THE COURIER'S Omaha correspondence sends the following:

The Omaha guards and Thurston rifles returned from Camp Logan at Hastings Sunday morning. There was the usual wrangle over the governor's cup caused this time by a very arbitrary order of General Colby's to the effect that the guards were barred out because all their men were not in camp on the 28th. The drill was on the 30th. The guards, however, did drill and were scored unofficially 87 to their opponents (the Norfolk company) 65. Captain Mulford put in a very strong protest and has left the matter entirely in the governor's hands. So far the Omaha guards have not been ordered to surrender the cup. In every other respect Camp Logan was far superior to Camp Lincoln last year.

Mrs. S. S. Curtis, Miss Curtis, Miss Carita Curtis and Miss Emily Wakeley returned last Saturday from Lynnhurst, Okoboji.

Mr. Wallace Broatch left Tuesday for the east. He will take a two years post graduate course at Yale.

The Nebraska society, Sons of the American Revolution, is growing steadily in membership and its work is of interest to all patriotic citizens. Its present officers are: President, Rev. Luther M. Kuhns, Omaha; 1st vice-president, Wm. H. Alexander, Omaha; 2nd vice-president, Jerome Wiltse, Falls City; secretary, W. A. Webster, Omaha; treasurer, Paul W. Kuhns, Omaha; registrar, Lyman E. Ware, Omaha, historian, Fremont N. Jaynes, Omaha.

The Society of the Sons of the American Revolution recognizes the services of all patriots who assisted in establishing American independence, and provides an honorable membership for all their descendants, whether through male or female line of descent. The constitution provides that: "Any man is eligible for membership who is the age of 21 years and who is descended from an ancestor, who, with unflinching loyalty, rendered material aid to the cause of American independence as a soldier or a seaman, or a civil officer in one of the several colonies or states, or as a recognized patriot, provided he shall be found worthy."

The objects of the society are patriotic and praiseworthy. Its influence and importance will increase with years. The object is best stated in the constitution:

"The objects of the society are to perpetuate the memory and the spirit of the men who achieved American independence, by the encouragement of historical research in relation to the Revolution and the publication of its results; the preservation of documents and relics and of the records of the individual services of Revolutionary soldiers and patriots, and the promotion of celebrations of all patriotic anniversaries; to carry out the injunction of Washington in his farewell address to the American people; to promote, as an object of primary importance, institutions for the general diffusion of knowledge, thus developing an enlightened public opinion and affording to young and old such advantages as shall develop in them the largest capacity for performing the duties of American citizens, to cherish, maintain and extend the institutions of American freedom; to foster true patriotism and love of country, and to aid in securing for mankind all the blessings of liberty."

Societies are organized in thirty-six states, the District of Columbia, Paris, France, and Honolulu, Hawaii. Residents of this state are entitled to membership in the Nebraska Society, irrespective of the residence of their ancestor. I am requested to state that all enquiries will be answered by W. A.
