

The principal social and military event of the week was the mustering in of the Nebraska State band on Friday evening at the State Capitol. It was a full dress affair throughout the military bodies appeared in full dress and the ladies and gentlemen attending were also in social uniform. The officers of the Nebraska National guards were present. Among those noticed were: Governor and Commander-in-chief, Lorenzo Crouse, Lincoln; Adjutant-General Gen. James D. Gage, Lincoln; Quartermaster and Commissioner-general, Col. George E. Jenkins, Fairbury; Surgeon-general, Col. R. Emmett Giffen, Lincoln; Harry S. Hotchkiss, Lincoln; Judge Advocate General, Major John C. Watson, Nebraska City and the aides-de-camp: Col. Clareodon E. Adams, Superior; Col. W. F. Cody, North Platte; Col. H. O. Paine, Ainsworth; Col. John J. Pershing U. S. A., Lincoln; Col. John H. McColl, Lexington; Col. H. P. Shumway, Wakefield; Col. H. B. Mulford, Omaha; Col. E. M. Correll, Hebron; Col. Niel Brennau, O'Neill. A large number of the fashionable contingent were present and after the promenade concert, dancing was indulged in until a late hour. The evening was pronounced by all an overwhelming success.

Born—To Mr. and Mrs. Besin Welch, a son.

Countess Wachtmeister lectured to a large audience at the Universalist church on Monday evening, her subject being "Magnetism and Hypnotism."

Mrs. L. C. Pace is entertaining her sister, Mrs. Rustin of Evansville, Ind.

W. F. Meyer returned from Colorado Saturday.

Dr. Dorris has returned from a pleasant trip to Lake Superior and Mackinaw Island.

Mrs. A. D. Beemer and daughter Luree and Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Dorgan have returned from the Black Hills.

C. A. Hebbard, editor of the St. Paul Press of St. Paul, Neb., was in the city Sunday.

Rev. S. R. Belville, pastor of the Presbyterian church of Wahoo, spent Sunday in the city.

Misses Jeanette Wilson, Fay Marshall and Mary Miller and Messrs John T. Dorgan, Will D. Robinson, Fritz Westerman and Matt Baldwin, chaperoned by Mesdames Marshall and Wilson, left Saturday for Sheridan, Wyo. They will take a stage there and will travel about fifty miles into the mountains where they will camp for a couple of weeks.

Warden Beemer is visiting in Stanton county.

A report has been circulated in society circles which has for its theme the engagement of a charming visiting young lady and a member of the Pleasant Hour club.

T. J. Pickett of Ashland, who is a prospective candidate for secretary of state, was in the city Wednesday.

Mrs. Dr. S. M. Lane and daughter Miss Bessie have returned from the east.

Frank Cowdery and George Bartlett left last Wednesday for Custer, S. D., where they will join a camping party of university students.

Born—Wednesday July 18, to Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Seacrest, a son.

The Countess Wachmeister while in Lincoln was the guest of Mrs. C. C. Burr.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Funke have gone to Iowa.

Hon. Tom Benton and wife have returned from Chicago.

Mr. Cather and Miss Willa Cather are visiting Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Gere.

Dr. H. Blair and wife of St. Joseph are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Hickey at 1008 D street.

Mr. Henry Mayer has gone to San Francisco. During the coming month he will wed Miss Sweitzer of that city.

Mrs. M. A. Zonse of Denver is the guest of Mrs. C. H. Gere.

Mrs. K. K. Hayden and daughter left last Wednesday on the B. & M flyer.

Miss Gertrude Marsland has gone to Bradford, Yorkshire, Eng., and will remain until November visiting relatives. Her father accompanied her as far as New York, from which place she sailed Saturday in the Cunarder Servia.

Mrs. O. F. Lambertson has gone to the White Mountains.

Mrs. M. L. Trester and son went to Aurora, Ill., this week for a visit with relatives and friends.

Mrs. Mark Tilton and wife left Thursday for a summer outing. They will be away several weeks and will visit friends in Michigan and Wisconsin.

Governor Thayer has returned from Hot Springs, S. D. where he lectured twice before the chautauqua, taking for his subjects "General Grant" and "The Iconoclast."

Justice L. A. McCandless and wife have gone to Wetmore, Colo.

The Capital City Gun club is anxious to become the leading club of the state. It has a good membership and there is talk of building a club house. The business meeting was held Friday evening at Dr. Lamberts office. The members of the club are Messrs Rodgers, Hartly Shilling, Graham, Rudge, Woods, Speer, Emery, White, Elan, Davis, Dayton, Mockett, Miller, Dorgan, Kerman, Hanks, Lambertson and Schwalks.

Edward McIntyre of Seward has been spending the week with Dr. Billings at Gra'ton, Mass. He left Monday for Stafford, Vt., his old home, where he will remain several weeks.

Mesdames J. A. Bolton, J. M. Stewart and C. M. Shepherd left Monday for Colorado Springs.

W. E. Burris of Indianapolis is visiting his cousin, Mrs. N. R. Dennis.

A report has been circulated in society circles, which has for its interesting theme, the engagement of a visiting young lady and a well known member of the Pleasant Hour club.

The mustering in of the Nebraska State band on Friday evening was a very swell affair.