

Heart Would Stop Beating

They Said He Would Not Live a Year

Perfectly Cured — No Catarrh Now—Hood's Did It.

"C. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass.:

"Gentlemen: It gives me pleasure to certify to the efficacy of Hood's Sarsaparilla in the case of my father, who has suffered for years with in the head. The former grew worse every day, and especially at night time. When he would lie down a curious feeling would rise around his heart and his pulse would stop beating for seconds. He could breathe well, but all the air he could inhale did not seem to relieve him. He would have to get up out of bed and stir round until it wore off. We became alarmed, and our friends said he would not live a year. The family physician prescribed several remedies, but all to no avail. Finally a physician advised him to take Hood's Sarsaparilla. He did so, and before he had taken one bottle realized that it was helping him. He has taken over four bottles now, and is not bothered any more with heart spells. He can sleep sound as a baby. He does not have any more trouble with the catarrh, and for the benefit of suffering humanity, for we can recommend Hood's Sarsaparilla to be all and more than is claimed for it." Miss ANNIE WHEELER, Rondo, Missouri.

HIS LITTLE SON.

"Oh, papa, see that steamer smoke;
Ain't that a big cigar?
Could you smoke one as big as that?
Ain't it up awful far?"

"How do the steamer mans get there
To touch a match to it?
Would you fall off if you climed up?
Where do you suppose you'd hit?"

"Where do they buy such big cigars?
How long will that one last?
Do they buy 'em like you in a box?
Don't the boat go awful fast?"

"What makes the smoke come out so black?
Ain't it a funny trick?"

Say, papa, if you smoked like that,
Wouldn't it make you sick?

"Wont it run over those little boats?
Will the bridge man let it thro?
Papa, when I am a great big man,
Can I have a steamer too?"

And thus he chatters o'er the bridge?
As happy as a lark,
Would I take the world for my four-year-old Interrogation mark?

A LAW GRADUATE.

He has just come out of college,
With his head crammed full of knowledge.
So he thinks! So he thinks!

He will surely make a hit,
With his arguments and wit,
So he thinks! So he thinks!

He will argue like a sage,
Though but 20 years of age,
So he thinks! So he thinks!

He has come to courts to alter,
In his works he'll never falter,
So he thinks! So he thinks!

But he'll run against a stump,
And receive a great big bump,
So we think! So we think!

He will learn he's sometimes wrong,
And his points not always strong,
So we think! So we think!

He will learn life's hard and dreary,
That courts don't run on theory,
So we think! So we think.

And he'll say: "I have very oft
Been very green and very soft,"
So we think! So we think!

INDEFINITELY INSTANTANEOUS.

The young man dropped some white powder into glass filled with water and swallowed it.

"What's that?" inquired the boss.
"I've got a headache, and that is 'instan-taneous headache cure' I'm taking."
"What's the dose?"
"A teaspoonful in a glass of water every twenty minutes until relieved."

"Ah?"

"That's what; and I've been taking it since early this morning."

Only the Scars Remain.

"Among the many testimonials which I see in regard to certain medicines performing cures, cleansing the blood, etc.," writes
HENRY HUDSON, of the James Smith

Woolen Machinery Co., Philadelphia, Pa., "none impress me more than my own case. Twenty years ago, at the age of 18 years,
I had swellings come on my legs, which broke and became running sores.
Our family physician could do me no good, and it was feared that the bones would be affected. At last,
my good old mother
urged me to try Ayer's Sarsaparilla. I took three bottles, the sores healed,
and I have not been troubled since. Only the scars remain, and the memory of the past, to remind me of the good

Ayer's Sarsaparilla has done me. I now weigh two hundred and twenty pounds, and am in the best of health. I have been on the road for the past twelve years, have noticed Ayer's Sarsaparilla advertised in all parts of the United States, and always take pleasure in telling what good it did for me."
