

Mrs. Burnham's musicale was the leading social event of the week and it was thoroughly appreciated. Probably it was the excitement over the election that prevented a greater activity in society. Next week promises much better. A special meeting of the Pleasant

Hour club is called for to-day at 12 o'clock at Zehring's store.

Charles C. Frease, of Napoleon, Ohio, is in the city, the guest of Mr. L. L. H. Austin.

Miss Mary Dawes, of Marietta, Ohio, who was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Dawes, left for home yesterday.

The Patriarchs will entertain the Empire club at the dance to be given Wednesday evening November 14.

The Round Table met Monday evening at the residence of Rev. John Hewitt. The subject discussed was "Shall the Jury System be Abolished?" Mr. Geisthardt led.

Mrs. S. H. Burnham entertained a number of young ladies Friday afternoon in honor of Miss Alexander of Omaha.

The most charming musical event of the season occurred on Wednesday evening at the beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Burnham. The house was prettily decorated in chrysanthemums and roses and the universal response to the invitations testified most heartily to the appreciation of those so favored. Mr. and Mrs. Burnham were assisted in receiving their guests by Mrs. Carl Funke, Mrs. Hall and Mrs. Raymond. During the intermission refreshments were served while the buzz of conversation showed the congeniality of the company. After the recital compliments of the sincerest kind were bestowed upon Mr. Seiveking who impressed his audience most fully with the high artistic manner of his playing. His program was artistically chosen and both he and his audience understood each other most completely and were in full sympathy. He generously responded to an enthusiastic encore at the close of the program which was as follows:

Peer Gynt suite	Greig
a { Introduction et Valse Lente	} (by request) Seiveking
b { Minuet
c { The Bee

Ten Minutes Intermission.

Fire Scene	Wagner
Valse de Concert	Albaniz

The annual banquet of Sorosis occurs tonight at the residence of Mrs. A. J. Sawyer. The regular meeting occurs Nov. 12 in room No. 17 Nebraska hall when Miss Richardson will illustrate her trip through the Yellowstone by stereoptician views.

The first quarterly concert given by the students of the Nebraska conservatory of music for the present year occurred at the conservatory Monday evening. The program was opened with the trio "Lift Thine Eyes" from Mendelssohn's "Elijah" by the Cecelian choir. The piano numbers were Raff's "La Fileuse" by Miss Naomi Weaver, Bethoven's Sonata op 51 "by Miss Rene Smith" Hummel concerto op 89 by Miss Myrtle Anderson, the orchestral parts played on second piano by Mr. Gray. Miss Doris Stevenson and Miss Ninon Gentry's duet was well rendered and was one of the best numbers. Mrs. Carter sang a solo in her usual pleasing style. Mr. Meyer Barr and Miss Bertha Davis furnished the violin solos. Miss Pearl Skeen recited "The Lepers" from "Ben Hur". The program closed with a series of posings by Misses Skeen and Young from the tableaux d' art class. The program was excellent thorough and was enjoyed by a large number.

Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Hathaway who have been the guests of Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Muir left for Denver Friday.

Miss Lizzie Morton of Nebraska City, who has been Miss Florence Hawley's guest for the past week left for her home Thursday.

Miss Barker of Omaha has issued invitations for a party to be given in honor of Miss Rachael Brock.

One of the jolliest parties of the week was the Ravola hop at the Lansing hall last evening. The parties given by this club are always delightful and this being the opening dance it was exceptionally enjoyable. The gowns worn by the young ladies were particularly fetching, the music was enchanting, and altogether it was a very pleasant affair. The dancers were Misses, Martha Burks, Stella Elliott, Jessie Leland, Florence Winger, Daisy Cochran, Florence Farwell, Eva Bicketts, Josephine Lottridge, May Moore, Stella Curtice, Grace Huntsinger, Lottie Whedon, Maude Shaw, Ada Heaton, Ethel Hooper, Grace Ashton, Emerald Jones, Sadie Gresham, Lucy Griffith and Messrs Case Edwards, of Chicago; Frank Askin, Park Garoutte, Alfred Fussy, Ora Ward, Clate Shader, Elmer Merrill, Johnston, Clare Young, Hebard, Duff, Andrews, Hamer, Harry Grupe, Frank Kitchen, Frank Hadley, Ralph Winger, Arthur Walsh, Wilson Winger and Harry Harley.

The grand military ball to be given by company D. of the National Guards Wednesday evening Nov. 14th. promises to be a leading social event.
