

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL

Try Lincoln Coal Co.'s "Beaut's, 1206 O Mr. J. W. Maxwell formerly of Lincoln, has been elected mayor of South Bend, Washington.

Born—To Mr. and Mrs. Fred Smyser a son.

The Model Restaurant is an excellent place for family board. It is also excellently situated for persons spending a day in the city. Ladies while shopping can find no better place for luncheon. Meals 15 cents, Sunday dinner 25 cents. Tickets $3. 316 South Twelfth. Soup served from 8 to 10 p. m.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Owen Jones are visiting friends and relatives in New York and the New England states. While there Mr. Jones will make a study of eastern journalism.

Miss Effie Stein will leave Lincoln shortly to accept a position in a bank at Minneapolis.

Canon Pea coal, $5 per ton. The best for the money, at Gregory's, 11th and O.

Miss Mame Carson who has been visiting in Des Moines, Ia., for several months returned home this week.

Miss Edith Phelan of Alliance, the daughter of Supt. J. R. Phelan of the Wyoming division of the Burlington, is the guest of Mrs. F. W. Smith.

Business men and ladies shopping should take their luncheon at the Model Restaurant, 316 South Twelfth. No better place can be found in the city. Single meals 15 cents, Sunday dinner 25 cents. Tickets $3. Soup served from 9 to 10 p. m.

The Bucyrus mandolin club met with Mrs. F. W. Smith, Tuesday evening. After the practice a very pleasant evening was enjoyed by the members.

Mattson Baldwin entertained a few friends Tuesday evening for Miss Whaley of Pomeroy, Ohio. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Woods, J. T. Dorgan, Misses Mame Carson, Amy Whaley of Pomeroy, O., Florence Putnam, Messrs. F. C. Zehring, Roy Chapman.

The second floor of the Harris block, 1134 N street, has been fitted up for a dancing hall. The floor has received the attention of experts. It is of hard wood, and the boards are laid parallel with the length of the hall. Parties desiring to rest it can do so at the Courier office, in the same block.

"Uni" students say our Three "Beauts" are elegant. Lincoln Coal Co., 1206 O.

Mrs. J. T. Dorgan received the Cheese and Cracker club by an afternoon at home Tuesday. This is the fourth season for this small but thoroughly congenial crowd. Miss Whaley delightfully entertained the ladies by a number of charming vocal solos. The members are: Mesdames Geo. W. Woods, J. T. Dorgan, L. W. Marshall, W. D. Robinson, Ode Rector, Mohrenstecher, W. F. Kelly, C. L. Burr, Misses Mame and Rose Carson, Mae Burr and Olive Latta. Miss Whaley of Pomeroy, Ohio.

The Model restaurant, 316 South Twelfth is open from 8 to 10 p. m., when soup and lunches are served. Drop in on your way home.

The First Presbyterian church gave an exceeding large and successful reception last Friday evening for the new pastor and his wife, Dr. and Mrs. Hindman. The parlors of the church were elaborately decorated. The Hagenow string quartet furnished inspiring music from the rostrum in the audience room. Ices were served during the evening. From eight until eleven there was a constant rush of guests coming and going, which must have been both pleasing and flattering to the new minister in this, his new field of work

This year's Lehigh Valley and Scranton hard coal $9.40 per ton at Charles Gregory's, 11th and O.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. W. Woods gave a high-five party for Miss Whaley of Pomeroy, O., Wednesday evening. The house was prettily decorated in Christmas greens, holly and cut flowers. Seven tables were surrounded by enthusiastic players and the prizes were won by Mrs. Frank Woods, a silver button hook, Miss Carson, a pair of silver scissors, Mr. N. S. Brock, nail file in silver case, Will S. Clark, silver stamp box. While the refreshments were being served Miss Whaley sang a number of choice selections delightfully. The invited guests were: Marie Marshall, Grace Oakley, Henrietta Hollowbush, Maem Carson, Florence Hawley, Mae Burr, Sadie Burnham, Olive Latta, Amy Whaley of Pomeroy, O., Messrs. J. C. Mason, Harry Lansing, Fred White, Matt Baldwin, San Low, Will E. Clark, Roy Chapman, Frank Zehring, Messrs. and Mesdames J. T. Dorgan, F. W. Houtz, Mark Woods, Nelson C. Brock.

Sutton & Hollowbush have invented a cough drop. They call it the S. & H., Sutton & Hollowbush, and it is a good one. Stop and get one on your way to the theatre. It will save you a spasm of coughing.

Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Burnham gave a delightful "coming out" party for their daughter Miss Sadie at Lansing hall, Monday evening. They received in the larger room which was artistically decorated in festoons of red bunting and American flags, with American beauty roses and red carnations. Pink was the color scheme of the north hall where ices were served during the evening. Here also were La France roses.

Mrs. Burnham wore a handsome gown of black mousseline de soi over black taffeta silk. She carried fragrant violets. Miss Burnham's dainty blonde beauty showed to advantage in a simple white India mulle trimmed in valenciennne lace over a foundation of light green taffeta silk.

The colored shades shed a soft mellow light on the bewitching gowns of all the ladies.

Miss Willoughby's orchestra furnished excellent music for about fifteen dancing numbers. The invited guests were: Misses Burr, Grace Oakley, Maud Oakley, Farwell, Richards, Garten, Righter, Latta, Cochrane, Watkins, Hollowbush, Slaughter, Brooks, Harris, Raymond, Marshall, Fechet, Harley, Risser, Griffith, Sewell, Frances Gere, Ellen Gere, Welch, Miner; Messrs. Joyce, C. Y. Smith, Mallalieu, Lansing, Morrison, Oakley, Farwell, Dr. White, Walsh, Houghton, Reese, Fred White, Cooley, Evans, Owens, Raymond, Mason, Fechet, Honeywell, Risser, Morill, Lau, Welsh, W. E. Clark, Baldwin, Lyon, Creigh, Johnson, Hanna, Whedon, Stull, Cowdery, Wing Allen of Omaha, Lambertson; Messrs and Mesdames Beeson, R. J. Green, C. L. Burr, Coffroth, Buckstaff, Wright, F. W. Brown, Dorgan, Geo. Woods, Frank Woods, C. Funke, Ogden, Ladd, Guilfoyle, W. C. Wilson, W. B. Wilson, Mohrenstecher, Barbour, Cambell Taylor, Bailey, Leonard, W. A. Green, Meissner, W. F. Keitley, D. Marshall, Rodger, Townley, Jansen, Aitken, Curtis, Brown, W. Hargreaves, Lippincott, Tilton, H. Sutton, Imhoff, F. M. Hall, Lowry, R. H. Oakley, Yates, J. M. Raymond, and Dr. Righter. Mesdames C. T. Brown of Denver and Charles Robinson of Chicago, Misses Price, McClure, of Mt. Pleasant, Alexander, Kissam, Whaley, Yates and Webster of Omaha. Miss Carson, Mr. and Mrs. K. E. Lewis; Messrs. Sam Low, Johnson, Valentine, Fairfield.

Gregory sells the best crushed coke for $7.40 per ton. 11th and O. Phone 343.

Mr. Paul Colson, of Fremont was in the city attending the Dairymen's convention in the interest of the Nye & Schneider Co., of Fremont.

No one should fail to read J. E. Houtz's "ad."

Thirty couples participated in the Patriarchs cotillion, Thursday evening at the Courier hall. Capt. Guilfoyle had arranged a number of new figures and properties, such as Triple Column, Dosa-Dos Square, Fans and Umbrellas, Over and Under, Chaloux, Gentlemen's March, Sabers, Grand Round, Little Rounds to the Side, Blind Man's Buff. In all five favor and two property figures. The favor tables presided over by Mrs. C. E. Yates and Mrs. J. B. Wright were placed in the south end of the hall

The dainty favors made desirable souvenirs of this delightful holiday party.

In the south end of the hall under a canopy of huge Japanese umbrellas and decorated in flowers and smilax. Oriental rugs, divans, palms and piano lamps made a charming back ground (or setting) for the circle of merry dancers. Refreshments were served during the intermission. Miss Willoughby furnished the music for the following partial list of dancers: Capt. and Mrs. Guilfoyle, Capt. R. O. Phillips, Messrs. and Mesdames C. Funke, W. B. Ogden, C. F. Ladd, F. M. Raymond, J. B. Wright, W. C. Wilson, S. H. Burnham, Harwood, Mrs. T. Taylor, Mrs. C. E. Yates, Mrs. Barbour, Mrs. Robinson, of Chicago, Misses Bertie Clark, Sadie Burnham, Mary Jones, Olive Latta, Sarah Harris, Francis Gere, Miner, Florence Putnam, Dr. John White, Owens, Lyon, Oury, Will Raymond, Montmorency, Davenport, Willard, and Yates.

The Leming stock contains thousands of beautiful Christmas presents.

The choir of the First Presbyterian church next Sunday morning and evening will be assisted by Miss Minnie Gaylord and Dr. E. H. Eddy.

You will save money by reading J. E. Houtz's "ad."

The Journal is cultivating satire in its old age—it announced on Thursday that "Prof. Taylor slipped into town quietly the other day.

Leighton says their goods were not bought to keep—but to sell—they go regardless of cost. Call and see. 1123 O st.

We have the hot-stuff. Lincoln Coal Co.

The Lincoln Light Infantry gave a successful party for Capt. and Mrs. Campbell Wednesday the 9th. The amusements were of a various nature. The program commenced with an open drill—a spell down for the individual medal, which was won by Capt. Bolshaw. Before dismissing the company the president, Richard O'Neil, presented Capt. and Mrs. Campbell a handsome leather chair. The captain responded with a few well chosen words of thanks. Several musical numbers followed after refreshments. The fifty couple present completed the evening pleasantly by dancing. The following distinguished guests were present from the Nebraska National Guards: Gen. Bills, Col. Bishoff, Capt. Keefer, Maj. Fechet and Col. Foster of the Iowa National Guards.

Mrs. F. A. Miller prepared and carried out a very delightful surprise party

Thursday evening for her husband, ex-Sheriff Miller. The occasion for this stag party was his thirty-fifth birthday. From eight o'clock card playing, smoking, speeches and singing made the evening pass very pleasantly. Dainty refreshments were served by Mrs. Miller, Miss Hale and Miss Lawlor. The gentlemen guests were with one exception, members of the Lincoln Light Infantry and were: Messrs. Neilson, Ed and Art Hamilton, Spangler, Jake and Art North, Hurd, Hoyt, Camp, Dean, Will and Charles Clark, Bolshaw, Morris, Beemer, Ringer, Drake, Blair, L. Wilson, Howland, Volkhardt, Livinghouse, Anderson, Lafferty, Bowman, Wycoff, Benson, Gascoin, William Lawlor.

Miss Anna Dick, modiste, has moved her rooms to 1318 O street.

The largest and prettiest function of the season was the Pleasant Hour party given last night for Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Houtz, at the Lincoln hotel. Over forty couple danced in the dining room to excellent music by the August Hagenow orchestra. Mr. and Mrs. Houtz received in the parlors. Mrs. Houtz wore her wedding gown of handsome white satin trimmed in point Duchesse lace, diamonds and flowers. Refreshments were served in the ordinary.

Mrs. Norris Humphrey gave a very pleasant Kensington last Monday afternoon at her home on M and Twelfth streets. The guests, twenty in number, were members of the Kensington club which is beginning a third season of delightful "afternoons."

Busy? Well! Well! Lincoln Coal Co. Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Wright expect to give a very informal chating-dish party to a few friends tonight.

Miss Maud Oakley gave a little company Wednesday evening for Mrs. C. F. Brown of Denver.

Mr. and Mrs. Gere gave a dinner party Thursday evening.

Dr. John White leaves today for his home at Baltimore, Md., to spend the holidays and to attend his parents' golden wedding anniversary.

Mr. F. W. Wiley of Minneapolis has been in the city this week visiting friends.

Mr. S. B. Hardin of Cripple Creek, Col., superintendent of chlorination works, is visiting his cousin, H. A. Reese.

Bert Weston came up from Beatrice for the Pleasant Hour party last evening.

Miss Ruth Weller of Omaha came down to attend the party and to visit Alice Slaughter.

The sophomore class of the university of Nebraska gave a dancing party last evening at the Courier hall. The hall was well filled, the gowns were pretty and it was an altogether pretty party. The following is a partial list of the invited guests: Patrons and Patronesses Chancellor and Mrs. MacLean, Prof. and Mrs. Kimball, Prof. and Mrs. Richards, Prof. and Mrs. Fling, Misses MacFarland, Lytel, Weeks, Randal, Beaver, Farnham, Richards, Stuart, Cook, Parks, Wilson, Paris, Mo.; Gage; Mackin, Hammond, Polk, Winger, Carcadden, Danielson, Patch, Robinson, Wilson, Merrill, Leese, Jones, Edith and Mabel Erford. Messrs. Robbins, Hatfield, Cramb, Shuff, Korsemyer, Culver, C. S. and B. W. Wilson, Burr, Shedd, Clements, Hastie, Irwin, Ryan, Schwartz, Brown, L. P. and E. B. Sawyer, Robinson, Patch.

A MATCHLESS

 Would make the finest possible present for Christmas. Sold by
MATTHEWS PIANO CO.
 WAREROOMS—130 South 13th.