

UNIVERSITY NOTES.

Frank Steiner is expected home from Minneapolis the first of the week to spend Thanksgiving with his parents.

The Phi Kappa Psi fraternity will give a dancing party for its young lady friends next Wednesday evening at the chapter house, Twelfth and G streets.

The Minuet club of Ashland will give a dancing party Thanksgiving night for the students attending the state university from that town.

THURSDAY'S GAME.

Nothing has transpired during the past week to brighten the football situation in the university. Enthusiasm for football seems to be at a low ebb. It is characteristic of the school, however, for the students to lose interest whenever the team suffers defeat. There is no denying the fact that the student body will not support football.

There is less college spirit shown in the university of Nebraska than in any college of its size and standing in the United States. The attendance at the Nebraska-Ames game certainly proves this fact. There were ninety-six paid admissions, two-thirds of which were city people.

Nebraska won the toss and took the east goal. Howell kicked off for fifty yards and Thorpe returned it sixty by punting. Nebraska got the ball on a fumble and advanced it rapidly—Packard 5 yards, 2 yards, 2 yards. Turner was then given the ball, but failed to make the required yard, and the ball went to Ames. Wilson advanced the ball 5 yards through the centre. In the next play Wiggins was judged off side and the referee gave Ames 15 yards. Parker went through the centre for 10 yards. Wilson 4 yards and 5 yards through the centre.

Iowa then lost the ball on account of a forward pass. Wiggins goes around the end for 3 yards. Thorpe brings in his line quarterback punt for 50 yards, kicking the ball over the goal line, Wiggins falls on the ball for a touchdown and Thorpe kicks goal. Time, 6 minutes.

Iowa kicked off 40 yards and Thorpe returned it 60 by punting. Iowa got the ball and began some fine line bucking. Parsons 1 yard, Wilson 2 yards, Parsons 3 yards, Parker 10 yards, Wilson 3 yards, Parker 2 yards, Parsons 10 yards—all through our line—which seemed to offer little resistance. Ames continued the line bucking, finally shoving Wilson over the line for a touchdown. Hammer failed a goal, which was not as difficult as Nebraska's first.

Nebraska then kicked off for 50 yards and Ames returned it 25. Parsons went through the line for 5 yards and was followed by Wilson for 3 yards. Ames then attempted an end run, but fumbled, and Nebraska got the ball. Dungan went through the line for 2 yards. Packard lost 3 yards on an end run. Capt. Thorpe then punted and Nebraska got the ball. On the next play Thorpe fumbled and the ball was lost to Ames. Wentch attempted an end run, but was beautifully tackled by Wiggins, who raised his man high in the air, carried him back about 2 yards and downed him with a loss of ground to Iowa. Weaver went around the end for ten yards when time was called with the ball in Nebraska's territory. Score, Nebraska 6, Ames 4.

SECOND HALF.

In the second half Oury replaced Pearce and Hansen was put in instead of Kellar. Thorpe kicked off for forty yards and the ball was returned but ten yards by Ames. Ames then sent her full back through Nebraska's line three successive times, gaining fifteen yards. Hammer bucked Nebraska's center for twelve yards. Ames then attempted a criss cross which failed utterly, Corby tackling their man and bringing him down five yards behind the line of play. The ball went to Nebraska. Thorpe was forced to punt and the ball went to Ames. Our opponents did not keep the ball long and finally lost it on a fumble in which Benedict figured conspicuously. Packard successively gained five, three, five and two yards. Nebraska then failed to gain and the ball went to Ames who immediately lost it on a fumble. Nebraska then lost on third down and Ames took the ball but lost on an attempted criss-cross.

Time was then called with the ball rapidly approaching Ames' goal. Score, Nebraska 12, Ames 4

Referee—F. D. Cornell.

Umpire—B. German.

Linesmen—Pace, French.

Timekeeper—Wentch.

The game was very interesting throughout. The most brilliant playing was the line bucking of the visitors and the punting of Thorpe.

Capt. Thorpe deserves great credit for the way in which he generalised the game. Parker, Parsons and Wilson did the best work for the visitors.

FOOTBALL NOTES.

Every coach and drag in Omaha has been engaged for Thanksgiving. The attendance promises to be the largest Omaha has ever witnessed.

The management of the Creighton theatre has tendered the Nebraska-Iowa teams the use of two boxes at the production of "Rob Roy" by the Whitney Opera Co., Thanksgiving night.

Robbins is practically out of the game. He has gone to his home in Plattsmouth, having been threatened with typhoid fever. Overtraining is ascribed as the cause.

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

The famous Brothers Byrne, the quartette of fun makers, who have amused so many people by their grotesque acrobatic specialties, will appear at the Lansing Thanksgiving evening, with a grand ladies' and children's matinee Thursday, November 26th, in the nautical pantomimic comedy, the new "Eight Bells." Almost from the time the curtain rises on the first act until it falls after the last one, the audience is looking and laughing at the Byrne Brothers. Only one of them has anything in particular to say. The other brothers carry their part in pantomime. The scenery of "Eight Bells" is constructed especially for these agile brothers, and they go sailing through the windows, jumping headlong through the sides of the houses and tumbling through a trick coach in the most reckless and startling manner. The best scene is in the second act, when the interior of adjoining staterooms on an ocean steamer is shown to the audience. The staterooms are occupied by the four Byrne Brothers, and while the ship is rolling in the waves, they introduce some of the best acrobatic turns. This act ends with a terrible storm at sea, which rocks the ship so much, that she finally turns completely over, and the inhabitants of the two staterooms are whirled about in a way that is most astonishing. There is a large cast of characters in the production of the new "Eight Bells," and many medleys, songs, dances and imitations. Some pretty and vivacious young women figure in the entertainment, and the plot running through it is funny in its situations. Seats on sale Tuesday morning. Matinee at 2:30 p. m.

First pub. Nov. 21.

NOTICE TO NON-RESIDENT DEFENDANTS.

To Philetus Peck, Lombard Investment Company, Mary P. Hooper.

Notice is hereby given that on the 19th day of November, 1896, the Concordia Loan and Trust Company as plaintiff, filed a petition in the District Court of Lancaster county, State of Nebraska, wherein the following named parties were made defendants, to-wit: Irving L. Lyman, Mary D. Lyman, Charles W. Artell, Alice S. Artell, Philetus Peck, Lombard Investment Company, a corporation, and Mary P. Hooper. The object and prayer of which said petition is to foreclose the lien of two County Treasurer's certificates of tax sale upon the following described parcel of real estate, respectively, to-wit: Lots fifteen (15) and sixteen (16), in block nine (9), Peck's Grove, situate in the County of Lancaster, State of Nebraska. Said tax sale was made on the 25th day of November, 1891, for the delinquent taxes and assessments of the year 1890 upon said parcels of real estate. The amount claimed by the plaintiff is as follows: $16.04 paid November 25th, 1891; $8.08 paid June 20th, 1892; $16.04 paid June 23rd, 1892; $7.80 paid May 25th, 1893, and $11.40 paid June 21st, 1893, together with interest thereon, from date of payment, as by law provided. The prayer of said petition is for a decree declaring the aforesaid amount together with interest thereon and costs to be first and paramount lien upon the above described parcel of real estate, respectively, and that said real estate be sold, under an order of court, to satisfy the same, and that said defendants and each of them be forever barred and foreclosed of all interest or claim in said real estate, or any part thereof.

You are required to answer said petition on or before Monday, the 28th day of December, 1896.
