A RAPID TRANSIT.

"How long did it take you to cross the ocean?" asked Gus De Smith of a very aristocratic lady just returned from Europe.

"I was seven days on the water."

"Seven days! Why, when my brother went across it took him eight days."

"Probably your brother went over in the steerage. I was a first cabin passenger," she replied, proudly.

WHERE HE FOREBORE.

"Sometimes, John," said Brashkins' wife, "I do get a little discouraged and think you are rather hard to please."

"You don't say so!" was the astonished rejoinder.

"Yes. But I must admit there is one thing you never found fault with."

"What is that?"

"The way I look when I wear my last year's clothes."
