Edward A. Church, plaintiff, vs

The Pauline Hall Opera Company, et al defendants.

To the Pauline Hall Opera Company, non resident defendant. You will take notice that on the 20th day of November 1894, Edward A. Church, plaintiff herein filed his petition in the County Court of Lancaster county, Nebraska, the object and prayer of which are to recover from you and the defendant George B. McLellan the sum of $213.00 and interest from said 20th day of November 1894 now due by reason of a written contract made and entered into by and between the plaintiff and the defendants herein on the 12th day of June 1893 whereby you the said defendants agreed to furnish for a period of one night to-wit Monday January First 1894 The Pauline Hall Opera Company to give a performance in the Lansing Theatre at Lincoln Lancaster County Nebraska, of which Theatre said plaintiff is manager, and in said contract it is agreed that the receipts from the sale of seats for said performance of said Pauline Hall Opera Company were to be divided as follows twenty five per centum thereof to belong to said plaintiff and seventy five [75] per centum thereof to belong to said defendants and plaintiff and defendants were to have and receive their respective shares of said receipts as aforesaid.

Under which contract there is now due and owing the plaintiff from the defendants and each of them by reason of their failure to perform their part of said contract, although plaintiff at all time stood ready and willing to perform his part thereof, the said sum of $213.00 and interest from said 20th day of November 1894 at 7 per cent per annum and costs of this proceedings which is now due and owing to the plaintiff from the defendants in said action and that on the 20th day of November 1894 the plaintiff caused an order of attachment to be issued out of said County Court and that the sheriff of said county to whom said order of attachment was delivered being unable to find any property on which to levy said attachment served a notice of garnishment upon one Frank C. Zehrung, commanding him to retain and hold any moneys, credits, goods and property that he might have belonging to you and the said McLellan and that said money so belonging to you and said McLellan has been garnisheed and attached under said order and that this case has been continued by the County Judge of said county until the February term of said Court.

You are required to answer said petition on or before the 5th day of February 1895.
