Hoyle says: "When in doubt, lead a trump." Hoyle being a recognized authority on games of cards, people refer to him as such. In like manner we want our friends to refer to us when in doubt as to the best place to buy jewelry. This world is pretty much a game of draw. It takes a rich man to draw a check, a pretty girl to draw attention, a horse to draw a cart, a plaster to draw a blister, a toper to draw a cork, a dog fight to draw a crowd, Hallett to draw the jewelry trade. Mr. Hallett was very busy when he was called upon by the COURIER scribe this week and reports that he has had a very successful week. "You see," said Mr. Hallett, "I keep something attractive in the window and the people are beginning to learn that we carry the most select stock of diamonds, watches, clocks, jewelry, canes and novelties in the city." If you are thinking of buying a present for someone drop in and see Mr. Hallett at 1143 O street. He will be sure to please you.

There is no better medicine for family use than Ayer's Cathartic Pills. Their sugar-coating makes them easy and even agreeable to take, and as they contain no calomel or other injurious drug, they are perfectly safe for patients of any age.

COMING ATTRACTIONS.

An ever winning and popular successful farce comedy will be the offering at the Lansing theatre tonight by a clever company of versatile comedians and comedienues entitled 4-11-44. This comedy whilst new this season, has given unlimited pleasure and unrestrained amusement in all the cities where seen as being all that is claimed for it, simply for laughter and pure fun. The management of the Lansing theatre furnish something good in 4-11-44 tonight.

Like Tennyson's brook, Hoyt's "A Trip to Chinatown," seems to run on and on. This merry musical satire comes to us direct from its unprecedented run of over 600 nights at Hoyt's theatre, New York City, and will be seen on next Wednesday evening at the Lansing theatre exactly the same as when presented at the metropolitan theatre. The company Mr. Hoyt has selected to interpret his work includes some of the cleverest comedians and singers now on the stage. The piece itself needs no introducing, as most every theatre goer in the country is acquainted with the fact that "A Trip to Chinatown" was written "only to amuse" and has no pretensions to plot. Several new songs have been added all of which will prove tuneful and catchy as Mr. Hoyt has never been known to fail in writing a topical song each year that has not caught the fancy of the public. Mr. Frank Lane, who plays the part of Welland Strong heads the list of comedians and promises to be as funny as his character would indicate. Gerald Griffen, the "Ben Gay" of the company, is just as sedate as a staid old man could be when out with the boys. Lottie Mortimer, as Flirt, is more captivating than ever. Georgie Bryton, as Willie Grow, is thoroughly up to the times for a youngster, while Sara Maddern as the gushing widow, Mrs. Guyer, and in fact the entire company are deserving of mention.

The scenery, costumes, properties have all been renovated since its production at the home theatre and are carried with the company. Mr. Hoyt intends to present "A Trip to Chinatown" in a manner that will leave little to be desired from the amusement loving public.

Fowler's players will be at the Funke all of the coming week at popular prices. This is one of the best cheap companies on the road and those who have never attended any of these popular priced shows do not know how much merit there is in this attraction. Monday evening the company will present "A Wife's Honor" with all the scenery and an elaborate wardrobe cannot fail to please the full house that is surely waiting for them. Operatic orchestra under the direction of E. Hutchins. Mrs. Lillian Hutchins, pianist. New songs, dances, new musical specialties. Ladies will be admitted free Monday night to see "A Wife's Honor," accompanied by an escort with one paid reserve ticket purchased before 7 o'clock p. m. Prices 10, 20 and 30 cents.
