

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

One of the neatest, most unique and absorbing entertainments of the current season is "Miss Jerry." The title gives no adequate idea of the character of the play, the scenes of which are laid in New York city, whither "Miss Jerry" turns her foot-steps after a more or less adventurous "bring up" in a Colorado mining camp. In the great, wicked and cruel metropolis, "Miss Jerry" meets her fate; a handsome clever fellow, who seems so far above her, socially, that she bitterly laments the chance that threw him in her path. Among the various characters represented in this, the first picture play ever presented in this country are Chauncey Depew, "Farmer Dunn," the weather prophet, and Supt. Martin of the Brooklyn bridge. Among the outdoor scenes are views of Broadway, City Hall park, Madison Square, Fifth Avenue hotel, Washington Square, and Central park. "Miss Jerry" was presented last season before an extraordinarily wide range of audiences, including some of the most famous social and literary clubs, prominent churches, Chautauqua assemblies, "Y. M. C. A.'s," in drawing rooms and in some of the largest lecture halls and opera houses in the United States and Canada. This novel and refined entertainment will be presented under the management of Mr. Frank F. Muller, Friday and Saturday night, May 8 and 9; at the Funke opera house, under the auspices of the ladies of the Universalist church Matinee today.

Leopold Godowsky, one of the greatest of living pianists and of whom it has been said by competent musical authority that his technique surpasses that of Paderewski, which is the same as to say he is the greatest of all technicians, is to be heard in this city Friday evening, May 15, at the Funke opera house in a recital program which embraces some of the choicest piano numbers of his vast repertoire. Mr. Godowsky, a Russian by birth, studied with the greatest masters of the various schools and wherever he has played created a furore, including such art centers as Paris, Berlin and London, where royalty, wealth and aristocracy at once threw open its doors to this wonderful artist—while uniting the two great schools of music, the German and the French, Godowsky retains a distinct individuality of style and temperament that invests his playing with a peculiar charm. Since coming to America his appearance in New York, Boston, Philadelphia, Chicago, St. Louis and other art centers of musical culture amounted to a revelation and he was received at once as an artist of the very highest rank. It is said of him that his art is infinite, his memory remarkable, his technique unsurpassed, and his adaptability to the various musical characters of the different composers and their portrayal has not been excelled. From this it will be seen that a musical feast of rare quality is in store alike for our amateurs, our advanced musicians and our critics.

- The program is as follows:
- Carnival opus 9..... Schumann
  - Ave Maria }.....Schubert-Liszt
  - Fruehlings-Glaube }
  - Invitation to the Dance.. Weber-Tausig
  - Prelude
  - Three Studies
  - Berceuse
  - Valse opus 64, No. 1 (arranged in double notes by Moritz } Chopin
  - Rosenthal)
  - Scherzo C sharp minor
  - Ballade A flat
  - Polonaise opus 53
  - Ballet Music from Alceste.....
  - .....Gluck-Saint Saens
  - Waldeesrauschen (Murmurs of the Forest)..... Liszt
