

Plattsmouth sends the following:

Mrs. J. N. Wise has returned from Denver.

Miss Annie O'Rourke is visiting Beulah Elson.

Dr. Marshall and family are at home again after a visit at Burlington, Iowa.

Mrs. W. B. Shryock and daughter, of Louisville, are at Mrs. Waybright's.

Miss Myrtle Mann, of Lincoln, has returned home.

Mrs. C. S. Sherman departed this morning for Crete, where she has secured a position in the schools.

Mrs. J. W. Hendee is at home again having passed the summer at Kewaunee, Ill.

A large party of young people camped out and fished at the Cedar Creek lakes last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Waugh were at Glenwood Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Altshuler arrived this morning from Chicago and will reside here permanently.

Mrs. W. K. Fox is visiting her parents at Shenandoah, Iowa.

The Woman's club held a business meeting at Mrs. Wescott's September 2.

The Omaha people are full of enthusiasm concerning the Ak-Sar-Ben ball that will occur on the Nineteenth. The committee in charge, and no one knows exactly who they are, have selected three of the most beautiful young ladies as maids of honor to the queen from the towns of Lincoln, Beatrice, Grand Island, Hastings and Nebraska City. Omaha will be represented by a much larger number. These ladies will sit in the royal box and the knights with the king at their head will march up and down before them and do obeisance. Then the king will select the queen from the beautiful ones and he will send her a gold crown by a little page, and the crown will have a real diamond in it. The lady keeps the souvenir to remind her of that occasion when she was selected in the midst of beauty as the most beautiful. The names of the Lincoln ladies invited to be maids of honor are: Miss Latta, Miss Clark and Mrs. Charles Burr.

The first of the month Mr. G. P. Faucon will take the position of car accountant on the B. & M. road.

Mr. J. D. Calhoun has gone up Sheridan way to attend to some business for the B. & M. road.

Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Davis entertained the Epworth League on Tuesday. The entertainment was lawn and melon, moonlight and Epworths, mandolins and recitations.

Miss Henrietta Hollowbush left on Thursday for Boston where she will re-enter the New England Conservatory. Miss Hollowbush has given much time and study to organ study and attained rare proficiency. The coterie, of which she has been the center during her few months in Lincoln, will miss her greatly.

The York Military band serenaded THE COURIER on Thursday. It had bright red coats and silver instruments and it played good music. Thank you York. Lancaster will play for you when the roses bloom again.

Miss Verona Wireback, late of the Philadelphia School of Industrial Art, has arrived in the city to take charge of primary manual training for young and old at the Polytechnic.

Miss Mariel Gere and Miss Cora Smith left Tuesday afternoon for Roseville Ill. to be present at the wedding of Miss Rose Higgins and Mr. George Lawson Sheldon.

W. S. Summers who sometime ago retired from the attorney general's office has decided to remain in Lincoln. He has established himself in the McMurtry block and will practice law against all comers. Mr. Summers is one of the best known and most popular young lawyers in the state.

C. H. Imhoff returned Thursday from New York.

There was a meeting of the Pleasant Hour club at Zehring's store Tuesday afternoon. A number of new members were received and some of the details for the coming season were arranged.

Miss Nettie Hammond's friends honored her birthday Thursday afternoon by a pleasant surprise. Miss Hammond received a number of handsome presents. The guests were entertained with music after which refreshments were served. Those present were: Mesdames Frampton, McPherson, Meusel and Hammond; Misses Nellie Campbell, Libbie Owens, Jennie Brethouwer, Mary Lockridge, Nettie Hammond and Miss Hamilton of Alabama; Messrs. Frampton, Arthur Hammond, Harry Giffen, Roy Hammond, John Hammond, Edward Giffen and Gere Carder.

The club of ladies who have met weekly at Miss Phoebe Elliot's this summer for the study of the world's religion have closed their work. The study has been of an extended nature, and, like all that are conducted by Miss Elliot, pleasant in the extreme.

Captain and Mrs. R. O. Phillips have returned from their western trip through Montana and Washington.

Prof. H. H. Nicholson left Thursday for Minneapolis.

Leroy Sawyer is in Chicago.

E. H. Seal left for Philadelphia Thursday.

Mrs. C. H. Houghton is in San Francisco.

Carl Morton, the youngest of Secretary Morton's sons was up to attend the convention. In politics he is the son of his father.

Thomas Mulvihill, lessee of Boyd's theatre Omaha, D. W. Haynes, manager of Boyd's, and G. E. Raymond, manager of Paine's "Siege of Vicksburg," which opened in Omaha last night, opened a box at the Funke Wednesday night.

The members of the "Faust" and Flint companies were guests of Mr. Zehring at the performance of "The Politician."

The gayest picnic party of the season was organized by Fritz Funke last Thursday evening. They rode out to Branson's grove, near the penitentiary. Here they lunched and laughed. Laughter and jests from throats only sixteen years old is better than hair-dye for renewing youth. It makes the heart young. When that is done, the whole man is renewed. Mrs. Mosher chaperoned the party who were: Miss Mildred Parks, Miss Nellie Watson, Miss Helma Bombgardner, Miss Louise McWhinnie, Miss Emma Dalby, Miss Branson, Messieurs. Ferd Rehlaender, Ed Mosher, Ray Deputron, Mark Rathburn, John Hill, Bert Watkins, Fritz Funke and Edwin Funke.
