

ELEANOR'S LETTER

MY DEAR PENELOPE:

The serious minded women, young and old, who belong to clubs and all kinds of thinking and speaking societies are in danger of forgetting the necessity for society entirely separate from any scheme of improvement. I have heard severe ladies condemn men's clubs which they say are only for the purpose of drinking, playing cards and gossiping. Well, all except the first occupation is sanitary. When his own affairs domestic and financial are in a very uncertain state, it does a man good to talk about his neighbors. Self improvement is a good thing of course, but temperance is better. Men relax when they enter the doors of their club. They do not worry about their soul, their pocket book, or their wives and children. They smoke and put their feet where they like and if they want to they drink. Though club habits say that men are drinking tea instead of the varieties of alcohol they have been in the habit of stuning themselves. Two or three men come in and order a pot of tea; as it disappears they grow bright instead of maudlin. Women go to clubs to listen to lady Henry Somerset, Miss Willard or a learned professor in lecture. They come away improved but depressed. Learning will not warm or make you cheerful, quite the contrary; it frequently gives you cold feet and makes you unhappy. It is much better to be content with the little we know and make it go as far as possible than to dispise the innocent recreation of male beings who do not know any better. Everybody is getting ready for the weddings that I told you about last week. The Lansing and the Funke are dark, even Mattson Baldwin is talking politics. When what is going to happen has happened there may be some parties to write to you about and I shall not be driven into a discourse that you will probably throw away as soon as you find out what it is about.

But I am Yours You Know.

ELEANOR.

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL

The Young Ladies Seventh Ward McKinley club will give a reception to editors and newspaper men generally, Monday evening. There will be a discussion of the subject: "The Outlook of the Coming Election, and the Probable Result in the state of Nebraska."

Harry Reece has gone to Denver.

Omaha continues to make large drafts upon the time of Miss Marie Marshall. This young lady is so thoroughly identified with the society of Omaha and Lincoln that she has almost an equal number of friends in both cities. Miss Marshall went to the metropolis Thursday. She will see Richard Mansfield and attend the Monday club dance.

Miss Sadie Burhnam was among the fortunate few who went to Omaha this week to hear Mansfield.

Mrs. F. E. White, Mrs. Atwood and Mrs. Palmer who came up last week to attend Mrs. Lambertsons and Mrs. Campbells "At Home," have returned to their home in Plattsmouth.

The Lorelei quartette—Mrs. D. A. Campbell, Miss Maud Oakly, Miss Terry and Mrs. Edwards of Omaha, sang Thursday evening at the Woman's federation of Clubs which meets in Fremont.

Misses Boggs and Caffyn have moved their dressmaking rooms to a new location over the republican headquarters on N street between Eleventh and Twelfth.

The September meeting of the Daughters of the American Revolution was held at the residence of Mrs. S. E. Upton on L street between 11 and 12th. A very able and interesting paper, "The Period Previous to 1620 was read by Mrs. Coggeshall. It was then decided that the Chapter observe Forest-Father's Day in an appropriate manner at the home of Mrs. S. B. Pound. The remainder of the afternoon was spent in a pleasant and profitable manner.

The Mandolin Club met with Miss Maud Oakly for practice last Monday evening. The club is progressing remarkably fast in technique.

Mrs. T. M. Marquette returned last Sunday from a month spent with relatives and friends in Illinois. Monday she left for Kansas City to visit her son. While there she will attend the "Priests of Pallas."

Col. F. Connell Zebrung will go to Omaha to day to take in Richard Mansfield's presentation of "Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde" to-night. Mr. Mansfield's week engagement in Omaha has attracted a great many people to the Metropolis. A number will go up this afternoon.

The Flower Mission held one of its regular meetings Wednesday afternoon at the residence of Miss Henrietta Hollowbush. From two to five there was a business meeting, and several matters of importance were satisfactorily disposed of. Beginning at five o'clock the men dropped in, and at a little after six a very delicious lunch was served. The somewhat remarkable success of the Flower Mission merits a few words at this time. About six months ago a number of the most popular young society girls and matrons conceived the idea that it would be an excellent plan to use the flowers which are given to them and others which they might be able to secure, for the purpose of making cheerful sick rooms and hospital wards throughout the city. The idea was immediately put into execution, and the Flower Mission has been

THE TIME TO SUBSCRIBE.

The old newspaper saying, "now is the time to subscribe," was never more true than at present. The times are so full of incident, so many important national and state affairs are shaping themselves for a change, that no one can afford to be without a metropolitan daily or weekly. The St. Louis Republic, the greatest democratic newspaper, is making a special offer of its daily and Sunday paper for three months at $1.50. It is $6 a year by mail. The Twice-a-Week Republic is sent two times a week—104 papers—for only $1 a year. In addition to all the political news, it prints every day a spread of general news and features not equalled by any other paper.
