

COMING: THE BIG SHOW OF THE WORLD.

The title of Sells Brothers enormous enterprise is not an empty name, nor a vain boast. Its claim is just as it is; truly, "The Big Show of the World." Not only because of the unparalleled features presented, its unequalled performance in its magnificent triple circuses and elevated stages, its all over-shadowing immensity, its grand zoological exhibit including fifty monster cage menagerie of wild animals. Its Royal Regal Hippodrome and Gala Day Sport. Its Imperial Spectacular Triumph Pilgrimage to Mecca. Its grand, gorgeous and bewildering street pageant; but also on account of the new departure it has originated and inaugurated all new features, improving and perfecting its performance, equalizing low prices of everything by cutting its price of admission from fifty to twenty-five cents—for everybody, which is a fearless stroke of managerial policy, sending terror to weak-headed rivals whose pigmy brains have been racked to meet exigencies of dull times—other shows have cut down—Sells Brothers have enlarged. While other so-called big circuses hold fast to high prices with reduced to attractions, Sells Brothers, the millinaire magnates, have adopted the exact opposite. They do not stint their stupendous performance in the least, as they have successfully managed and owned their Enormous United Shows for the past twenty-three years, and have maintained a pre-eminence over all and is acknowledged to be the "only big show of the world." Since adopting the low price of admission to the mammoth aggregation they have met the approval of the amusement loving public, as the prices have been placed in reach of all—twenty-five cents—and it is, without a doubt, the greatest cyclone that has ever excited the circus world. How so much can be exhibited for the small price of admission is a conundrum we shall not attempt to answer. If Sells Brothers can stand it the public and ourselves will be glad to do so, and we'll all be there, too.

The promised Hosiery sale at Herpolsheimer & Co's begins today, Saturday, and last Monday and Tuesday. Children's 15c ribbed hose 10c. Ladies 19c quality go at 12½ cents. Mens Maco 19c Hosiery at 11 cents. This is the last hose sale for the season.

Sol Smith Russel has an ambition to play Dr. Pangloss and Falstaff.....Lotta contradicts the report that she will return to the stage next season.....John L. Ellsler, the veteran manager, is now a milk dealer in Philadelphia.....John Henry Broadribb is Henry Irving's proper name, and under which he appeared for several years in the early part of his career.....Julia Marlowe, in the days when she was Fanny Brough, was a member of the juvenile Pinafore companies of Haverly and Miles.....Rob Roy, a comic opera, by Smith and DeKoven, will be produced by F.C. Whitney in October. The company he is organizing will be headed by Helen Bartram.....Melba made her appearance at La Scala, Milan, on a recent Sunday evening in Lucia di Lammermoor, and scored a triumph in the presence of a distinguished audience, including the queen of Italy.....Joseph Jefferson has established himself at his comfortable place on Buzzard's Bay. He has a better house than the one that was destroyed by fire. Recently he received calls from his neighbors, Richard Watson Gilder and Grover Cleveland.....The play written by Sardou for Sarah Bernhardt is historical, and is founded on events in the middle ages. This will give the Bernhardt a chance to show something original and willowy in the way of costumes and something showy in the way of jewels. says the Brooklyn Eagle.

LIFE.

Life like a marble block, is given to all,
A blank, inchoate mass of years and days,
Whence one with ardent chisel swift essays
Some shape of strength or symmetry call
One shatters it in bits to mend a wall;
One in a craftier hand the chisel lays,
And one to wake the mirth in Leasia's gaze
Carves it apace in toys fantastical.

But least is he who, with enchanted eyes
Filled with high visions of fair shapes to be,
Muses which god he shall mortalize
In the proud Parian's perpetuity,
Till twilight warns him from the punctual skies
That the night cometh wherein none shall see.

Public spirit in this town is getting faster asleep every day. Pretty soon it will reach a state where recovery will be impossible. How long will it be before there is some movement, some tangible evidence in the shape of a commercial club, or something like it, to show that Lincoln is not entirely dead.

ALL ARRANGED.
