

Mr. A. K. Andriano, superintendent of the mercantile reporting department of Snow, Church & Co., Omaha, writes of the business situation as follows for THE COURIER:

"Business has been greatly interrupted this week by the excitement of election; but business men generally are looking for a considerable revival as soon as people have recovered from the current excitement, and as soon as cold weather sets in. The unfavorable effect that the election of a populist governor might have had, is offset by the decisive republican victory in the legislature, and it is not believed that any ill effects will follow. The business prospects on whole are excellent, the outlook for the retail trade between now and January 1st being especially favorable."

Among the many varieties of fruit which it is both possible and profitable to raise in this country, none have obtained a more prominent place in the hearts of true westerners than the bean. Taken with a large and generous slice of pork, so much written about with the Armour's-Swift hog pens, they are, indeed, a dish fit for the gods or Billy Bryan. Among the many varieties known to the soil of the west are the lima bean (from Lima Ohio), the castor bean, the kidney bean, the canned beans, the string bean, and the "has been." The "has beens" are probably the best known of any. It is said by prominent New Yorkers that Boston is jealous of Lincoln on account of the quality of her beans. It is said also that there are people who live in and around Lincoln who don't "know beans." We've seen some of them ourselves. One of them was in this morning. He bought a diamond at a pawn shop and then came here after he had bought it to see if he had got beat. Of course he found out that he had and he couldn't get his money back for it. If he had bought it here and been dissatisfied with it in any way he'd have had his money back in less than a minute. It is coming near the holiday season we want you to come in and see what we have got for you. If you don't see what you want in our window, come inside. Finest line of jewelry in the city. E. Hallett, 1143 O. St.

Rheumatic Twinges

Are escaped by the use of HUMPHREY'S SPECIFIC NO. 15. The infallible cure for rheumatism, sciatica and lumbago. For sale by all druggists. 25c.

Umbrella the most important adjunct of ladies's and gentlemen's dress, so say the leading fashion periodicals. No matter how stylishly you may be dressed, if the umbrella is missing you are void in your make up. Umbrella sale at Herpolsheimer's at which prices are a mere bagatelle as compared with qualities—$1.00 umbrellas for 59c; $1.25 for 79c; $2.50 and $3.00 for $1.49; $3.00 and $3.50 for $1.69.

How quickly our impressions of a person are formed by the style of her cloak. Always buy where variety is plentiful and up to date styles are to be had. Such a department is at Herpolsheimer & Co's.

Natural wool pants and vests for ladies in the popular IXL rib in two thread goods is now on sale for $2.09 each at Herpolsheimer & Co.

"A chemical success and medical triumph," so speaks an eminent physician in reference to Ayer's Cherry Pectoral; and the eulogy was none too strong. No other medicine is so safe and efficacious in all diseases of the throat and lungs.

HE STRUCK A MINOR CHORD.

It is said that the wife of the next mayor of Lincoln will be a pronounced blonde.

0—0

It is understood that Mr. Mohrenstecher's wedding will occur Thanksgiving day at Quincy.

0—0

Between now and February 1, there are several weddings due in which society will have a decided interest.

0—0

The Pleasant Hour club is this year the last dancing club to organize; but that it will have a prosperous season is already assured.

0—0

There is a feeling of rivalry between the Patriarchs and the Empire club, but when the clubs get together, which is seldom, there is no trace of this feeling. Wednesday evening the Patriarchs return the compliment bestowed by the Empire club at the commencement of the season.

0—0

Mrs. Baum and Mrs. Wilhelm, of Omaha, who were patronesses of the minstrel entertainment recently given in Boyd's opera house by a number of young women prominent in Omaha society, were in the city this week arranging for a repetition of this entertainment in Lincoln. It is promised that this swell minstrel show will be given at the Funke opera house next Thursday night. All of the performers are well known young people, and the entertainment is likely to attract a large and fashionable audience.

0—0

It is not generally known, by the way, that several weeks ago, arrangements were almost completed for a minstrel show by home talent, to be recruited entirely from the ranks of society. The departure of one or two of the prospective leading participants caused the abandonment of the project.

0—0

Dr. H. O. Rowland, the new pastor of the First Baptist church arrived Friday.

0—0

Mrs. Patrick entertained a number of friends at cards Friday evening.

Better buy your next suit at THE GLOBE.