FROM TOWN TOPICS.

"Fred kissed my hand."
"Wasn't your face clean."

Artist—I sold four pictures yesterday.
Friend—What are you going to do with the money?
"I think I'll buy a frame for another picture I'm working on."

"Was his first novel a success?"
"I imagine not. He has just written a second, entitled 'Hard Times.'"

Fanny—I am to marry the handsomest young man in town.
Julia—Oh, are you? So am I.

"Does he know that I am wealthy?"
"I imagine not. He said he saw freckles on your face."

The suspense was becoming unbearable.
"Tell me!" he demanded, "am I gaining any ground in my suit? Tell me, or I despair!"

She gazed reproachfully upon him.
"I never thought"—
Her tone was something cold and harsh.
"—when you said you loved me for myself alone that you were talking through your hat!"

Madge—So you shall give up indiscriminate dancina this coming season?

May—Yes.
Maage—And just stick to one or two of your favorites, eh?

May—Yes; the dance du ventre and the split.

Daisy—Doesn't Jack swear that he will reform if you marry him?

Della—Yes, that's just the trouble. I'm afraid he'll not be the least bit fascinating.

Edith—The last thing Arthur did was to kiss me.

Flora—When will he be buried?

$100 REWARD, $100.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages and that is catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers, that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of Testimonials.

Address, F. J. CHENNEY & Co., Toledo, Ohio. Sold by druggists, 76 cents.

INFLUENZA,

Or La Grippe, though occasionally epidemic, is always more or less prevalent. The best remedy for this complaint is Ayer's Cherry Pectoral.

"Last Spring, I was taken down with La Grippe. At times I was completely prostrated, and so difficult was my breathing that my breast seemed as if confined in an iron cage. I procured a bottle of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, and no sooner had I begun taking it than relief followed. I could not believe that the effect would be so rapid and the cure so complete. It is truly a wonderful medicine."—W. H. WILLIAMS, Crook City, S. D.
