Bishop Bonacum has returned from witnessing the ceremonies at the Catholic church uses when it makes a cardinal out of a papal delegate.

The Book club met at the home of Mrs. Harris on K street on one of the last days of December, elected a president and a police committee for the recurrent year and auctioned off its last year's books. Mrs. C. E. Yates is the president and Miss Rosanna Carson and Miss Harris a police committee. For the last two years the books have contracted a habit of collecting in groups of six or eight when they should be in pairs and move promptly at the end of every two weeks. The police committee was appointed to investigate if a jam occurred anywhere along the line and if possible to relieve it. The old books sold very well. The following is a list of the books selected by Mrs. Yates, Mrs. Oakley and Mrs. Wright for this year:

- Europe and Africa in the XIX Century, Elizabeth Latmer.
- A Doctor of the Old School, Ian McClaren.
- The King's Stratagem, Weyman

NEW YORK TIMES

The Times is a newspaper for intelligent men and women who want to read all the news of the world every day. The paper has distinguished merits of its own. It is neither sensational nor dull. It is not sour tempered. It is not frivolous or visionary. It sees plenty of good in the world and tells about it. It tells of the bad when it must, but not unwholesomely. It prints with fulness the record of human endeavor in many fields outside of business, politics and war—in literature, religion, science, art, sports and household matters. No paper in the country prints so many book reviews and so much book news. No paper has so complete a financial page—a daily manual for investors and officers of financial institutions. Its market reports—wool, cotton, breadstuffs, farm products, etc. are the best in the country. The Democracy of The Times is of the old fashioned sort—as old as Thomas Jefferson; majority rule, no bossism, no machine tyranny, the divorce of politics from private money making, a sound currency, industrial emancipation, and every day honesty. To promote the advance of the Democratic party along these lines it labors with heart and conscience and all its might.

THE NEW YORK WEEKLY TIMES

The subscription to the New York Weekly Times is one dollar a year. The Weekly Times is a capital newspaper. It contains all the current news condensed from the dispatches and reports of the daily edition, besides literary matter, discussions upon agricultural topics by practical farmers, full and accurate market reports of prices for farm produce, live stock, etc. and a carefully prepared weekly wool market.
