they are deep rooted and the field put in nice condition for fall seeding.

system any quicker than a batch actually prove so with sufficient mois of cold milk when it has been ture. Crops can be grown continuous accustomed to warm milk. The prop- ly on fertilizers containing all the eleer temperature of the milk for young calves is between 90 and 100 degrees F., according to Mr. Woodward. As Rothamstead, England, where for 45 the calf becomes older and its digestive organs stronger the feeding temperature may be reduced. But in any case milk should be of a uniform temperature all the time. It is well to use a thermometer occasionally to be sure that you are giving milk somewhere near the proper temperature. What has been said in regard to cold sible driver and owner of a horse will milk will also apply in part to sour allow his horse's shoulders to gall and milk. The milk for young calves become sore, because this is a danger should be sweet, but as it grows older that can be wholly avoided. The prin sour milk or butter milk may be sub- cipal causes of shoulder trouble in stituted without bad results. Milk horses are ill-fitting collars, the pershould be sour all the time or sweet nicious sweat pad and too low a draft all the time. abroad, and in giving his opinion of ag- for the comfort of Dobbin. Many of riculture as it is carried on in Italy, he the working harness outfits, nowa has this to say: "In looking about to days, are not made with the comfort find out how the fertility of the soil of the horse in mind. This is seen stock was not common, and hence in the construction of the hames, for farm manure was for from plentiful, I in the majority of cases the point of noticed that everywhere leguminous application of the pulling force is crops (or pulse) were the rule. I also fixed entirely too low down on this discovered that in some form it was important part of the harness. When eaten every day by rich and poor alike. the animal is at work, the pull thus All the time I was in Italy I never comes on the "point" of the shoulder ing served with peas, or beans, or len- over the surface as it is when it comes tils, or some other variety of legumin- up a bit higher on the shoulder where one annual. I found also that the the draft should naturally be applied ties of pulse, it being used to a large and around the "point" or lower part extent as a substitute for meat. Where of the borse's shoulder than is noticed the Irish peasant finds his balanced ra- on the flat surface of the muscles that tion in potatoes and pork, the English- cover the shoulder blades, hence there man in bread and cheese, the Scotch- is less chafing and rubbing against lian rests content with macaroni and the best interest of the horse as well pulse, and the land gets the benefit in as to his master that the draft be restored fertility." properly and comfortably placed.

Cover the bread in a stone creek to keep it moist.

Sow a cover crop in the orchard after the last cultivation. Dry and clean stalls should be provided for the calves. The good idea is worth sticking to. but be sure it is a good one before risking too much upon it. The crop of flies on the farm can be educed considerably if the manure is Manure put on the soil in big chunks is not readily incorporated with the soil and may do more harm than kept cleaned up.

A mixture of salt, copperas, lime and ashes is god for the hogs and should be placed where they can have access to it at all times.

With other food stuffs increasing in price why should not milk go up also? There is not enough margin of profit for the farmer under the present scale ly. You'll feel better and so will be. of prices.

If there is no pasture for the ram age for the stock for their feed dur- provide a paddock in which he can ex ercise. It is a shortsighted policy which would keep him shut in the barn these days.

Look at the nuts on the buggy occasionally, and the other vehicles, too Easy to tighten them, but mighty hard with the best quality of common sense to repair the damage sometimes when a wheel comes rolling off.

Does every cow in your herd return you a profit? you cannot know duce the best results at the least pos- unless you have tested the milk and keep a record of the yield. Use the scales and the Babcock tester. It is the only way.

If by careless handling a piece of farm machinery lasts you only five years when it might have been made to do good service for eight years or farmer not only because of the growperhaps ten years, see what a loss your carelessness has cost you.

In discussing the feeding of cows. Ex-Gov. Hoard of Wisconsin declares that when the American farmer's wife. a few years hence, hands her husband the shopping list there will appear the ticular task will help you to see many following: "Chocolates for daughter things which you would not otherwise Susan, taffy for little Bill, and a gal lon of molasses for the cow! Cows like sweets." he said. " I feed my What kind of watering places have herd a regular ration of molasses ev you in the pasture? Look after them ery day, and I find that they thrive on gives each one of them a kiss and a stock. Especially is this true of the appetities and helps their digestion. It increases the quality and improves the quality of their milk, for it puts Mature brood sows can safely raise the cow in a good humor, and a good-

> Wheat and oat straw have a value until the fall litter comes, if they can and four dollars a ton for bedding it have fresh grass or other succulent handled right. Much straw is wasted feed. We should learn to produce as from careless ricking. If possible put all the straw in one large rick close to the barn. The straw should be New grape vines may be propagated thoroughly tramped down, keeping the by layering. Select fairly well-matured middle full. When the grain is branches of this season's growth near threshed by a large steampower there should be three men at least on the and cover with five or six inches of rick to properly place the straw as it soil at a joint. If the runner is long it comes from the carrier. A large, high may be covered in more than one rick, well put up, and after it settles place. Roots will spring aut at the nicely topped off and wired down

> Paralysis in swine most often follows over-feeding of rich nitrogenous foods to animals that are closely con fined. Pigs do best when allowed a always give a better yield than the considerable range and not fed too highly. As this affection involves the a good team and an improved sulky spinal cord, it is not only liable to prove fatal, but is not, as a rule, satisfactorily treated. First, remove the with hoes and will take a pleasure in cause. Cut down feed and allow plenty having the work well done. When of range, and if not fed too liberally above advised. Old animals will not often respond to any form of treat

> Farmyard manure is weak in both worked and the iron, pig and rag phosphoric acid and potash, and these elements are supplied in fertilizers While they may be used alone, it is customary to use them in connection with farm manure, which will prac Nothing will upset a calf's digestive | tically mean crop insurance, and wil. ments of plant food. This was demon strated at the experiment station at years wheat was grown on chemical fertilizer without manure and yielded a larger average crop per year than a similar section on which farmyard manure was used.

> Sore shoulders can be avoided on the horses with proper care. No senon the hames. It is the urgent duty of every one owning a working horse The American farmer has yet to to see that the collar is fitted exactly come to full realization of the value of to the shoulders of the animal, and if leguminous crops. Prof. G. C. Creel- this is done no evil-smelling and skin man, recently returned from a trip burning sweat pad will be necessary was maintained in districts where live particularly in the placing of the draft once sat down to a dinner without be- where it is not evenly distributed poorer classes consumed large quanti- There is more muscular action near man in ontment and milk, so the Ita- the face of the collar there. It is to

Leather and Others

There has been a new favor acgay color, it certainly deserves popu- themselves easily with the right. larity, even if it does show wear ra- In laying the table one must have ther quickly.

The patent-leather bags are in al- erything that is put on. That is, if a most every case more effective than salt cellar is placed at one side there any of the other leathers. The de must be another in the corresponding tails of the bags give them individ- place on the other. A fern or a dish uality even when shapes vary little of fruit or even an empty dish, if it and the last word seems to have been is a pretty one, must always be placed said in the matter of fittings.

For luncheon downtown there is a the extra forks and spoons, as attracsmaller bag (also used for matinee tive as you can arrange them. purposes), containing the indispensable vanity equipment, mirror, powder puff or cloth and possibly other glasses and fan, too.

gold, silver or gunmetal is often preto hold cards as well as handkersmall change purse.

Lizard skin is considered a good skin for dressy occasions, but the leather workers are so clever in their bag to match almost any costume. away in it if the meal is dinner. The very pale biscuit and gray tones and white are used for beautiful purses and small bags, often gold mounted and having precious stones set in their clasps. A new shape as shown by one well-known leather person has been served. goods firm shows a succession of pockets. This model has taken extremely well. Another well-liked model has its original note in the smooth. plain mounting of metal curving downware slightly in the middle, and in the plain metal handle, which seems a continuation of the mounting. From this same shop comes a bag with right angle double handle of leather. beneath which the bag is cut down a little, the des being left higher. The

Bags of Patent Proper Service at Dinner Table

The young housekeeper, setting up corded to patent leather and many of her own establishment, sometimes the smartest new bags for practical finds it difficult to instruct the maid use are in this leather. It does not who serves the family meals to do the wear so well as many other black work noiselessly and properly. Perleathers, but it has a brightness for- haps the first principle to learn is eign to any of the other leathers, save that everything should be handed to morocco, a youthful air, and made up the left side of the person who is sitin attractive shape with lining of some ting, which enables them to serve an eye to preserving balance with evin the very center. Around that are

In front of the places of persons who are to be seated there must be a plate. The knife is put at the right items. It may have the little opera side and the forks at the left, the tines pointing up. If there is a soup For visits a flat envelope bag or spoon it goes beside the knife. The small handsome bag with handle is oyster fork also is next to the spoon the thing if one carries anything in and knife, but that for oysters is the leather. A purse or bag of netted only fork that is placed at the right. All the others go to the left. If more ferred, but it should be large enough than one is required, as for salad after the meal, the larger fork goes chief, and if one is traveling by car a next to the plate. Spoons for dessert. whether they are large or small, are over the plate; that is, are across the top. The napkin should be folded with two points under and laid in the use of dyes now that one may have a plate, a square of bread being tucked Ave., Detroit, Mich., Feb. 24, 1908."

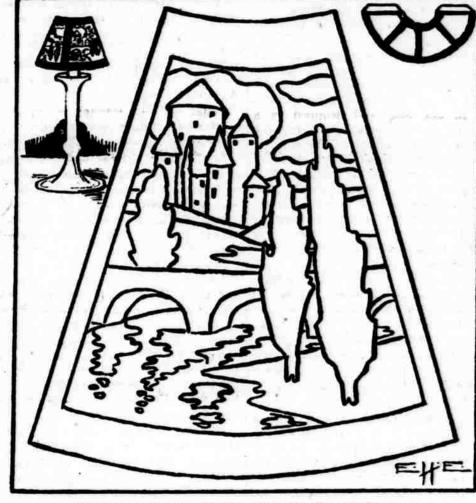

Few housekeepers have more than the roast on the table these days, vegetables being at the side table from which they are handed by the maid. who returns them there after each

If they are to be kept on the table overlapping flaps inclusing separate one would be at one side, another at the other side of the meat, or two dishes might be put at the foot of the table. That is a matter of individual preference which each housekeeper

The maid serving should wear a small white cap and a big apron with bib and straps over the shoulders and crossing at the back.

Quiet in the dining room is a thing that must be striven for by the maid. and it will be a positive pleasure to flap of a small change compartment A noisy person is an abomination and use a Starch that does not stick to the buttons down on the outside of the the rattle of dishes and clash of silver iron.

Neat Candle Shade

Design for Candle Shade, with One-Fourth Pattern.

in charge are on the lookout for things | black and cut it out. The frame will both novel and useful. Attractive then look like the small diagram it candle shades fill the bill admirably, the upper right-hand corner of the as they prove ready sellers. One of sketch. the most effective and at the same time inexpensive variety of shades is made on a frame of heavy waterproof paper, painted black, with a thin paper, such as Japanese rice paper or very thin water-color paper, painted in beautiful bright colors and lined in India ink to give the effect of leaded glass. It is very simple to make and let; castle, medium gray, with roofs charming when finished and lighted. in soft old term cotta; windows, pur-shade is given and one-fourth of the underneath part of bridge purple; repattern. The pattern given is merely flection of bridge in water, purple: repeated four times, with a half-inch reflection of clouds in water, white seam at each end, to be turned in at When the paint is perfectly dry go right angles to the shade and fastened over all the lines with India ink and a with brads. Another way to finish is coarse pen. The panels are now ready to leave a flap on one side only and to glue into the frame. glue the other side over it. A strong The tiny thumb sketch in the up glue must be used; mucilage or pho- per left-hand corner of the cut shows tograph paste will not do.

I.I. manner of fairs, bazars and | The first step is to trace the pattern lawn parties are being held for on the heavy water color paper by one purpose or another and those | means of carbon paper, then paint it

Next the partels may be traced and painted in water color, using these colors: Clouds, white; sky, light co balt blue; water, darker blue; trees green; land in foreground, a shade darker green; hills in middle distance yellow green; hills in distance, vio The design for a round candle ple; bridge, darker gray than castle the completed shade.

Shirrings are on their way back. The separate coat is more fashionable than ever before.

Gray, tan, khaki and even darker shades are more worn than the white Belt buckles, necklaces, hatpins, and stickpins are ablaze with amethysts. The one-piece princess dress is supplanting the separate waist and skirt. presentable after having been wet White buckskin shoes with wide with rain. For some reason it is albuckles of burnished gold are smart. Stockings match every variety of ling and shrinking and hardening efstoes and the more fashionable dress fect of the water. The best plan is to Soft, cool blouses of China or Jap-Wear. New silk parasols have handles to will return the soft texture if any match, made of enameled or lacquered thing will, but the gloves will never

The Evening Hood.

In spite of the warm weather there is no abatement of the popularity of the evening hood, which is an ideal head covering for girls flying about in motor cars to parties. To be both utilitarian and picturesque is recomrel, and the hoods have this merit, for they admirably keep the hair from blowing, while affording z most charming frame for the youthful face. Made of dainty mull and delicate lace, the summer ones will be particularly fetching.

Glove Lore.

Most gloves absolutely refuse to be most impossible to efface the wrinkplace the gloves in a cool, dry roomnever near a fire-and, when dry, anese silk are popular for summer massage little olive oil into their skin before putting them on again. This really be the same.

THE LAW'S DELAY.

Hix-What's the settle a question? Dix-Go to law about it.

CHILD HAD SIXTY BOILS.

And Suffered Annually with a Red Scald-Like Humor on Her Head.

Troubles Cured by Cuticura.

"When my little Vivian was about six months old her head broke out in boils. She had about sixty in all and I used Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment which cured her entirely. Some time later a humor broke out bebind her ears and spread up on to her head until it was nearly half covered. The humor looked like a scald. very red with a sticky, clear fluid coming from it. This occurred every spring. I always used Cuticura Soap and Ointment which never failed to heal it up. The last time it broke out it became so bad that I was discouraged. But I continued the use of Cuticura Soap, Ointment and Resolvent until she was well and has never been troubled in the last two years. Mrs. M. A. Schwerin, 674 Spring Wells Potter Drug & Chem. Corp., Sole Props., Boston.

Praises American Woman, Alfred East says that American women, like American machines, need but little man power. The American woman, he says, is the most chummable woman in the world, therefore she is the most charming. Our excellent educational system, he thinks, is responsible for the fact that American women are such "good fellows."

With a smooth iron and Defiance Starch, you can launder your shirtwaist just as well at home as the steam laundry can; it will have the proper stiffness and finish, there will be less wear and tear of the goods.

Among Women.

"Why worry about the children?" "I can't help it." "But, my dear, you are hurting your game of bridge." Sere throat is no trifling ailment. It will sometimes carry infection to the entire system through the food that is eaten. Hamlins Wizard Oil is a sure, quick cure.

Faith.

Faith makes us, and not we it; and faith makes its own forms.-Emerson.

Lewis' Single Binder made of extra quality tobacco, costs more than other 5c cigars. Tell the dealer you want them.

Too often when the heart is willing

INVALUABLE for Summer Complaints

Dysentery, Diarrhea, Cholera Morbus, Cholera Infantum, Colic and Cramps. Also relieves Griping Pains, Sour Stomach, Vomiting, Sea Sickness, and Hysterics and Nervousness due to bowel affections.

DR. D. JAYNE'S Carminative Balsam

stops pain immediately and almost invariably brings about speedy recovery. This medicine s just as safe as it is effective. Get a bottle at your druggist's, and keep it always in the house. For the children's sake, don't go away for the Summer without taking a supply along. Per Bottle, 25c

Dr. D. Jayne's Expectorant is a

Nebraska Directory fresh. Send for catalogue and finishing prices.
THE ROBERT DEMPSTER CO.,
Box 1197. Omaha, Nob.

mendation enough for any article of CAFE PRICES REASONABLE are the best; insist on having them Ask your local dealer, or JOHN DEERE PLOW CO.

chers on receipt of 15 cts. in stamps, a 15-inch, bard ple, brees edged rule. JOHN G. WOODWARD