FROM TOWN TOPIGS.

Marie—Was there anything sensational about that swell wedding?

Madge—Oh, no end of surprises! It was a love match; the hundred thousand-dollar check was as good as gold; the groom didn't forget the ring; the bride didn't mix up her "I do's!" and her "I will's!" and not one attempt to steal the presents was made by burglars. If my wedding went off so scandalously commonplace as that I would die of mortification, really!

Mrs. Hicks—I've had green Irish girls before, Katie, but you are the greenest I ever had.

Katie—Thankee, mum; but I'm what ye might call a dirty slate color to me sister Ann.

Freshleigh—Do you see that plump blonde woman over there, Miss de Snap? I think she's rather fast, don't you?

Miss de Snap—(stiffly) That is my sister Mr. Freshleigh.

Freshleigh—Aw—er—beg pardon—I—er—thought it was Mrs. Golightly.

Miss de Snap (still more stiffly)—It is.

$100 REWARD, $100.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages and that is catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers, that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of Testimonials.

Address, F. J. CHENNEY & Co., Toledo, Ohio. Sold by druggists, 76 cents.

Marie—Why are morning weddings so fashionable now?

Mrs. Sasakiy—Well, you see, it has become so much more distinguished and unique for the bridegroom to go to the altar sober.

A Bright Lad,

Ten years of age, but who declines to give his name to the public, makes this authorized, confidential statement to us:

"When I was one year old, my mamma died of consumption. The doctor said that I, too, would soon die, and all our neighbors thought that even if I did not die, I would never be able to walk, because I was so weak and puny. A gathering formed and broke under my arm. I hurt my finger and it gathered and threw out pieces of bone. If I hurt myself so as to break the skin, it was sure to become a running sore. I had to take lots of medicine, but nothing has done me so much good as Ayer's Sarsaparilla. It has made me well and strong."—T. D. M., Norcatur, Kans.
