GOOD ADVICE FOR THANKSGIVING.

or any other season, is to not wear glasses that will injure the eyesight instead of remedying its defects. Some people buy a pair of glasses or spectacles as if they were buying a ton of coal. You should never wear a pair of eye-glasses without they are fitted to the sight by an expert optician. We will test and fit them free, and sell you glasses at a reasonable price, that is something to be thankful for.

Social and Personal

Manager Frank Zehring left on Wednesday to take charge of The Grand Opera House in Peoria. Mr. Zehring will still control The Funke and his relations with the Peoria house will enable him to enlarge his influence and send many a company to Lincoln which otherwise might not stop here. Mr. Carter is now the local manager of The Funke. During his connection with theatrical business, Mr. Carter has made friends of the members of the profession, theatre patrons and the newspapers. It is very fortunate that Mr. Zehring has been able to leave so affable and able a gentleman in his place. For the former has made a success of theatrical management and deserves the big, handsome opera house over which he has assumed control. The Peoria house is one in a circuit of seven or eight houses all under the able management of Mr. Chamberlain of Burlington Iowa, who asked Mr. Zehring to assist him by assuming the control of the Peoria house. The latter has lived here a long time and made many friends who are very sorry to see him go away.

The following item from the St. Louis Republic is in regard to the sister of Miss Odille Fusz who visited in this last winter.

"Mrs. Hereford gives an informal reception this afternoon to announce the engagement of her daughter, Miss Marie Reine Fusz, to Count Henri de Penaloza of Paris, France. Count de Penaloza is a Spanish nobleman of culture who met Miss Fusz while the latter was traveling abroad several years ago. He has made frequent visits to St. Louis during the past two years, and is much liked by those St. Louisans who have met him. At his last visit during the summer the engagement with Miss Fusz was consummated and, though no announcement has hitherto been made, the event is not a surprise to intimate friends of both. No definite plans have been made regarding the wedding, but it is understood that it will take place on or near Thanksgiving Day, and that when Count de Penaloza returns to Paris early in December, he will take his pretty bride with him."

Miss Kennard, a teacher in the Q street school, has gone to her home in Iowa where her mother is very ill.

Oscar Funke of Chicago has been visiting his mother. He left for his own home on Tuesday.

The choir of the First Presbyterian church will give a concert on Wednesday, November 17th. Miss Marion Treat, Miss Getner, Mr. Kettering and Mr. Myer will sing.

Mrs. R. H. Oakley sailed on the steamer "Southwark" a week ago on Wednesday. When the steamer was out about two hundred miles, a fire broke out in the hold and the steamer was obliged to put about and return to New York. The steamer belongs to the Red Star line. Advices from Mrs. Oakley do not state at what date she expects to sail.

Mrs. Martin Cahn who is to appear in the next Philharmonic Concert as Soprano soloist is a personal friend of Mrs. Minnie Rothschild Herzog of this city, and will be Mrs. Herzog's guest while here.

Miss Bernice Merrill and Miss Gertrude Gage left for Hartford, Conn., on Wednesday. Miss Merrill will study music. Miss Gage will visit with relatives.

Mrs. L. J. Herzog and daughter, have returned from a two months absence in Omaha. Little Fay who was quite sick during that short time, has entirely recovered.

Mrs. J. H. Smayser and Mrs. J. N. Swett who have been the guests of Mrs. E. S. Hawley for several weeks, left on Monday for the east. They will visit in Louisville, Ky. and Washington, D. C., before returning to their home in Brookline, Mass.

The Lincoln Light Infantry will give a reception for assistant Secretary of War Meiklejohn when he arrives in Lincoln.

Miss Nellie Lau returned to Lincoln last Saturday, after spending six months in Europe.

Miss Marie Hoover left on Thursday for New York where she will study piano with Scharwenka.

Mrs. N. K. Griggs returned Saturday from New York City, where she left her daughter Nellie, to study music during the winter.

The Kappa Kappa Gamma fraternity has issued invitations for a party at the Lincoln on November 19th

The trustees of the First Presbyterian church have arranged a musical program to be given at their church on Wednesday, November 17th. The best talent in the city has been secured.

Mr. and Mrs. Plank went to Keokuk, Iowa on Tuesday, to attend the wedding of their son Clarence. From Iowa, Mrs. Plank will go to Chicago for a few days. There she will be joined by Miss Marie Hoover. Both will go to New York City to study with Scharwenka.

Mrs. John Gellatly of Fairbury, is the guest of Mrs. Whiting.

Dr. and Mrs. Tucker gave a delightful reception at their home, 1117 H street on Wednesday evening from eight to ten to a large number of friends from the city and University Place. Mrs. Tucker gowned in white, proved herself a most charming hostess. Miss Myrta Perkins and Mr. W. K. Tuttle, who were attendants at the wedding of Dr. and Mrs. Tucker, assisted on receiving. During the evening Misses Eleanor and Ida Young rendered some very pleasing piano and vocal solos. The two parlors were profusely decorated with potted and cut chrysanthemums and palms. The dining room, where dainty refreshments were served, was decorated in white.

The Phi Delta Theta fraternity will give a coaching party at the football game this afternoon. The coach will be decorated in fraternity and university colors, and flags. Those who will be in the party are, Misses Outcalt, Cole, Welch, Noren, Cropsey, Raymond, Ames, Tukey, Summer, Hoffman; Messrs True, Muller, Chester, Summer, Russell, Stone, Whedon, Davenport, Abbott, Sherman, McCreery.

The reception at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Ricketts on Thursday evening was given for the purpose of listening to Prof. Geo. E. Howard's lecture on the influence of the institutions of Holland on those of America through the early settlement of the Dutch in New York. The stately rooms were crowded with the guests who listened to Prof. Howard's lecture, with the attention his learning and ability deserve. After the lecture Mrs. Rodgers, Miss Ricketts, Mrs. A. S. Raymond and Miss Mable Richards served ice in the dining room.
