

Iared G. Smith and wife left Tuesday for St. Louis.

Alfred Kind returned Tuesday from Dunkirk, N. Y., where he has been visiting his parents.

Misses Margaret and Alice Hall, of Norfolk, are visiting Miss Grace Huntsinger.

Professor Nicholson left on Tuesday for the Black Hills.

Dr. Kay has returned to Chicago, after a months' visit in this city.

Mr. George Scott is in Chicago.

Mr and Mrs. A. C. Townsend have gone to St. Louis.

G. W. Baldwin, manager of the Crete Lumber company, was in Lincoln Tuesday.

Miss Henrietta Hawley is visiting friends in Cedar Bluffs.

Mrs. L. C. Pace entertained a coterie of friends on Friday in honor of her sister, Mrs. Robert Rustin, of Evansville, Ind.

Jay A. Barrett, assistant secretary of the State Horticultural society is spending his vacation in Salt Lake City. He will return early in August.

The following left Lincoln Monday for Denver: Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Wolcott, Miss Abbie Beardsley, Mr. S. E. Moore, Mr. W. A. Casebeer, Rev. John Hewitt, Miss Josephine Tremaine, Miss Laura B. Haggard, Mr. E. A. Miller.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Pickett was the scene of an animated company on Monday evening last, the occasion being an informal party given in honor of Mrs. Robert Rustin, of Evansville, Ind. The evening was pleasantly spent with cards, music and pleasant conversation. At 10 o'clock the guests were invited to the dining room where a most delicious repast was served. The guests were Messrs. and Mesdames L. C. Pace, Chas. Pace, Mark Woods, Sam Cox, John Bain, Henry Gund, E. R. Guthrie, Bert Richards, Welton, Pickett, Schwind, Covert, J. H. Odell, Sam Nesbitt and Mrs. Robert Rustin.

Mrs. Sam Nesbitt entertained a few friends most delightfully at a 5 o'clock tea on Thursday. Covers were laid for Mesdames Sam Cox, L. C. Pace, Chas Pace, T. J. Pickett and Mark Woods.

Mrs. Mark Woods gave a very delightful dinner party on Saturday. The table was prettily decorated with green and white, each place being marked with a white rose. A delicious dinner was served in courses. Those present were Messrs. and Mesdames Robt. Rustin, L. C. Pace, T. J. Pickett, Chas. Pace, Messrs. J. H. Odell, Eugene Pace and Miss Fannie Woods.

Rev. D. C. Marquis has gone to Denver.

George F. Darrington, travelling passenger agent for the Missouri Pacific, was in the city Tuesday.

Miss Etta Gould departed Tuesday for Owassa.

Mrs. L. P. Gould and daughter left Wednesday on an extended visit to relatives and friends in Michigan.

A lawn social was given at the First Congregational church on Tuesday evening for the benefit of the "N" street mission. The grounds around the church were illuminated with Japanese lanterns and small tote-a-toie tables were arranged under the trees. The members of Miss West's class served ices and cake during the evening.

M. A. Daugherty, of Ogallala, who is prominently mentioned as a coming republican candidate for congress in the Sixth district, was in the city yesterday.

Mr. A. M. Davis' lawn presented a pretty scene on Tuesday evening, the occasion being a sociable given by the ladies of the Epworth League of the St. Paul church. A good program, consisting of music and recitations was rendered, after which a bevy of pretty girls served refreshments on small tables scattered about the lawn. The sociable was a success financially as well as socially.

Professors Bruner and Taylor, of the State University, expect to leave the coming week for a trip through the Big Horn country.

Mrs. George P. Marvin and sister, of Beatrice, were guests of Mrs. H. M. Bushnell, Tuesday.

Judge Strode has gone to Falls City and Burchard, where will interview voters of the First congressional district.

Hon. E. M. Bartlett, of Omaha, was in the city Wednesday visiting his sister.

Roscoe Pound is one of the hard-working young attorneys in the city who contemplates a visit to the Big Horn mountains early in August.

Miss Conger entertained a number of young people very pleasantly Wednesday evening at her home at Seventeenth and K.

IN OMAHA.

Cupid has been so busy the past spring and summer that the bride bells will ring out unceasingly from early fall to the new year. Besides those that have already announced their engagements are rumors of the approaching nuptials of one of our largest capitalists to the widow of an ex-congressman, Our greatest heiress to an out of town man. A tall, blonde officer to a young woman from the east, now a guest at the garrison.

Mrs. S. Joseph Barker entertained a few friends at luncheon yesterday.

Miss Hughes left this week on a visit to Colonel and Mrs. Hughes at Baltimore, Md.

The engagement is announced of Miss McClelland to Lieutenant H. McL. Powell, of the 2d U. S. Infantry.

Miss Doane is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Curtis, at Lake Okobojie.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wyman have returned from their honeymoon and will be the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Brown for two weeks until their house is ready for occupancy.

Mrs. Lyman Richardson is home after a three months' absence in the east.

Mrs. Cody and children have returned from Lake Okobojie.

Mrs. John A. McShane is expected home from Hot Springs today. She will bring her sisters, Mrs. Hogan and Mrs. Larnegan and her niece, Miss Burk, with her.

Captain Crowder returned Monday morning from a short trip to Columbus Barracks.

Lieut. A. G. C. Quay expects to sail on August 8th, for a three months' trip abroad.

The Omaha Club building, which is being erected on the corner of Douglass and Twentieth streets, is rapidly approaching completion. The architect has pledged himself to have it ready for occupancy by November 1st, when its members will doubtless indulge in something in the way of a housewarming worth remembering.

Miss E. E. Holden, Stenographer, Typist and Notary Public, makes a specialty of depositions and legal work.

137 North Thirteenth street, Lansing Theatre Building.