IN SOCIETY.

Mrs. Will Owen Jones will give a piano recital at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Richards, 1340 R street, next Wednesday evening. She will be assisted by Miss Lillie Eiche, violinist

Reports that reach this city from Philadelphia are to the effect that Miss Clara Walsh, who is attending the Drexel Institute, is making particularly rapid progress in her art studies. Miss Walsh has been away from Lincoln a couple of years or more, and will probably remain another year.

June will not be without its traditional social sprightliness. Among the weddings that will be celebrated next month none will be more brilliant than that of Miss Fannie Hawley, of this city, and Mr. Fred Smyser, of Boston. The wedding has been fixed for the latter part of the month, so I understand, Mr. Smyser's mother will be present and there will be a large number of the guests from abroad. It has been several years since Mr. Smyser left Lincoln: but he left many friends here who will give him a warm greeting. Miss Hawley has of late devoted herself to music, and is regarded as one of the most accomplished pianists in the city.

The fame of the Union club is traveling far and wide—especially in whist circles. The Omaha whist club was vanquished twice in a whist tournament and last Saturday night, in this city, the Council Bluffs club met a like fate. State and inter-state tournaments are still being talked of.

A new social club is being formed in Des Moines, to be known as the "Noble Order of Friendly Enemies," according to the Record: The foundation idea of this organization is the getting together of a comfortable number of respectable people who have been more or less estranged by business, political and social transactions in the past. Whist is to be the principal diversion of the membership, while music, dancing and an occasional banquet will be indulged in to a more or less degree. Ladies are to be eligible to membership on the same terms as the gentlemen. Those of either sex who do not speak as they pass by in the ordinary course of traffic or social endeavor are to be brought into this club and induced to lay aside their pique during the session, when they may after the lodge's adjournment, resume the tangled thread of their misunderstandings and continue to hate each other to their heart's content.

A glimpse of California society is afforded by Ambrose Bierce:—
Society is beginning to pull itself together for the country campaign, and all the brandy and watering places, summer last resorts and turalural retreats are war-painting for the struggle. In a few weeks all the best people will be out of town and crime will run riot. The female contingent is figuring on the ancient, eternal problem, how to get the men to go.

The Colonel Slumsprungs will summer at the Hotel San Juan Smith.

Mrs. Brigadier General Bullworthy-Joanes is preparing to June at home. The brigadier general prefers that programme, and will probably be found Julying and Augusting at the same place surrounded by his interesting and obedient family.

It is reported that the Lobelia-Gargoyles will go to Peskidago and reopen Department villa, whose hospitable doors have long been thrown shut on account of a hanging in the family.

Our distinguished townsmen, C. Overdo Dashcut, Esquire, the enterprising and popular package receipt clerk in Swell, Farrago & Co.'s express office, will remove to Monterey with his entire string and all his collateral relations.

It is currently reported that the Tallowfats have decided not to go to Sausalito and the town is to be abandoned.

Many young people in the city will remember Miss Maud Remick, of Los Angeles, Cal., formerly resided in Lincoln and whose wedding will occur June 5. Miss Remick has visited here a number of times, the guest of Miss Bertie Clark. Miss Clark arrived in Lincoln Monday afternoon, with Mrs. Clark, from New York, and Wednesday she left for Los Angeles, where she will act as bride's maid for her friend

Friends of Miss Jeanette Wilson and Mr. J. T. Dorgan are much interested in the announcement that their wedding will occur June 5 in the Holy Trinity church. These young people are so well known and have so many friends that the wedding in Trinity Church will necessarily be a brilliant affair. The alterations in Mr. Dorgan's residence at Fourteenth and E streets are nearly completed, and the new home will be ready for the bridal couple on their return from the usual trip.

The Union club whist players defeated Council Bluffs in this city last Saturday evening.

Notable among the week's social events were the receptions given Thursday afternoon by Mrs. R. J. Greene and Mrs. J. A. Buckstaff.

The round table met at the residence of Judge Hall, 1526 K street, Monday evening. Judge Hall led. The subject was "Ought the State Banking System to be continued?"

Tuesday evening the pupils of Miss Cora Parker, instructor in art at the state university, gave an exhibition in the studio of the university. The work of the pupils was hung on the walls and placed on easels and made a fine showing. Some of the pictures in oil show considerable talent and are well handled. One of the most pleasing canvasses was a picture of two dolls by C. Greenlee. It was a unique study and well done. The stiffness of the dolls was perfect and the coloring was good. There was no attempt at idealization, it was natural. Some of the water colors were exquisite. Dainty flower pictures were in the majority and some of them were very natural and alive. The clay modeling by the second preparatory class was excellent. The wood carving class was represented by some pretty work. Miss Dora Harley had a screen that was very tasteful. The upper part was of carved wood, a pattern of morning glories being the design. The pen and ink sketches by Miss Alice Cleaver were among the best things in the exhibit. Her work shows originality. A great deal of it is taken from life. Some of the figures were indeed life-like. She is studying to be an illustrator and will no doubt make a success of it for her work now shows good results.

Mrs. S. C. Langworthy, of Seward, assisted by the History and Art club gave the University Banjo and Glee clubs a reception last Saturday afternoon. The house was beautifully decorated with scarlet and cream. About two hundred were present. The boys had a jolly time.

Miss Clark and Miss Harris visited Denver this week.

Wednesday evening Miss Heaton entertained a company of young people in a delightful manner at her residence, Eleventh and E streets. The entertainment took the form of an informal dancing party. Those present were: Misses Hawley, Williamson, Cochrane, Shaw, Risser, Lau, Camp, Watkins, Ricketts,

J. J. Imhoff and S. C. Elliott have returned from Florida.

A call has been issued for a meeting of Phi Kappa Psi fraternity, to be held in fraternity hall at the state university, Tuesday evening June 11, for the purpose of organizing a Nebraska alumni association. The call is signed by Warren Switzer, Omaha; W. H. Woodward, C. H. Gere, Lincoln; Alfred Hazlett, Beatrice; John B. Cessna, Hastings; H. H. Baldrige, Omaha; W. P. Aylesworth, Bethany Heights.

Mrs. R. S. McIntosh and son and Mrs. Eva Gorninger, of Chicago, are visiting Mrs. A. C. Ziemer.

Miss Dora Warkow, the pleasant little lady who has presided over the restaurant at the Burlington depot for several years, sails today on the Lucani of the Canard line for Liverpool, going thence across England and the North Sea to Hamburg, where she will visit her aged mother, returning to Lincoln sometime this fall.

Mrs. J. C. Bell, hair dresser and caterer to society in hair ornaments, cosmetics and toilet articles, has had her parlors entirely renovated and they now look as fresh as a bright spring morning. Society knows Mrs. Bell and her work, and commendation on the part of the COURIER is unnecessary.
