

POINTS IN POLITICS

The side issue or soft shell democracy held an official meeting in this city last Saturday night and decided to follow the lead of Speaker Tom Reed so far as the city campaign is concerned. There was nothing done. There will be nothing done and as there can be nothing done the followers of a forlorn hope adjourned to meet again. This was all they could do and the public will give them credit even for that.

"Gath," the famous correspondent and political writer, is said to be an imitator of Tom Smith's style. Me and Austin are great when it comes to running politics.

Ray Merrill would not have been a candidate for councilman in the Fourth ward had he not understood that Webster would not run again. Merrill is one of the most popular young republicans in the Fourth ward, and he would probably have been successful if Webster had not consented to run. Mr. Webster has rendered the public a great service in the city council.

Comstock and Meyers are running very close in the Seventh.

H. M. Bushnell has been suggested as a proper candidate for the board of education. Mr. Bushnell is well qualified and if he could be induced to run, would be a popular candidate.

Within the last week there has been a narrowing of the field in the fight for the nomination for water commissioner. Two weeks ago there were eighteen candidates for this office. The new system frightened a number off, and more will drop out before next Friday. It is generally conceded among the politicians that the contest is between H. B. Sawyer and Percival, the present incumbent. One of these will undoubtedly be nominated by the republican electors of the city. They are well known throughout the city and of course each is confident. Percival's service as water commissioner has given him a large acquaintance, while Sawyer has long been prominent in republican municipal politics. Sawyer has been an active candidate from the start, while many others were "laying low." Sawyer or Percival—which?

The new system of voting has disturbed the calculations of the politicians, and it is noticeable that prophets are more chary of predictions than formerly. There are many, however, who believe that Frank Waters is sure of nomination. Under the old system Waters would have had a good show, and it is altogether probable that his prospects are improved by the change. The fact that there are a number of opposing candidates is in his favor. The office of police judge in this city is a difficult place to fill. The influences surrounding it have worked the demoralization of three out of five men who have had the office. Waters has been a notable exception. He has kept himself clean, and his administration has given general satisfaction. There are no charges against him. His record is entirely clear and he is making his campaign on the record of past services. His friends are very confident of his success.

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

FOR CITY ENGINEER.

Geo. A. Raymer should and will in all probability be the next city engineer.

He will have the support of the young as well as the older republicans for he has lived in this city many years and he has a host of friends who know his splendid qualifications to fill the office, and his sterling qualities as a man.

I am a republican candidate for city engineer. I have lived in Lincoln more than twenty years. Am familiar with its growth, public improvements and engineering works. My character as a man, and my qualifications as an engineer are well known. I desire the support of all republican voters at the primaries on March 13th.

J. H. FOXWORTHY.

I hereby request the support of all good republicans in my candidacy for police judge, subject to the republican primaries.

A. D. BORGELT.

To the republican voters of the city of Lincoln: On account of the short time between now and the primary election, and the impossibility for me to see any considerable portion of the voters, I take this manner of announcing myself as a candidate for the office of police judge. I am a republican and believing as I do that the chief corner stone of our party is obedience to the law and maintenance of right and virtue. I pledge myself to administer the laws over which I have jurisdiction with out fear or favor and do all in my power to reduce crime in this community to the minimum.

W. B. PRICE.

J. W. PERCIVAL.

FOR COUNCILMAN.

I desire to introduce myself to the republican voters of the Fifth ward. I am a candidate for the office of councilman. I am a property owner and favor re-trenchment in all city affairs except where day laborers are affected. I am actively engaged in business, being the secretary of the Farmers Mutual Insurance company of Nebraska. I respectfully solicit your support in my behalf. Respectfully yours,

W. B. LINCH.

S. B. Hohmann, of the Fifth ward, is most favorably spoken of as a candidate for the council. Mr. Hohmann has been a citizen here for more than twenty-five years; has property interests in four of the wards and therefore interested in an economical and conservative administration of municipal affairs that our city taxes be made less burdensome. Always a stalwart republican his best efforts would be for the greatest good to the greatest number.

I hereby announce myself as a candidate for the city council from the First ward. I have been and am now proprietor of the Tremont house, corner of Eighth and P streets, for the last eight years. Have always voted the republican ticket. "Am a tax payer, was a soldier four years, being in Gen. Grant's command. If elected will look out for the interests of the First ward and do my duty. Would ask the republican voters to vote for me at the primary, March 13, 1896.

P. W. COPELAND.

CITY CANDIDATES

A. D. BORGELT

The candidacy of A. D. Borgelt for police judge is a fitting one and should be favorably considered by all who want to see good men elected to that office. He is loyal to his party and his past official record in this city are potent forces why he should be elected to that responsible position. Good citizens are interested in seeing men of this kind succeed who aspire to public official positions within the gift of this municipality. Judge Borgelt is well known and an old resident in the city and now is the time the republican party should put its best men to the front by selecting him for police judge. Vote for Judge Borgelt next Friday and thereby select a tried and true man for this important office. He was the victim of a crank who, several years ago, walked into his office and shot him while in the discharge of his official duty.

DR. HOLYOKE.

In the approaching city election it is the policy of good citizens to support good men only for public office, men whose loyalty and fidelity to the official trusts reposed in them cannot be questioned. They will support men, too, whose republicanism is true blue. By way of suggestion this paper commends Dr. E. L. Holyoke as the most available candidate for councilman in the Sixth ward. He has been tried and not found wanting in looking after the interests of his constituents faithfully, honestly and well in that ward before and his integrity cannot be questioned. Never before in its history has this city been required to put its best men to the front as at the present time and it is to be hoped that the selection of the Sixth ward voters will be almost unanimous in asking Dr. Holyoke to represent the ward in the city council for the next two years.

N. C. ABBOTT.

N. C. Abbott, candidate for city attorney, has been a resident of Lincoln and Lancaster county for twenty years. He has given able and honorable service as city attorney, and there does not appear to be any good reason why he should be pushed aside for a new man for the place. It takes much hard work and study to familiarize oneself with this office and when a worthy, honest and able man is chosen it is wise policy on the part of the public to keep him at the post. Mr. Abbott's campaign is being made solely on his record.

J. H. FOXWORTHY.

The claims of J. H. Foxworthy for the nomination of police judge are straightforward and direct. He has been a resident of this city for a quarter of a century, is an old soldier and in every way an upright and exemplary man for the position. No man can we say more about and this is sufficient.

GEO. A. RAYMER.

Geo. A. Raymer, candidate for city engineer, appears to have a walkaway for that office. He has been a resident of this city for fifteen years, is able, upright and energetic in the discharge of any duties devolving upon him. If his large circle of friends choose him for city engineer the trust reposed in him will be humbly discharged and the city will be the gainer thereby. Vote for George for city engineer and you will never regret it.

JOS. MCGRAW.

The candidacy of Jos. McGraw for water commissioner of this city is one of genuine merit. He is an old soldier and a resident of this city during the past twenty years. He is well fitted for the position as he holds certificates from the board of public works in New York City under dates of 1866-1870 which prove his worth in that capacity. Joe's honesty and efficiency stand at the head and the people have an opportunity of getting the right man for the place by electing him water commissioner.

BARR PARKER.

Barr Parker, the old and tried war horse from the big Fifth ward, is in the race to stay and kindly refers to his record of integrity in that line during the past two years. Barr has been a resident in this city for the past fifteen years and has been among the pushing business men for the city's best interests. To desert him now would be like deserting a brave, tried and true general on the field of battle. His friends hope he may be returned to his post of faithful duty where he has been tried and not found wanting.

Jesse Chappel announces himself as a candidate for police judge. He is an old soldier, has been a lifelong republican and submits his name subject to the decision of the republican primary election.
