2—"Well, thank my lucky star—but—"

3—"what is it."

LINCOLN LIGHT INFANTRY.

How do you like drilling by the bugle?

We should have at least ten recruits by January 1.

Albert N. Miller and John Burbe are applicants for membership.

Lieut. Gascoigne and privates Clark and Rehlaender are preparing for winter. Look at those whiskers.

Corporal Ferguson thinks he was slighted because his name was among the privates on the Mendelssohn concert programs. Misery loves company, private Carpenter wasn't in it at all.

Indoor base ball furnishes plenty of amusement when the Mannerchor will let us use the hall. The L. L. I. B. B. association all wish Patton all kinds of success in his dealings with the committee.

Sergt. Cosgrave says he will see how the other fellows look before he forces his whiskers.

Why don't some of the whist players talk up a tournament for the coming winter? There is plenty of material.

January 1st will see some of the boys on the "honorary membership" list while not a few whose three years' enlistment will expire will re-enlist.

Sergt. Plummer is representing Plummer, Perry & Co. in the new territory opened up by the B. & M. His headquarters are at Edgmont, S. D.

Corp. Streight attended a party at Plattsmouth Monday night. Report to the summary court for five.
