

THE NATIONAL GAME.

The Lincoln's will come home on top. Jay Andrews is playing with Des Moines.

Dave Rowe's father died last week in Golden, Colo.

What has become of the city league; why don't they play ball?

Chicago pays Abbey $400 a month and rents him to Quincy for $200.

The New York club is trying hard to get Burkett of the Cleveland.

Emmerke of the St. Joes, asked for his release and was accommodated.

Lebbin and Fleming, two of Rockfords pitchers, have been released.

White, late of the Indianapolis club, is playing center field for the Quincys.

The Iowa Inter-state league is playing good ball all around with Dubuque in the lead.

Chris Von Der Ahe only wants $7,500 for Breitenstein, the left handed St. Louis pitcher.

Pittsburg leads them all in the National league with Cincinnati and Chicago not far behind.

Nolan's terms are too high, hence he will not play ball in Quincy. He has signed with St. Joe.

Will the Rockford Register-Gazette please take notice that the Lincoln's have been pulled down a peg?

Taylor, of Jacksonville, is an actor. To see him pose on the diamond reminds one of Pauline Hall in "Dorcas."

Taylor, who has been released by Manager Ebright while on the eastern trip, is now playing with Jacksonville.

The Clarksons did not play the Hastings Y. M. C. A. club Thursday as they intended on account of rain at that place.

Meyers, who was signed by Manager Ebright the first of the season and released on account of sickness, is still in the city.

Manager Nicol, of the Rockford team, has signed Dillon, a college pitcher of Bloomington, who finished last season with Peoria.

Lincoln must win at least two games from St. Joe. That will make the seven out of fifteen we wanted on the eastern trip.

Cole's fielding in last Sunday's game with Jacksonville was phenomenal, he being credited with ten put outs and not an error.

The Columbia nine defeated the Pirates by a score of 9 to 0. Batteries for Columbia, Elder and Warren; Pirates, Walt and Don.

Philadelphia, New York, Pittsburg and Boston are the only four clubs in the National League that will not play ball on Sunday.

Hallers, of the Peoria team, is imitating Buck Ebright to perfection; in other words he is hitting the rounded sphere hard and often.

Talk about playing ball. That quiet slim-built, good looking fellow, Van-Buren is right in line. He hits the ball with clock-like regularity.

The Lincoln Sluggers defeated the Ducky Linn team Thursday by a score of 10 to 9. Batteries: Sluggers, Davielson, Slassman and Rose; Duckies, Linn and Booth.

Umpire Haskell is said to be rank in most of his decisions this year. It is also intimated that he indulges, to a very great extent, in what some people call "Irish Enthusiasm."

Peek-a-boo Veach has been released by Manager Brackett, of the Quincy team for getting drunk and making himself generally obnoxious. He is another Youngey Johnson.

Roach, who played here in '91 has been signed by Manager Brackett; also Abbey of the Chicago's. These pitchers will, no doubt, do much toward strengthening the Quincy team.

The Quincy Herald is of the opinion that the Quincys and St. Joes have made a good trade. Veach and Nolan go to St. Joe and the crackerjack first baseman, McVey, goes to Quincy.

Lincoln has a good—very good—assortment of pitchers. There can be no doubt of it, but it is useless to deny the fact that Peoria and Quincy are not very far behind us in that particular.

Last Friday's game between Rockford and Omaha was played under protest because Manager McVittie played Shaffer, who was recently suspended. If the Omahogs can't win one way they will the other.

Everybody turn out June 4th and give the boys an ovation. A team that can keep up their lick away from home or at home either for that matter, is deserving of encouragement and the very best of everything we have in the city. Make them feel as though their efforts were appreciated.

The St Joe Gazette has this to say of Gatewood, the erstwhile manager of that team—"Gatewood, so the story goes, has resigned from the management of the Saints. If he could only resign from the club and take one or two of his promising youngsters with him St. Joseph might secure a ball club after all."

The city of Lincoln in general and the ball fans in particular can point with pride to the fact that they have some of the most gentlemanly players that ever graced the diamond. Such disgraceful scenes as were enacted in a certain Western association town a few days ago, before and during the game, are detrimental to base ball in more ways than one.

Commencing with June 4 Lincoln will play three games on the home grounds with those boys from Missouri; and then comes Des Moines, whom our boys will have no trouble in defeating to the extent of three games—that is, if we play better ball than they do. After the above team have shaken the Lincoln dust from off their feet, wondering how it was done, Ebright's bucklets will endeavor to the best of their ability to do the Omahas even as they would do us.

The Rockford Register-Gazette of last Monday has this to say concerning Darby, Omaha's crack pitcher: "Darby got the worst roasting from the grand stand that he ever received in his life yesterday. The swell-head twirler's every move is self conscious and the base ball 'rooster' likes nothing better than to see such conceited bantams take a tumble. 'Three hundred dollars!' was the howl that resounded from one end of the park to the other when the Rockfords were pasting out terrific hits."

A fourteen inning game was played Saturday between the state university of Iowa and the Nebraska state university clubs. During the first inning the
