The subject discussed is "Would the restoration of the free coinage of silver be for the best interests of the United States and consistent with the honor and integrity of the nation?" Mr. E E Brown will lead.

Monday evening Miss Marie Marshall entertained a number of friends. Among those present were: Messrs. Ray Welch, R M Joyce, Guy Hurlbut, Joe Mallalieu, John Dixon, Matt Baldwin, Fred White, Harry Lansing, John Lottridge, J C Mason, Mr. and Mrs. Lew Marshall, Misses Lucy Griffith, Helen Nance, Mame Carson, Olive Latta, Mae Moore, Wood, of Kansas City; Grace Oakley, Mrs. Bailey, of Denver.

W A C Johnson expects to locate in Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. L C Burr will visit Washington in a few days.

Ex-Governor Nance has returned from Chicago.

Miss Mount, of Omaha, will be the guest of Miss Slaughter next week. She will come down to attend the Marshall german.

Mrs. Bailey, who has been the guest of Mrs. F W Baldwin, will leave for Denver today.

The annual meeting of the Woman's Associated charities was held at the state capitol last Wednesday, January 29, at 1:30 p. m. Reports from the superintendent, physician, teacher and matron, evidenced the strong and well disciplined management of the Industrial home. Mrs. L M Boehne having been appointed a matron of the Geneva school for girls tendered her resignation, which was reluctantly accepted, and Mrs. T O C Harrison, of Grand Island, was elected to fill the vacancy. The following resolution expresses the regret of the board upon Mrs. Boehne's resignation. Resolved, that the board of the Woman's Associated Charities deeply regret the resignation of Mrs. L M Boehne, who has since its organization, been one of its most valued and efficient members. But realizing that her experience in all charitable and philanthropic work has eminently qualified her for the position to which she has been appointed, the board hereby tenders her its best wishes for future usefulness. The vacancy caused by the removal of Mrs. M M Davidson, of Crete, to California was filled by the election of Mrs. A M Edwards, of Fremont. The membership now consists of Mesdames

E E Brown, Mariel C Gere, S A Latta, O N Humphrey, A F Newman, and J E Hill, of Lincoln; J W Dawes, of Crete; G W Clark and Dr. Frieda Lankton, of Omaha; Gertrude McDonald, of Fairbury; N V Harlan, of York; Ella Norval and S C Langworthy, of Seward; T O C Harrison, of Grand Island, and A M Edwards, of Fremont. The election of officers for the ensuing year resulted as follows: Mesdames J W Dawes, president; Gertrude McDowell, vice-president; Mariel C Gere, recording secretary; S C Langworthy, corresponding secretary; S A Latta, treasurer. House committee appointed by the president: Mesdames S C Langworthy, C H Gere, J E Hill, N V Harlan, O H Humphrey. Quarterly meetings of the board are held the last Wednesday's of April, July and October.

S H Burnham has returned from New York and the east. Mr. Burnham reports that he found Pierpont Morgan and Drexel and all of the boys in first rate health, and confident that Lincoln will one day rival Chicago.

Abraham Lincoln was born on the 12th of February. Lew Marshall was married the same day. Mr. and Mrs. Marshall will celebrate their first wedding anniversary February 12 at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. John A. Buckstaff. They will give a paper german, with paper favors. Guests will appear en costume.

Mr. C. J. Green was in Lincoln the first part of the week.

On Wednesday evening Mrs. W. C. Wilson entertained the whist club. The guests at the nine tables were Messrs and Mesdames Abbot, E E Brown, Brock, Rodgers, Buckstaff, Burnham, Funke, Harley, Holmes, Hawley, Raymond, R H Oakley, Wright, Harwood, L. C. Richards, Wilson; Miss Maude Oakley, Mr. Howell, Mrs. Robinson and Mrs. Rudy.

Next Tuesday Miss Sue Spalding will arrive in Lincoln from Sioux City. She will be the guest of Miss May Burr. The coterie of which Miss Burr is a member have planned a series of entertainments for Miss Spalding and for Miss Anderson who will arrive on the 19th from Kansas City and who will also visit Miss Burr. Miss Spalding is a sister of Mr. Avery, of Sioux City, who comes to Lincoln next week to lead Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Marshall's cotillion. This party is eagerly anticipated. Guests will appear in paper suits. The young ladies have prepared costumes representing a whole garden of flowers.

Some will go as a red red rose
Some as daises yellow and white.
Bachelor's buttons true love's bows
Sun flowers, tulips, heart-ease, quite too many to mention. The favors will be of paper. Enough has been prepared for eight figures.
