Spirit Lake is enjoying something like its old popularity this summer, though the greater majority of the people who visit that resort prefer to rough it rather than endure the exorbitant rates and fashionable routine of the Hotel Orleans. Lake Okibogi, in particular, is very popular with Omaha and Lincoln people, and camping parties from these two cities and from various Iowa points are frequently to be met with. The following from the Excelsior gives the names of some of this year's devotees of the lakes: Mr. and Mrs. Day, Mr. and Mrs. Burgess, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Baum and family, Mr. and Mrs. Wilhelm, Mr. and Mrs. John L. Kennedy, Mrs. Colpetzer, Miss Cady and the Misses Brownie and Sadie Baum, and to be joined later by Miss Andreesen. Others from Omaha are talking of going up later, including Mr. Kreidor, manager of the Cudahy company, and Mrs. Kreidor, Captain and Mrs. Mulford and Mrs. Pope, Mr. and Mrs. Wheeler. Mr. A. H. Moore, president of the First National bank of Dunlap, Iowa, and Mrs. Moore are there, and there will be quite a delegation from Lincoln, including Mr. and Mrs. Charles Burr, who have just arrived from their honeymoon, and Mrs. L. C. Burr, who will chaperone Miss May Burr, Miss Carson, Miss Bertie Burr and Miss Clark. Of the Lincoln young men there will be Mr. Lew Marshall, (a brother of Mrs. D. H. Wheeler, jr.) and Mr. Frank Burr. This will make a very jolly crowd, and the summer, with its boating and fishing, and its swim-
