Like a Miracle

Pains in Side and Breast

Despaired of Help, but Hood's Sarsaparilla Cured.

"C. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass.:

"I am glad to state my son's experience with Hood's Sarsaparilla, as it was the means of saving his life. Last fall he was taken ill with pains in his breast and side. He had the best medical attendance possible, and was treated by the doctors for some time, but did not realize any relief. He could not lay down day or night, and our hopes were fast falling. My aged mother advised a trial of Hood's Sarsaparilla. He commenced taking the medicine, and to our one bottle cured him of his pains and restored him to perfect health. This case has been looked upon by many in this vicinity as nothing short of a miracle." H. H. WALLS, Oswego, Kansas.

THE CRETE ASSEMBLY.

The music at the Crete Chautauqua this year will be better than ever. Miss Electa Gifford, the best soprano in Chicago, has been engaged to sing in concert and oratorio. Miss Gifford is the soprano in Dr. Clarence Eddy's famous quartet in the First Presbyterian church of Chicago. Miss Gifford has studied abroad for years under the best instructors on the continent. She is gifted with a powerful and flexible voice of great range and expression. In addition to her natural endowments she has had the finest vocal culture and finish that study can give. Miss Gifford made her first appearance in concert last year in the Chicago music hall under the direction of Mr. Theodore Thomas. On that occasion she sang the four first soprano recitatives and the aria "Rejoice Greatly" from Handel's Messiah. Her first concert was successful beyond all expectations and since then her successes have been many and of the most flattering nature. At Crete Miss Gifford will sing both sacred and concert music. The musical features of the program have always been leading attractions at Crete assemblies, and this year two such noted soloists as Mrs. Katherine Fisk and Miss Electa Gifford, Mrs. Raymond as chorus instructor and Mrs. W. O. Jones as piano soloist, will certainly more than maintain the Chautauqua musical reputation. The people who go to Crete go to be entertained as well as to be instructed, and next to grand opera there is nothing so fascinating as first-class concert music by good singers. There is a particular and peculiar advantage in the fact that these singers will be heard on more than one occasion. The west is so corrupted by one night stands that it misses one of the greatest musical pleasures, that of hearing a great artist time after time in succession and studying the changes and modulations in her voice. A singer heard once is never understood or appreciated. People who only hear a singer in one night stands never know her at her best. It is the chance of repeatedly hearing the same artist that makes the long engagement in New York worth so much to lovers of music. This summer at Crete there will be an opportunity for the people of Nebraska to hear fine singing continuously and so be able to judge and enjoy it in a larger and more intelligent way than they are able to do from the one night concert system.

A HAPPY MAN.

Ah, life looks very bright to me,
Since I have heard her say,
With sweet, becoming modesty,
She'll marry me some day—

If I will give up smoking;
If I will go to church;
If I will cut the club and leave
My best friends in the lurch;
If I will never stay out late,
But hasten home at nine;
If I will let her have her way—
She's promised to be mine!

If I will move to Brooklyn;
And never touch a card;
If I will buckle down to work,
And labor hard and long
To buy her stylish bonnets,
And gowns, and lots of gloves;
Then I may be that happy man,
The lucky man she loves!

If I'll be always pleasant,
And never, never scold;
And never make her nurse me,

And not grow cross and old;
And always stay good looking—
She can't stand ugly men—
If I come up to her ideal,
Why, we'll be married then!

That's why I am so happy,
And why I often seem
Unconscious and abstracted—
I'm living in a dream!
She is so sweet and pretty,
And so unselfish, too!
I wonder how I won her love—
I can't believe it's true!—Life.

M. Hammerly, a well-known business man of Hillsboro, Va., sends this testimony to the merits of Ayer's Sarsaparilla: "Several years ago, I hurt my leg, the injury leaving a sore which led to erysipelas. My sufferings were extreme, my leg, from the knee to the ankle, being a solid sore, which began to extend to other parts of the body. After trying various remedies, I began taking Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and, before I had finished the first bottle, I experienced great relief; the second bottle effected a complete cure."
