Washington.-With probably fewer than a quorum of members of either house in the city, all legislation in congress during the next two days will be by common consent. The house will undertake nothing more than the passage of some bills of minor importance and the completion of its work on the District of Columbia appropriation bill, which already has been under consideration for two or three days.

It has been hoped that the army supply bill might be taken up and disposed of before adjournment, but that program has been abandoned in the face of the departure of so many members. It is expected that very little time will be necessary for the disposal of the District bill, and with it out of the way the house, in the main, will simply "tread water" until the time for adjournment for the holi-
