

Holy Week has been characterized by an appropriate abstinence from social pleasures. Tomorrow the churches will be thronged with fair ones who have done penance, and the floral decorations will be almost entirely outdone by dazzling millinery and radiant faces.

Some of the Easter services will be of an unusually elaborate character. The dance to be given by the bachelors of the Patriarchs at the Lincoln hotel will be the principal function of the coming week.

Will Stull left Thursday for the east.

J. A. Hanna, of Superior, was in Lincoln Sunday.

A. B. Smith, of Omaha, was in town Wednesday.

Mrs. C. E. Bradt left for Houston, Texas, Tuesday.

Charles L. Burr returned Thursday from St. Paul, Minn.

Miss Elizabeth Weston, of Beatrice, was in town Tuesday.

J. G. P. Hilderbrand returned Tuesday from Pawnee county.

The Delta Tau Delta chapter celebrated its birthday Sunday.

W. W. Hilderbrand is visiting his brother, J. G. P. Hilderbrand.

H. T. Clarke, of Omaha, was in Lincoln the first part of the week.

C. H. Morrill and J. H. Ager are on a hunting trip in the sand hills.

Miss Nellie Fenn, of Auburn, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Fred A. Miller.

Frank C. Zehring returned yesterday from a hurried trip to Denver.

Mrs. E. H. Eddy and Miss Cantfield, her sister, left for Chicago Tuesday.

The Y. P. S. C. held a brief meeting in the parlors of the Y. M. C. A. Tuesday.

C. W. Kaley, who has been visiting in Red Cloud, returned home Tuesday.

Mrs. G. M. Lambertson arrived in Lincoln from Southport, Conn., last week.

James Aitken read a paper on "Wall Street" at the last meeting of the Unity club.

F. W. Collins lectured before the Johnson county teachers association last evening.

A. S. Storrs, assistant superintendent of the C. B. & Q., was in Lincoln Tuesday.

Mr. Sieveking's fifth recital will be given in the chapel of the university this evening.

Brad Slaughter will make his home in this city, having leased the Lord Jones property.

E. B. Sherman will represent Nebraska at the interstate contest at Galesburg, Ill., May 2.

C. M. Jacques has been elected president of the Y. M. C. A., succeeding L. G. M. Baldwin.

Ex-Senator A. S. Paddock, of Beatrice, stopped in Lincoln a few hours on his way east Sunday.

Mrs. Otto A. Mohenstecher accompanied her father, P. Kespohl, to Quincy, Ill., Tuesday.

The young women's gymnasium association of the university will give their annual exhibition April 19.

Miss Alice Righter has been appointed instructor in art and water color painting, her work to begin in September.

The twenty-third quarterly concert by the students of the Nebraska Conservatory of Music was given Wednesday night.

Chancellor Casfield has accepted the presidency of the state university of Ohio and will enter upon his new duties July 1.

Thomas F. Hall, of this city, started a few days ago for a trip through California, intending to be gone two or three months.

Hon. G. M. Lambertson addressed the Political Economy club of the state university Wednesday evening. His subject was "Money."

Ralph E. Johnson and A. Y. Weaver returned Sunday from Grand Rapids, Mich., where they attended the national meeting of the American Republican College league, as delegates from the University of Nebraska.

A complimentary dancing party will be tendered to the Patriarchs Friday evening, April 19, at the Lincoln hotel by the following gentlemen: Frank M. Cooke, D. G. Wing, R. B. Owens, Will Stull, W. Morton Smith, C. A. Hanna, J. J. Pershing and J. White.

A party of fifty members of the Women's club department of domestic economy, visited Union college Tuesday afternoon for the purpose of examining the arrangements and the way of conducting the culinary department of that institution, which is run on the vegetarian plan.

The following program was given at the meeting Union society of the state university last Friday night: Piano solo, Miss Helen Langer; "Burning of the Old Cornstalks," Olivia Pound; "Spring Plowing," Katherine Melick; vocal solo, Anna Frey; story, Keen Abbott; paper, J. N. Shreve; vocal duet, Miss Anderson and Mr. Evans.

There will be an interesting whist tournament in Omaha this evening between members of the Union club of this city, and the Omaha whist club. The following, among others, will be present from Lincoln: J. H. Harley, J. W. McDonald, George Dayton, M. I. Aitken, C. E. Miegooon, C. L. Hall, Will Hammond, R. D. Miller, P. H. Townley, N. C. Abbott, O. W. Webster, J. D. McFarland.

Saturday evening a number of young people gathered at the residence of Miss Mae Burr for the purpose of organizing the Paint and Powder company, to be devoted to theatricals, as the name implies. Robert M. Joyce was elected president, Miss Mame Carson vice-president, and Mrs. Lew Marshall secretary and treasurer. Nearly fifty members were enrolled. The company is now at work on two plays to be given in the near future.

The quarterly meeting of the Y. W. C. A. was held this week. Mrs. Gring reported as follows for the quarter: Calls made, 493; lunches served, 3,391; total attendance at class, 238, at Bible class