

The past week has not been characterized by any special activity or brilliance in social circles. There have been one or two interesting events, however, and the theatres have done their part in contributing to the week's pleasure. Monday the Empire club will give a dance. It is expected that society will manifest some interest in the Tavery Opera company's presentation of "Il Trovatore" at the Lansing theatre this evening.

Mr. Mattson Baldwin entertained Misses Olive Latta, Jeanette Wilson, Fay Marshall, Lillian Mills, of Cincinnati, Rachael Brock, Messrs John Dorgan, Will Robinson, Will Johnson and George Woods at dinner on Sunday.

Miss Leona Hawke, of Nebraska City, is visiting Mrs. M. C. Bennett at the Windsor.

The Christian endeavor society of Grace Lutheran church held a pleasant reunion last Friday evening at the home of Mrs. Troyer, 1331 F street.

Misses Sue Bartram, Frankie Burleigh, Bertha DuTeil, Sallie Berkson, Clara Leese, Rosa Kohn, Bernice Merrill, Jessie Greedy, Helen Dority, Messrs Harry Mitchell, Frank Hawley, Gene Parks, Gene Carter, Clark Lauer, Will Cullen, Lou Weckbach, Paul Percell and Edwin Morrison tendered Miss Mabel Parish a jolly surprise on Tuesday evening.

A very enjoyable banquet was given Monday evening by the ladies of the faculty of the state university to the members of the first and second elevens, and a few friends who have done most for the football in the city. It was held in the university club house and about forty five enjoyed a generous feast. Chancellor Canfield made several witty remarks and then called upon Captain Dern for a short speech on the training of the year. Speeches were given by Mr. Teele, Professor Leese, Professor Barbour and Dr. Clark.

Monday afternoon the hall of the Nebraska conservatory of music was filled with ladies who had come to listen to a fine program given by the Women's club. One of the best papers was given by Mrs. A. W. Field. After the program the subject of city federation was discussed and the president and one delegate were instructed to vote for city federation. A number of delegates will attend the meeting to be held in Omaha on December 10 and 11.

Miss Marie Hoover entertained Miss Latta, Mr. C. A. Howe and Mr. Mattson Baldwin at luncheon on Monday.

Miss Olivia Pound entertained the members of the Union literary society at her home on Friday evening. The presence of Mr. Searson, lately a prominent member of the society, now principal of the Weeping Water schools, was a source of merry inspiration. During the evening ices and cake were served. About fifty members enjoyed Miss Pound's hospitality.

"When your heart is bad, and your head is bad, and you are bad clean through, what is needed?" asked a Sunday-school teacher of her class. "I know—Ayer's Sarsaparilla," spoke up a little girl, whose mother had recently been restored to health by that medicine.

White House cook book published $2.50 for $1.50 at book department of Herpolsheimer & Co.

Misses Jeanette Wilson, Lucy Griffith, Lillian Mills, Rachael Brock, Messrs John Dorgan, Guy Hurlbut, Will Johnson and George Woods comprised a theater party at the Funke on Monday evening.

Miss Emily Weeks entertained a number of teachers and the senior class of the high school on Friday evening in honor of Miss Lucy McCarger, who will depart next week for California. Those present were: Misses Long, Thomas, Dora Wilson, Ethelyn Hooper, Flora Burns, Annette Abbott, Anne Bethune, Estella King, Josie Hoyt, Clara Leese, Edna Charles, Lena Smith, Rosa Kohn, Alice Whitmore, Minnie Smith, Ethel Lawton, Etta Oberlies, Mattie Goodell, Frankie Burleigh, Maud Hawley, Emily Weeks, Edith Henry, Blanche Brown, Bessie Lane; Messrs. McDuffey, Jackson, Saunders, Hazen, Prentiss Reader, Frank Tucker, Edson Henry, Bert Watkins, Louis Ryan and Fred Cooke.

The Dorcas Society met with Mrs. J. H. Sheen, 221 So. Fifteenth street on Friday afternoon.

Dr. Eliza B. Milte of Kearney, sister of Dr. Sarah E. Green, was in the city Thursday.

Mrs. O. Strickler, of Omaha, is the guest of her mother, Mrs. A. L. Hoover.

A whist party given by Miss Brock in honor of her guest, Miss Mills, of Cincinnati, on Wednesday evening was one of the most delightful affairs of the week. The parlors were artistically adorned with American beauties and carnations. Miss Brock's guests were: Messrs and Mesdames Frank H. Woods, Chas. L. Burr, Beman G. Dawes, Misses Lillian Mills, Mae Burr, Nellie White, Marie Hoover, Jeanette Wilson, Jeanette Underwood, Fay Marshall, Olive Latta, Florence Hawley, Hallie Hooper. Messrs Will F. Meyer, Mattson Baldwin, John Dorgan, Fred W. Houtz, C. P. A. Clough, Lex Marshall, Will Clark, Will Johnson, Chas. G. Hawley and George Woods. Miss Fay Marshall and Mr. Will Johnson carried off the honors of the evening.

Mrs. J. B. Ferguson of Beatrice is visiting friends in the city.

The Cotillon club gave its first party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Buckstaff on Tuesday evening of last week. The german was led by Lieut. and Mrs. R. H. Townley and many pretty new figures were introduced. The favors were particularly pretty and delicious ices were served. Those present were: Messrs. and Mesdames J. B. Wright, Ed Ewing, Mark Tilton, J. A. Buckstaff, R. H. Townley, F. C. Ladd, F. W. Brown, C. L. Burr, C. G. Dawes, B. G. Dawes, A. B. Coffroth, A. G. Beeson, Chas. Lippincott, Sutton, Ed Holmes; Mesdames Valentine of Omaha, Robinson of Chicago. Among the pretty gowns noticed were: Mrs. Wright, white silk accordion plaited tulle; Mrs. Hargreaves, a becoming gown of white silk with apple green velvet; Mrs. Lippincott, a combination of rose and blue; Mrs. Buckstaff, lavender India silk; Mrs. Dawes, blue silk under tulle; Mrs. Robinson, black silk; Mrs. Brown, a pretty costume of blue and brown; Mrs. Burr, white swiss; Mrs. Holmes, flowered silk; Mrs. Valentine, black satin and lace.

The young man who is continually looking for a soft thing will find it under his hat.

But

The young man who is looking for the best place in the city to have his clothes made will find it at

L. H. MEYER

1144 O STREET.

Don't revenge yourself on your pocket book by paying more elsewhere.