Rumors of a subscription cotillion to be given in Lansing hall got into THE COURIER office. When the police were consulted they could not decide how they got in nor exactly their identity.

The Patriarch's cotillion on last Friday night was an unusually pretty party. Lansing hall was decorated with flags and bunting by Captain Guilfoyle and Professor Barbour. The smaller room at one side of the hall was cut in two by screens and rugs and the ices and cakes were served there. The decorating scheme was so judiciously followed that the suite of rooms had the air of the ball room in a private house. The favors were very pretty and original. Mr. Faucon and Miss Clark led smoothly. Those present were: Captain and Mrs. Guilfoyle, Mr. and Mrs. Imhoff, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Barbour, Mr. and Mrs. I. M. Raymond, Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Holmes, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Funke, Mrs. Clark, Miss Clark, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Ogden, Mrs. A. S. Raymond and Arthur Raymond, Miss Jones, Miss Harris, Miss Ura Kelley, Mr. Oury, Mr. Coas, Jones, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Yates, Mrs. John B. Wright, Mr. Frank Cook, Mr. Hanna, Mr. Lyon, Mr. White, Dr. and Mrs. Ladd, Mr. N. S. Harwood, Miss Helen Harwood, Mr. R. B. Owens, Mr. Haggard, Miss Ella Raymond, Mr. Williard Yates, Miss Scipio Dundy, Mr. R. O. Phillips, Mr. Faucon, Mr. Stull, Miss Florence Putnam, Mrs. Taylor.

Mrs. Bailey, of Denver, is the guest of Mrs. F. W. Baldwin, Mrs. Bailey, who will remain in this city several weeks, is already a decided favorite. Wednesday night Mr. Mattson Baldwin entertained in her honor, the guests being Mr. and Mrs. Lew Marshall, Mr. Zehrung, Mr. Howell, Mr. Smith, Mr. Mason, Mr. Clough, Mr. Hurlbut, Mr. Lansing, Miss Latta, Miss Maud Oakley, Miss Grace Oakley, Miss Marshall, Miss Carson, Miss Nance, Mrs. Quimby.

Mrs. Quimby, of Grand Rapids, is a visitor who is the recipient of much attention. She is the guest of Miss Nance.

Members of the university fraternities made and received calls New Year's day. Outside of this circle there was little formal calling, but many hostesses received informally.

C. P. A. Clough, of Omaha, spent several days in Lincoln this week the guest of Mattson Baldwin.

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Moore will entertain the Whist club on Tuesday evening of next week.

A subscription cotillion will be given next week, Friday, at Lansing hall. The favors are to be ribbons furnished by each guest, and Captain Guilfoyle will lead it.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Morrill gave a large reception for their son last evening. About 200 guests were present.

Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Davis had a family party at their residence, corner of K and Seventeenth streets, on Wednesday evening. About twenty members of the family were present.

On New Year's eve Mrs. Williams and Miss Baldwin entertained the employees of the Home of the Friendless. At 8 o'clock the guests entered the parlor where magic music and catching mice were heartily enjoyed. At 9 o'clock the company entered the large dining room where a dainty repast awaited them. The table was beautifully decorated with flowers and at each plate a bon bon—containing a paper cap or apron. When the company had decorated themselves with these favors even the revered gentleman looked as though his head was ready for a fancy dress ball. When they separated their smiles and nods meant happiness.

Tuesday evening, after the Lincoln club dance Mr. Mattson Baldwin entertained a small number of friends at his residence in honor of Mrs. Bailey, of Denver. These were present: Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Baldwin, Mr. and Mrs. Lew Marshall, Miss Marie Marshall, Miss Grace Oakley, Miss Mame Carson, Miss Florence Putnam, Mr. Clough, Mr. Smith, Mr. Lansing, Mr. Hurlbut.

Plans are making for a german to be given the early part of week after next, to be led by Mr. Frank C. Zehrung.

A double wedding occurred on Wednesday at the home of Mr. Henry Herpolsheimer, 1245 E street. Miss Hattie Herpolsheimer was married to Mr. William M. Lamprecht, and Miss Ida to Mr. Alonzo G. Barber. Miss Hattie and Mr. Lamprecht were married by the Rev. Geo. Weller, of Seward, who used the German language and then he united Miss Ida to Mr. Barber in English. Time only will prove the comparative strength of the two languages as wedding mediums. Miss Hattie Herpolsheimer's dress was of cream laced down with cream lace. Miss Ida wore a pale blue china silk with lace. After the ceremony a breakfast was served by Miss Louie and Miss Ida Ault, Miss Ruby Prindle received the guests as they entered. Miss Hattie and Miss Ida Herpolsheimer are the eldest daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Herpolsheimer. Professor Lamprecht is the well known professor of the violin in the Nebraska Conservatory of Music. Mr. Barber is the son of Professor Barber of the state university. He is manager of the carpet department with the Rudge & Morris company. They will reside at 1306 L street. Professor and Mrs. Lamprecht will live at 1624 H street.

The Pleasant Hour club dance at the Lincoln hotel Friday night of last week was a leading event in the holiday entertainments. The dancers were: Mr. and Mrs. Lew Marshall, Misses Latta, Marshall, Griffith, Brooks, Moore, Maude Oakley, Welch, Burr, Hooper, Nance and Carson; Mrs. Quimby, of Grand Rapids, Mich.; Miss Mallalieu, of Kearney; Miss Gregg, of Kansas City; Messrs. Howell, Mallalieu, Hurlbut, Baldwin, Smith, Houtz, Meyer, Welch, Morrison, Joyce, Macleod, Honeywell, white, Markell, of Omaha.

Miss Nance entertained a number of ladies very delightfully Friday afternoon in honor of her guest, Mrs. Quimby. Those present were Misses Ellen Gere, Frances Gere, Alice Roberts, Marie Marshall, Lucy Griffith, Maud Risser, Slaughter, Fehet, Kelley, Ella Raymond, Florence Putnam, Maud Hammond, Mabel Richards, Olive Latta, Cochran, Helen Welch, Oakley, Mae Moore, Camp, Alice Righter, Mrs. Bailey, of Denver.

Miss Carrie Wosner of Grand Island, spent a few days in town this week, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Jay E. White and Mr. and Mrs. Lew Marshall.

Miss Maude Oakley will go to Sioux City next week.

S. T. St. John, treasurer of the Griffith-Church "Faust" company, was in town this week.

Miss Florence Putnam came home for the holidays.

Robert W., and John Patrick, of Omaha, came down to attend the Lincoln club party, returning New Year's day.

Miss Ada Gregg, of Kansas City, has been the guest of Miss Helen Welch.

Mrs. W. F. Kelley is in Mt. Pleasant.

Rev. and Mrs. John M. Hewitt were given a reception Monday evening. It was largely attended, the many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Hewitt evidencing their regret at their departure from the city in terms of unmistakable sincerity. Mr. and Mrs. Hewitt left for Columbus, O., this week.

The most pretentious entertainment of the holiday season was the dance given by the Lincoln club New Year's eve at the Lincoln hotel. The floral decorations were on the usual elaborate scale. High palms set off the lobby, while flowers and evergreens were in the dancing hall, the dining room, the parlors and in the corridors. A mammoth United States flag was hung across the west side of the dancing hall. The holiday spirit lent much gaiety to the dance, the appointments, the attendance, the large number of beautiful women, all contributing to what must be regarded as one of the most brilliant parties given in this city in many a day. At 11:50 p. m., within ten minutes of the dawning of the new year Lieutenant Townley became master of the special ceremonies. The guests joined in a grand march, and as a large bell chimed the hour of twelve an immense circle was formed and a great volume of sound filled the hall as all joined in singing "Auld Lang Syne." Most of the dances after this were ladies' choice and the men were duly humble. Among those present were: Messrs. and Mesdames W. C. Wilson, L. H. Townley, F. W. Brown, C. S. Lippincott, John F. Guilfoyle, W. A. Green, J. A. Buckstaff, C. F. Ladd, S. H. Burnham, I. M. Raymond, C. H. Imhoff, M. H. Tilton, C. H. Morrill, J. D. Macfarland, John T. Dorgan, Lew Marshall, Charles L. Burr, L. C. Burr, C. R. Lee, F. B. Righter, Walter B. Harp, reaves, E. P. Holmes, Oliver Rodgers, D. A. Campbell, Brad Slaughter, Paul Holm, Teeters, A. G. Beeson; Messrs. Robert and John Patrick, of Omaha; C. E. Spahr, S. T. St. John, of Juniata; F. M. Cook, R. B. Owens, H. D. Neeley, W. Morton Smith, R. B. Howell, Harry Lansing, Guy Hurlbut, C. P. A. Clough, of Omaha; Mattson Baldwin, Madden, McLeod, Fred White, Sam E. Low, Albinus Nance, W. F. Kelley, Homer Honeywell, G. H. Simmons, H. B.
