

concerts, weddings, dances, etc.

This week has been marked by an encouraging increase in social activity, the Empire club, the Hayden art club and other organizations contributing to the diversion, in addition to the numerous smaller entertainments. Next week promises much in the way of Oscar Funke visited the western part of the state this week.

Ex-Governor Furnas was in the city Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Marquette have gone to Tampa, Fla.

Mrs. J. H. Canfield, Mrs. Frank Woods and Mrs. George Meisner went to Omaha Monday to attend the meeting for a state federation of the women's clubs.

Representative D. W. Burke, of Bancroft, spent Monday in the city.

John G. Phillips returned Monday from a two weeks' trip.

H. D. Estabrook, of Omaha, was at the Lincoln during the week.

Miss Gertrude Marquette has returned from Chicago.

The Lincoln Light infantry gave its monthly inspection drill in Turner hall on Monday evening. Major E. I. Fechet, of the Tenth cavalry, U. S. A., inspected the boys and complimented them on their excellent appearance.

The marriage of Miss Cora Bustard to Mr. William J. Trump occurred Thursday evening, December thirteenth, at eight o'clock at the home of the bride's mother, 1836 Q street.

Mrs. Charles Robinson, of Chicago, is Mrs. J. B. Wright's guest.

The charity concert promises to be a leading society event.

Miss Henrietta Hollowbush, who has been studying in Cincinnati or the past few months, is expected home in a few days.

Miss McAdams, of Wichita, Kas., and Miss Davis, of Beatrice, are visiting Miss Clara Smith.

J. M. Irvin, of Quincy, Ill., is spending a few days with old friends in the city.

Appomatox sewing circle met with Mrs. S. J. Alexander on Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. Springer, of St. Louis, is the guest of Mrs. John I. Underwood.

Miss Mame Carson returned Monday from Sioux City and Chicago.

Miss Lillibridge and Miss Marquett spent Tuesday in Omaha.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Hallett entertained the members of the La Vita Whist club on Tuesday evening. Those present were Messrs and Mesdames Fred Hallett, Will Boggs, Chas. Boggs, Kirker, J. J. Gillilan, F. A. Brown, Lindley, I. Lansing, W. J. Turner, A. U. Weir and Allen W. Field.

She: Do you believe "silence is golden?"
He: Well, I knew a deaf and dumb barber that made a fortune in five years.

The Empire club gave a jolly party at the Lansing hall on Monday evening. The dancers were; Messrs and Mesdames Walter B. Hargreaves, D. E. Thompson, Will Green, John B. Wright, Carl Funke, W. B. Ogden, Frank W. Brown, N. C. Abbott, Wilson, Frank Hall, Oliver Rodgers, Sutton, Mrs. Robinson, of Chicago, Misses Sarah Harris and Mae Moore, Messrs Will Wilson, C. A. Hanna and F. M. Cook.

A surprise carryall party in honor of Miss Clara Fowler's birthday was given Saturday evening, December 8. The young people after a pleasant ride returned to Miss Fowler's home where the remainder of the evening was spent. The following were present. Misses Frankie Burleigh, Clara Leese, Sue Bartram, Hattie Webster, Edith Ross, Helen Howland, Edna Lane, Winifred Mitchell, Bird

Hamilton, Dott Druse, Gertrude Gage, Winnie Wallace, Bernice Merrill, Clara Hammond, Mattie Goodell, Grace Gillespie, Marie Jones, Miriam Parks, Rosa Kohn, Mable Doyle and Clara Fowler. Messrs Maurice Hyde, Gere Carder, Harry Mitchell, Ed Hickey, Will Stei, Ed. Fowler, Ed. Morrison, Claude Wilson, Clark Sawyer, Gene Parks, Henry Leese, Walter Beall, Alva Hawley, Frank McKain, Will Smith, Will Cullen, Herbert Steen, Lee Knapp, George Joers, Roy Hammond and Hal Ducker.

The hit of the season—the climbing monkey. The greatest toy out, can carry it in your pocket. Lots of fun for old and young. Price 25cts at toy department, Herpolsheimer & Co.

Rheumatic Twinges

Are escaped by the use of HUMPHREY'S SPECIFIC NO. 15. The infallible cure for rheumatism, sciatica and lumbago. For sale by all druggists. 25c.