Since the first of the month there have been many departures for the mountains, the seaside and the old homestead in the east. A number of outing parties for the latter part of July and the early part of August are now being projected.

But a good many will remain at home this summer, and the stay-at-homes are re-inforced by the young people who have been out of the city attending school, most of whom have now returned with the intention of spending the major portion of the vacation in town.

The Patriarchs gave an enjoyable dancing party at Burlington Beach Monday evening, one of the few summer dances that have been given this season. The temperature was well down in the fifties and there was a fresh breeze blowing over the lake. It was a little cool for tete a-tete, but just right for dancing. The big pavilion has an excellent floor, and in the summer there is no better place for informal terpsichorean festivities. It was a large party and a merry one. The arrangements were in the hands of the ladies, who planned the dance. Among those present were: Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Morrill, H. D. Esterbrook, of Omaha; Miss Katharine Weston, of Beatrice; Mr. and Mrs. Emerson, of Philadelphia; T. D.
