TRIBUNE

CANDY AND FLOWERS FREE

Today Sutton & Hollowbush will give their annual opening, and the event will be signalized by the presentation of beautiful and palatable souvenirs. The proprietors have brought 1,500 Cape Jasmines from Texas, and each lady purchaser will be presented with one of these beautiful flowers. And that is not all. With each flower will go a box of Sutton & Hollowbush's delicious candy. Hagenow's orchestra will furnish music during the day.

The latest novelties in candies, salt water taffy, Jersey lilies, butter squares, chew-chews and salted peanuts introduced by us. We originate. "Ephemera," 1211 O St.

Do you eat candy? Do you ever make a present of a fine box of candy? Examine the fresh stock at Frank M. Rector's, 1211 O street. Ice cream parlors cream and ices in all flavors.

DO YOU WANT TO SAVE TIME?

Well the new flyer leaving Lincoln at 3:20 p. m. via Missouri Pacific will save you several hours to St. Louis, Cincinnati, New York and all eastern points, and connections are made in the St. Louis union station, the most expensive, complete and finest in the world. Any information or sleeping car berths at city ticket office 1201 O St.

Sutton & Hollowbush, 12th and O, Funke opera house corner, make a specialty of serving families and parties with the finest ice-cream and ices, in all varieties; also fine cakes, etc.

Fine line of toilet soaps at Kleinkauf & Grimes', 117 North 11th st.

Mr. Frank Short, who has had much success with his dramatic school in Omaha, will be here next Saturday night and put on "The Bells" and "Rosberry Shrub, Sec." Most of the cast in "The Bells" are professionals and Mr. Short himself as Mathias does excellent work. "Rosberry Shrub, Sec." is a one-act curtain-raiser. Mrs. Matheson, whom many Lincoln people have met, takes the principal part. Her impersonation of the New England spinster is irresistibly funny. Not one professional actress in two hundred that visits Lincoln has the talent and magnetism of Mrs. Matheson.

TODAY IS OPENING DAY.

At Sutton & Hollowbush's opening today thirty flavors of ice-cream and ices will be served, some of the novelties being Bomba glace, Bisque of glace, Frozen Egg Nogg, Tutti Fruitti Nesselrode Pudding, Charlotte Russe de glace, Frozen Pudding, Queen Victoria, etc.

The Nebraska McKinley club will have a special train of sleepers from Lincoln to St. Louis to attend the republican convention, leaving Lincoln about 3:20 p. m., June 15, via. Missouri Pacific.

The total cost, including sleeping car for five days, attendance, etc., will be but $25. While in St. Louis the cars will be located three blocks from the convention auditorium, with complete sanitary arrangements provided for. All desiring to avail themselves of this privilege will communicate with F. W. Collins, secretary and treasurer Nebraska McKinley club.

Political Points

Among the candidates in the city this week were Van Duyn, George Brooks, Charley Casey, "Jack" MacColl, W. M. Geddes, C. L. Richards and Louis Helmer.

Jewett, the Custer county candidate for treasurer, was victorious in the primary election in his county. The convention will be held today. It will elect a solid and enthusiastic Jewett delegation. George D. Melklejohn will address the convention.

J. H. McClay, Lancaster's candidate for auditor, denies emphatically that he is in any combination.

R. E. Moore maintains a discreet silence as to his intentions or desires, politically. It is probably entirely safe to say that Mr. Moore would not decline a renomination for lieutenant-governor.

A Lincoln politician who has spent some time in Omaha the past ten days, said yesterday to a Courier representative: "A great many republicans in Douglas county are tired of the fight that has been waged by the Broatch and Churchill factions, and it would not surprise me a bit if Williams carried the county for commissioner against the field. He already has a very large following."

W. M. Geddes of Grand Island was in the city this week. Mr. Geddes is a candidate for auditor. He is a newspaper man, but that fact is not inter-

The severe wind which caused so much damage yesterday afternoon, unroofed the two-story brick building at 133 South Ninth street, one of the oldest brick buildings in the city, having been built in '74. The heavy rains which followed did much damage to the stock of harness and etc., contained therein. The entire stock will be sold at barely cost of manufacture. Call and examine the big bargains. Nothing reserved.

M. B. Curtiss in his great play, "Sam'l of Posen" will make his farewell appearance at the Funke this afternoon and evening.
