

institutions of the place. Though less than three thousand, its so little surprise as itself. It began life own high destiny, and accepts its growth-fair daughter among many wealthy and pected to be sought out and flattered, with all this assurance, it does not fail please its guests, and its standard of springs are very much en evidence original discoverers, and are said to waters with the most satisfactory re-

than five years old, and with a popula-precocious urbanity strikes none with with a profound and abiding faith in its ing success as a birthright. The one powerful brothers in the Hills, it ex-and is not surprised at the event. But to be gracious. No pains are spared to excellence is the world's best. The everywhere. The natives were the have tested the curative qualities of the suits, for, to paraphrase a well known

(To be continued.)

