The reception given at the home of Mrs. Oliver Rodgers, 1915 F street, by Deborah Avery Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution, was a brilliant reception though the vice-president of the society, in whose honor it was given, was not present. Mrs. Thurston telegraphed that Senator Thurston had telegraphed her to meet him in the east immediately and at the last moment she had to go. Although everybody was disappointed not to see Mrs. Thurston the society was out in full force and inaugurated the opening season with eclat. Mrs. Rodgers was assisted in receiving her guests by Mrs. Pound and Mrs. Dorris. Mrs. W. B. Hargreaves was the efficient master of ceremonies. The receiving party stood in the north drawing room which was decorated with silk American flags and glowing American beauties. About two hundred invitations were issued and the noble rooms of the Rodgers' home were filled with callers all the afternoon. The dining room where ices were served was decorated with bands of white and blue and by flags. Miss Garten, Miss Odell, Miss Slaughter and Miss Miner served the ices, which were most grateful as the afternoon was warm with a dry hot wind blowing.

At the reception given by Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Hall on Wednesday evening to the members of the W. and Y. W. C. A. Mr. and Mrs. Hall were assisted by Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Richards. About 150 were present and the pleasant large rooms were filled with the young ladies of that society and their friends. Mr. and Mrs. Hall have gathered about them such beautiful pictures and statuary that an evening at the Halls is like spending the same time in an art gallery.

The members and friends of Holy Trinity parish will tender the Rev. H. Percy Silver and wife a reception at the Lincoln hotel, Tuesday evening, October 5, from 8 to 10 o'clock. The wardens and vestry cordially invite all members and friends of the church to be present.

Dr. and Mrs. Ladd gives a small company in compliment to Mr. and Mrs. Fleek tonight.

Mrs. Carl Funke, Mr. W. B. Hargreaves and Mr. Fleek went out to Cherry county last week on a hunting expedition. They are expected to return today.

Mr. Albert Turpin will give a dancing party at Courier hall next Wednesday to the married people. On Thursday he will give a party to the younger people.

Married—Miss Anna Gertrude Smith to Mr. Clarence King on Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock at Plymouth Congregational church by the pastor, Rev. John Doane. The church was filled with their friends. A reception was tendered Mr. and Mrs. King at the home of the bridegroom's father, 1823 F street, after the ceremony.

Mrs. Frank M. Blish, who has been visiting in Rockford and other cities in Illinois since last July, has returned to Lincoln.

On Wednesday afternoon Mrs. Carl Funke gave a Kaffee Klatsch in compliment to her sister, Mrs. Fleek of Newark, Ohio. Most of society has returned from the summer vacation and the afternoon was spent in comparing notes on the summer resorts and in picking up the threads of social life that were dropped when the hot weather began. The guests were:

The reception given by Rev. and Mrs. Lewis Gregory on Wednesday evening was attended by several hundred people. Rev. and Mrs. Gregory were assisted in receiving by Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Hargreaves. A number of the ladies of the church served ices, made introductions and helped to make the reception one of the pleasantest this hospitable home has ever given.

Mrs. R. H. Oakley will leave on Monday or Tuesday for the east. After visiting Owen Oakley in Annapolis she will sail about the 14th of October for France. She will spend the winter with Miss Maude in Paris.

The wedding of Miss May Moore to Mr. Joseph Mallalieu will be the principal event of next week. It occurs in the Presbyterian church. The bride's maid of honor will be Miss Marian Ogden the bridesmaids, Misses Bebe Woods, Mae Burr, Lucie Griffith, Henrietta Hollowbush and Miss Mallalieu, the bridegroom's cousin. Mr. Sam Low is best man. The ushers are Guy Hurlbut, Fred White of Omaha, Mr. John Dickson of Nebraska City, and Mattson Baldwin.

Everything around the county fair offices is all a hustle and bustle and the prospects for the best fair ever held in this county grow brighter every hour. Tuesday, October 5, will be supplementary opening day. The art and floral halls, speed ring and the general amusement circles have been well looked too, even to the minutest detail. Special efforts have been made to make Children's day on October 6th, one long to be remembered by the school children in this and adjoining counties. The gates will be thrown open free to all school children, and the fair in general given to them to hold high carnival according to their own pleasure and manners. Noted speakers will be in attendance to address the
