Man—small, earth-atom, if with thought endowed,
Mere moment's bubble on the brief life-stream,
Cast up of seething waters, catching beam From distant star-lights, dark'd with thunder cloud;
Of sentient-time a morning-molten dream.
What art thou, thy dwarf-day should make these proud?
Thy woe quick ends, thy joy is shadowgleam
Of dawn—rare visitant to eyes down-bowed.
Answer the wind's voice makes—man-spirit know That in thee, round thee, is the perfect-life—
The visible-invisible, whose flow Is ever-fullness without ebb; the strife Is with the bounded being, hath no part In that All-Being forth from whom thou art.

—IDYLA.

Wife—Well, what did you have to drink this time?
Husband—Nothing, dear; I merely strolled through the lobby to show some friends the ruby stud that you had kindly given me on my birthday.
Thus the cloud rolled by, and she beamed upon him.
In his youth he had been a biblical student and had learned that a soft answer turneth away wrath.
After the next act he took whisky unrebuked.

I would not enter on my list of friends, Though graced with polished manners and fine sense,
Yet wanting sensibility, the man Who needlessly sets foot upon a worm.

$100 DOLLARS REWARD $100

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages and that is catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work.
The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers, that they offer one Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of Testimonials.

We have purchased (because it is just the thing we have needed) the Columbian Cyclopedic Library, consisting of the Columbian encyclopedia, which is also an unabridged dictionary thirty-two volumes of convenient size neatly bound, four volumes of the annual cyclopedic review, four volumes of current history for 1896, one Columbian atlas and the neat convenient revolving oak case with glass doors. From the evidence obtained we find that some part of this work is placed in the best private and public library in this country and abroad, for the reason that they cover a field relative to the past, present and future progress and achievements of the human race not attempted by others. The plan is original, and the work throughout is carefully and ably written.

Current history contains 226 pages, is issued two months after the close of each quarter, this length of time being taken to reduce all information received to be an absolutely reliable and authentic basis. If these are kept on file, this magazine will prove a permanent and invaluable record of all important movements in political, social, religious, literary, educational, scientific and industrial affairs.

The magazine will be indispensable to all people who have encyclopedias, as it will be needed to keep these works up to date. To those who do not own encyclopedias it will be doubly valuable as their source of information is more limited. About March of each year the four volumes of current history are bound into one volume, known as the Annual Cyclopedic Review. There are now four of these bound volumes covering years 1892-3-4 and 5. The work has for endorsers and subscribers in this city and state such people as Mr. Gere, editor-in-chief of the Lincoln State Journal, Hon.

Joe Bartley, state treasurer, Hon. W.
J. Bryan, Mr. Miller, editor of the Northwestern Journal of Education, Hon. H. R. Corbett, state superintendent of public instruction, Dr. R. E.
Giffen.

Every reading person has felt the need of brief summaries of current topics and events. The daily, weekly and monthly periodicals and papers may furnish data sufficient, but the labor of collecting and digesting it is frequently out of proportion to the result obtained. A most satisfactory summary may be found in the quarterly issues of Current History. This in the library covering a field that no other attempts.

Subscription price, $1.50 a year in advance; bound volumes, cloth, $2, half morocco, $2.50; library sheep, $2.50; embossed sheep, $3.50; three-fourths person, $4. Complete library from $36. to $108; cases from $6. to $44.

The complete library is sold on monthly payments to suit purchaser.
City subscriptions will be received at the Courier office for a limited time only, or at Mr. H. W. Brown's book store, direct all other correspondence
