

Last evening at the Lincoln hotel the Patriarchs and a large number of invited guests were tendered a complimentary dancing party by the following bachelors of the Patriarchs: Frank M. Cooke, R. B. Owens, J. J. Pershing, Will Stull, J. White, D. G. Wing, W.

Morton Smith and C. A. Hanna. It has been the custom for some years for the bachelor members of this dancing club to entertain the other members at the close of the season, and these complimentary parties held at the Lincoln hotel have been notably successful. This season the Patriarchs gave their last regular dance before the commencement of Lent. They had, accordingly, a long rest, and were in a proper spirit of enthusiasm at the party given last night. Seldom has the hotel, which has been the scene of many brilliant dances and receptions, presented such a gay appearance. Beautiful palms and lamps graced the promenade-lobby, and the dining room was appropriately decorated with smilax and cut flowers. There was an informal reception prior to the dance. Among those present were: Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Burr, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Branch, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Townley, Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Lippincott, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Wilson, Major and Mrs. E. G. Fochet, Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Butler, Dr. and Mrs. R. E. Giffen, Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. Albinus Nance, Mr. and Mrs. George Woods, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Buckstaff, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Kelley, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Green, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Hargreaves, Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Rodgers, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Hall, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Young, Mr. and Mrs. O. F. Funke, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Yates, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Morrill, Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Perry, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Teeters, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Barbour, Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Burnham, Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Dawes, Mr. and Mrs. B. G. Dawes, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Funke, Mr. and Mrs. N. S. Harwood, Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Holmes, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Imhoff, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. McFarland, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Oakley, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Ogden, Mr. and Mrs. I. M. Raymond, Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Richards, Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Ward, Mr. and Mrs. John B. Wright, Ray Welch, C. P. A. Clough, John Dorgan, Miss Jeannette Wilson, M. I. Aitken, Fred W. Houtz, W. E. Clarke, Miss Lulu Clark, Earl Bridgman, D. G. Wing, T. E. Wing, Miss Katharine Weston, of Beatrice, John Phillips, Oscar Young, R. M. Joyce, Frank Saunders, Miss Harris, Miss Latta, Miss Hardy, Frank M. Cooke, Miss Margaret Baird, G. P. Faucon, C. A. Hanna, W. Morton Smith, Emery Hardy, R. B. Owens, Will Stull, J. J. Pershing, J. At the conclusion of the tournament arrangements were made for a match to be held in this city at the Union club one week from tonight.

A recent issue of the Kansas City Star contains the following: "The computation was completed yesterday afternoon on points of merit attained during the four years in the High school by the senior class. The ones who obtained grade A in the class were Catherine Criley, Erdmuth Von Unworth, Nellie Joslin, Robert Wood, Eleanor Barnett, Rosa Archer and Lettie Olin. The grade attained by Miss Catherine Criley entitles her to be valedictorian of the class and Miss Von Unworth will be salutatorian. Miss Joslin was a close competitor of Miss Criley, but as she had spent two years of her High school attendance at the school in Pleasant Hill instead of Kansas City she was on this account lacking in some of the points on the four year's summary. The programme for the commencement exercises will not be announced until about the middle of May."

Miss Daisy Burns was united in marriage to Robert Young Wednesday evening, at the residence of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Burns, Rev. E. H. Curtis officiating. The house was handsomely decorated. Following the ceremony which was performed in the presence of relatives and intimate friends the guests sat down to a wedding supper. Mr. Young is head electrician of the Lincoln Street Railway company. The young couple will reside at 826 South Eighteenth street.

Gounod's Solemn Mass, given in St. Theresa's Pro-Cathedral Easter Sunday, will be repeated tomorrow by special request. The service will begin at 11 a. m. Professor Movius will direct the musical exercises. The soloists will be Mrs. Cheney, Miss Veniger, Miss Dorothes, Mrs. Lawler and Mrs. Fadden, with accompaniment by the Apollo orchestra and Miss. Haberlan organist.

At the annual parish meeting of Holy Trinity church held Monday night, H. J. Walsh and R. H. Oakley were re-elected wardens; W. G. Miller, C. H. Rudge, A. B. Coffroth, C. C. Waldo, James H. Canfield, W. W. Hackney and J. B. Houghton were re-elected vestry men. A decrease of $2,000 in the church debt was reported as having been made in the last year.

Many of the younger members of society will remember Miss Pearl Ross, of Missouri, who spent some time in this city the guest of Mrs. D. E. Thompson, a year or so ago; and they will be interested to learn that just prior to her departure for Europe the other day, her engagement to a Chicago man was announced.

An interesting program under the auspices of the choir of the
