

M. Hammerly, a well-known business man of Hillsboro, Va., sends this testimony to the merits of Ayer's Sarsaparilla: "Several years ago, I hurt my leg, the injury leaving a sore which led to erysipelas. My sufferings were extreme, my leg, from the knee to the ankle, being a solid sore, which began to extend to other parts of the body. After trying various remedies, I began taking Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and, before I had finished the first bottle, I experienced great relief; the second bottle effected a complete cure."

GOLDEN DAYS.

O golden days! You bring the happy year
All that her waiting heart has held most dear
Crowned with your coronets of blood red leaves
And bearing in your arms your ripened sheaves,
The sun your lover and your charioteer.

Daughters of autumn dusk, we pause to hear
You sing as sings the merry gondolier,
Who through his happy lays his rapture
weaves,

O golden days!

There is no gladness that my youth held dear
But comes to crown the autumn of my year,
And, mourning not as one whose spirit grieves,
Ising while gathering fruit and crimson leaves,
"Fairest and best of all do you appear,"

O golden days!

Norah, the Pride of Kildare.

As beautiful as Flora is charming young Norah,

The joy of my heart and the pride of Kildare.
I ne'er will deceive her, for sadly 'twould grieve her
To find that I sighed for another less fair.

Where'er I may be, love, I'll ne'er forget thee,
love,

Though beauties may smile and try to insult me,
Yet nothing shall ever my heart from thee sever.

Dear Norah, sweet Norah, the pride of Kildare.

CHORUS.

Her heart with truth teeming, her eyes with smiles beaming.

What mortal could injure a blossom so fair?
Oh, Norah, dear Norah, the pride of Kildare

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages and that is catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers, that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of Testimonials.
