In the District of Lancaster county, Nebraska. Sarah Johnson, plaintiff, vs William L Johnson, defendant.

William L. Johnson, defendant will take notice that on the 8th day of November 1894, Sarah Johnson, the plaintiff herein, filed her petition in the District court of Lancaster county, Nebraska, the object and prayer of which is to obtain a decree of divorce from the defendant, and for the custody of their minor child, Arthur Leroy Johnson, on the following grounds:

First—That the defendant wilfully deserted the plaintiff on the 30th day of June 1894, and has ever since that date cruelly, wilfully and wantonly refused and neglected to provide a suitable maintenance for the plaintiff, although being of sufficient ability to do so.

Second—That in the month of December 1892, the defendant committed adultery with a woman unknown to the plaintiff, in a brick block on Ninth street between "N" and "M" in the city of Lincoln, Lancaster county, Nebraska. And that the defendant is a fugitive from justice from the city of Lincoln, complaint being made against him for the embezzlement of money from the Clarkson Laundry company.

You are required to answer said petition on or before the 17th day of December, 1894.
