

ing a good deal. He was easy going; sometimes a friendly talk or a good story down town would keep him away from the court room for a half hour or so, while lawyers were fuming; but when he got on the bench he was a good judge. Mr. Miller and Mr. Baker have disappointed some republicans in that they have made pretty good officers. Mr. Trimble succeeded Mr. Woods and Mr. Cornish succeeded Judge Tibbets.

SOCIAL GOSSIP

The fortnightly club met last week with Mrs. Lamb on K street. The theme of the afternoon was Longfellow. Mrs. John L. McConnell presided. Mrs. Allen read a paper on Outre Mer, Mrs. Lamb on Hyperion, Mrs. Wilson on The Spanish Student, Mrs. Clark on New England's Quakers, Mrs. Imhoff on Longfellow's influence over his countrymen and his place among the poets of the world. Next week the club will meet with Mrs. Clark, 1945 F street.

Mr Ernest Haughton has been appointed electrical inspector for a New York Insurance company.

Budd B. Gillespie, Will L. Macay, Ernest Arthur, John Saville and W. R. Dunroy participated in a student's spread at the Y. M. C. A. rooms after the Trilby performance at the Lansing on Tuesday night.

Mr. Will Barton and Miss Ella Holden were married on Wednesday at 7 a. m. in the pro-Cathedral by Father Nugent. The bride's sister, Miss Josephine Holden, of Lawrence, was bridesmaid, and Mr. E. F. McLaughlin was the best man. Miss Edna Barton and Miss Agnes McLaughlin were the organists. After the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served at the home of the groom's parents; Mr. and Mrs. Barton left for a visit to Leavenworth, Kas. They are very popular young people, especially in Catholic circles. The Courier wishes them a long life and a happy one.

Mr. Fred Crossley and Miss Edith Young were married on Wednesday at the bride's home by Rev. H. R. Murphy. Here's to Mr. and Mrs. Crossley.

His many friends will be glad to know that Capt. John L. Carson is strong enough to take a trip. The captain went to South Auburn on a visit.

Mrs. L. C. Burr is visiting Mrs. Andrus in Washington, D. C.

Rt. Rev. Thomas Bonacum has been in Baltimore where he was present with the highest dignitaries of the Roman Catholic church at the accompanying ceremonies conferring the boretta upon Cardinal Satoili.

Miss Maud Oakley is visiting friends in Sioux City.

Miss Ida Bonnell is soon to be married to a Chicago gentleman. Her sister, Mrs. A. L. Frost, has gone to Chicago to be present at the ceremony.

Miss Fechet, Miss Nance and Miss Slaughter will give a party at the Lincoln next Friday night. About ninety-six people have been invited.

Miss Edna Hyatt will return to Lincoln next week. Her work in the Leland Stanford university and in the University of California, has been very satisfactory to the scientific men for whom she illustrated. She returns to an accumulated pile of work at the Nebraska university, and to a welcome at home and at school quite as imposing.

Col. L. C. Pace will deliver an address on the "Trinity of man or man as a threefold being" before the Social Science club in the A. O. U. W. hall, 1114 O street, Sunday evening, January 12, at 8 o'clock sharp. All are cordially invited to attend.

There was a ribbon german at the Lansing hall last night, led by Captain Guilfoyle. Those present were: Messrs. and Mesdames: R. H. Townley, W. B. Hargreaves, M. H. Tilton, John F. Guil-
