

DEAR MADAM:

You are cordially invited to visit our new store-if you have not already done so. If you have, come again. You like to see nice things. We are prepared to show you a line of silks and finest dress goods-as well as superior dry goods generally-far better than you have ever seen in Omaha, and as good as anything you can see in Chicago. It will interest you to see what we have to show you. Incidentally our M^{lle}. MARIE MARCONOT can show you what art dress making is. We have also secured the services of G. W. Childers originally from London, Eng.-but recently with Pangard the greatest ladies tailoring establishment and the recognized authority for tailormade suits of the world. Mr. Childers will arrive and be present Monday morning ready to measure and fit for either street, equestrian or bicycle suits. We will guarantee the workmanship of either superior to any establishment this side of New York city.

exhibition blood spilled in a prize fight. Its a funny thing to do to say the least, and I have no doubt there are some who think this is simply awful. Still there was something interesting in that clot of blood. There were others besides myself who stood and looked at it for some few moments. It is probably the center attraction of Steve Brodie's saloon."

This opening ball is given as a reception for Mr. and Mrs. Dorgan, Mr. and Mrs. Marshall and Mr. and Mrs. Woods.
 Mr. Church is in Lincoln after a very successful tour with his "Faust" company. That big town, Kansas City, appreciates Mr. Church and his company. It plays to crowded houses and makes money. Mr. Church's pluck and ability in getting together so good a company is especially remarkable in this timidest of timid years. A moderate success in such a time would be e howling in other times. Mr. Church has passed the moderate line and he has cause to be proud of his managerial ability.
 The popular Lincoln musician and composer, Mr. George. H. Nelson, has written a new waltz song which he calls "Playing Under the Apple Tree." The refrain is catchy and has plenty of
