Miss Laura Cauger has gone to Chicago, where she will teach in the city schools.

Councilman W. B. Comstock and H. A. Reese have gone to Manitou, Colo., for a few days.

Miss Lola E. DeWitt has returned from Crele, where she has been making a visit with friends.

On Wednesday Mrs. C. S. Lippincott gave a luncheon in honor of Mrs. Durland, (born Richards) of Norfolk, who is visiting her aunt, Mrs. L. C. Richards. Mrs. Durland spent several years in the university where she made life-long friends. She and Mrs. Richards are congenial friends as well as relatives, and her visits to Lincoln are looked forward and back to with pleasure. The guests at the luncheon were Mrs. Richards, Mrs. Durland, Miss Richards, Mesdames Ladd, Ogden, Wright, Miss Harris. Mr. and Mrs. Durland have left Norfolk and will spend the winter in New York city.

Mrs. W. E. Gosper has gone east. Judge A. M. Post was in town the first of the week.

R. S. Bibb, an camerader, of Beatrice, has been visiting in Lincoln.

Dr. Bailey has gone to the mountains to get away from hay fever.

J. M. Thompson of the Omaha First National bank, is visiting in the city.

Prof. and Mrs. W. G. Laugworthy Taylor passed through Lincoln Saturday bound for New York. They have been spending the summer in Colorado and were about to return to Lincoln when word came of the serious illness of Mr. Taylor's sister in New York and they hastened there.

P. A. Rydberg and Ernst Bessey returned last Saturday from a botanizing and collecting trip among the mountains of Montana. They were out eleven weeks with a four-horse team and camp outfit and besides going over much of Montana went through the Yellowstone National park and parts of Idaho. They climbed five mountains over 8,000 feet high and one over 10,000. They collected about 750 species and their bundle of specimens weighed about 400 pounds when they got back to Bozeman. The trip was enjoyable in many ways. The collection was made for the New York botanic garden. Mr. Rydberg will leave Monday for New York, where he will identify the specimens and get out the bulletin giving the results of the tour.

C. L. Shear, assistant in the botanical department of the university, is ill with mountain fever in the hospital at Durango, Colo. His attack seriously interfered with the work he had undertaken for the government.

MERRILL-RAYMOND.

Mr. Charles W. Raymond and Miss Mabel Merrill were married in the presence of relatives and a few friends on Sunday afternoon at 2269 U street, the residence of the bride's sister, Mrs. Jones. Rev. Lewis Gregory officiated. Mr. and Mrs. Raymond will live for the present at Utica, Neb. The bride has lived in Lincoln since her childhood where she has attended the public schools and the university. In the process of acquiring an education Miss Merrill made many friends who regret that she is leaving Lincoln. Mr. Raymond is well known on account of his voice. He has been a member of several of the best choirs of the city and has sung in many concerts.

Miss Edna D. Bullock has resigned her position in the John Crerar library of Chicago and returned to accept a position in the library of the university of Nebraska.

Mr. and Mrs. Bryan and family with Miss Welch, enjoyed their trip through the Yellowstone. Mr. and Mrs. Bryan have an unspoiled and unjaded capacity for enjoyment that is not least among their enviable possessions. The mine-owners of the west entertained the party with rides and feasts. Nothing in the power of hospitality and gratitude was withheld and of course Miss Welch held the position of the only young lady in the party and in consequence received much attention. In Yellowstone Park, although covered thickly by the dust of that region, their nightly stops at the Park hotels gave them an opportunity to shake it off and meet travelers from all over the country.

Miss Lillian Harman has gone east in the interest of hats and bonnets.

C. C. Marley is in Colorado.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. MacMurtry have returned from Colorado, where they were delighted lockers on at the flower festival in Colorado Springs.
