

Quite Possible.

Amos Moses Snowball—Say! black boy, hit seems ter me at I've saw yoh face before.

Ephraim Johnson—Reckon you has, 'cause das where I been wearing it all my life.—New York World.

Dashaway—I had a most realistic dream last night. I dreamed I was riding on the elevated road.

Cleverton—Why was it realistic?

Dashaway—When I woke up I found myself hanging to the chandelier.—New York World.

The New Robinson Crusoe.

I.

It was on an isle far out in the Pacific Ocean.

The branches of the palm embraced the branches of the wild orange, and the banana bent its stately head and whispered of its love to his little cousin, the lemon.

II.

A man in a thatched roof and the skins of animals came walking along the beach, followed by his faithful dog. Had you looked at the calm, sad eye you would have known that he was a man with a past.

III.

Suddenly he stopped. An ashen pallor spread over his face. He saw something in the sand.

It was the print of a bare foot.

IV.

He cried aloud:

"I fled from the world because of it! It haunted me there! God knows I was innocent."

He fell to the earth and his eye became glassy.

V.

Long years passed.

Sailors, seeking water, found on the beach the skeletons of a man and a dog and a footprint which grimly told that Trilby had passed that way.

Rafferty with an O.

Drowning Negro—'Ise sinkin'! 'Ise a-drownin'! Help, Mister Rafferty!

An Important Whistle.

Mother (severely)—Why didn't you come when I called you?

Small Boy—Why, just as you was calling me Tommy Traddles, down street, whistled for me. I couldn't go to both, could I?

Sure of His Facts.

"It's a great story," said the visitor to the city editor, to whom he was selling information about a coming divorce case. "McSwigger found the co-respondent in his wife's room, and shot at him four times, but missed, and now he is going to sue for divorce."

"But how did you get your information," asked the editor.

"Couldn't help it," was the reply: "I'm the co-respondent."—Ex.

Art and Nature is the Only
Consolation for Living

WE have within the last few days laid in a very large stock of choice pictures. These pictures have been chosen with great care and we trust they will meet the approval of our patrons. Our stock is large, and in it there are a great many excellent studies.

The prices we will sell these for will be very much less than the same goods can be purchased for elsewhere.

Kindly give our Art Department your attention.

Call at any time and we will be pleased to show you through.

Our Queensware Department should not escape your attention as we carry some excellent goods.

Legal Item.

"What is a vested interest?" asked one of the lawyers who was examining a candidate for admission to the bar. "Well—er—I suppose you have a vested interest when you are compelled to pawn your vest," replied the candidate, who was somewhat impecunious."

Tommy's Toilet.

Tommy (inquiringly)—Mamma, is this hair-oil in this bottle?
Mamma—Mercy, no! That's muckil-ige.
Tommy (nonchalantly)—I guess that's why I can't get my hat off.
