OAKLEY-WALSH.
Miss Grace Oakley, of this city, was married at 8 o'clock Thursday evening at the residence of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. R. Oakley, to Mr. Joseph Walsh of Port Huron, Mich. On account of the illness of the bride's small nephew, Oakley Maxwell, the wedding, which was set for next Wednesday, was celebrated Thursday night. Rev. Father Nugent, the genial and beloved priest of St. Theresa's pro-Cathedral, pronounced the words of that old ceremony which all of the Christian faith use. Miss Oakley was gowned in dark blue broadcloth with a touch of red at the throat and belt and a black hat with black wings and a bit of red in it. She never looked better and Grace Oakley has long been known as the prettiest and sweetest girl in Lincoln. She has been connected with THE COURIER for a year, a work which has gained her strong appreciation from her associates. The summer air was heavy with the scent of hundreds of roses when the bride and groom knelt to receive the good priest's blessing. Mr. Walsh is a handsome fellow, of strong physique. And the society of Port Huron, where he will take his bride, will receive a distinct acquisition in Mrs. Walsh. Mr. Walsh is prosecuting a torney of St. Clair county, Michigan, and inspector-general of the Michigan National guards. He has fitted up an elegant suite of apartments in Port Huron, where many friends wait to welcome them when they return from New York about the first of October. Grace Oakley Walsh will be sorely missed by the sick and the poor who, for years, she has not failed to visit with flowers in her arms and comforting and cheering words. Something of the jealousy which a very pretty girl always excites in the small minds whose chief concern is society and their insignificant place in it, has been apparent in some of the young people the last week or two, but by the dignity with which Miss Oakley has received these little shafts, she has endeared herself more than ever to those who have known and loved her for years. Those present at the hasty wedding were: Mrs. Belle Maxwell, Mrs. Helen Archibald, Miss Helen Archibald, Mrs. R. H. Oakley, the groom's handsome sisters, Mrs. Hayden and Miss Bessie Walsh, the latter from Port Huron, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Addison Marshall, Mrs. Van Dressler of Chicago, (formerly Mrs. Burgess of Lincoln, and the bride's aunt) Mr. Stebbins, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Wilson, Rev. Father Nugent and Miss Harris.

Homer J. Edmiston, class of '02, state university, for the past five years instructor of Latin and Greek at Cornell university, Ithaca, N. Y., has been spending the summer with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Edmiston, 467 north Twenty-fifth street, in this city. He has accepted a similar position with the Princeton university, Princeton, N. J., and left for that city Thursday.

John Randolph, Charles Schwartz and Fred Burt returned Thursday from an overland trip across Nebraska and through Colorado. They travelled some 1,200 miles overland and in the mountains had some rather stirring adventures.

Mr. and Mrs. Walton G. Roberts returned Thursday from a two weeks' visit to Chicago and points on the great lakes.

Miss Schfield has returned from her summer vacation in Minnesota.

Mrs. C. J. Dawes is visiting Mrs. I. M. Raymond. Mr. Dawes and Daniel G. Wing have been camping in Wyoming. They are expected to return to lay.

The luncheon given by Miss Stella Kirker on Friday was one of the most pleasant affairs of the week. The company chatted and laughed while the luncheon of five courses was served. The appointments were elegant and the service excellent. Those invited were: Mesdames—

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Branch, late of Kansas City, have decided to locate in Lincoln. They have taken the house on G street, formerly occupied by Captain and Mrs. Guilfoyle. Mrs. Branch's father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Wood, and her sister, Miss Babe Wood, will live with Mr. and Mrs. Branch. Miss Wood is a violinist of some distinction.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Ogden and Miss Harris are spending a few days with Mrs. D. D. Muir in Denver.

Prof. Geo. E. Howard of Stanford university, the beloved teacher formerly in the state university, is visiting relatives in the city for a few weeks before he leaves for his European vacation.

Mrs. Sarah F. Harris is visiting her sons in Chicago.

Harry Lansing has returned from his tour with a magniscope and is helping his father in the many details of the Lansing theatre business.

Chancellor and Mrs. MacLean have returned from a short eastern trip. They visited Brown university and Columbia and Williams colleges and the chancellor is encouraged by the comparative excellence of the state university of Nebraska. The three thousand students who are on their way to the Nebraska university will keep him busy the rest of the year.

Judge S. H. Sedgwick, whose name is identified with York, has been in Lincoln the past week.

Pryor Markell is in Japan.

Mr. Joseph Walsh, the brilliant and handsome young prosecuting attorney who is to marry one of the prettiest young ladies in Lincoln, is here to take his part in the ceremony, which will be celebrated by Father Nugent next Wednesday.
