

Kappa Psi and on Monday evening the Nebraska chapter of Phi Psi gave a box party in honor of their brother. Two boxes and the logo were decorated with their colors, pink and lavender. The Phi Psi boys have been fortunate in having noted men in their fraternity visit Lincoln. Mr. Clay Clement, who is also a member, has made for himself a host of friends in Lincoln. They may well be proud in the possession of such a member as Mr. Riley and in the success he added to many other successes on Monday night.

One of the most delightful of this season's social events was the Kappa Kappa Gamma reception at the Lincoln hotel last Friday evening. The spacious dining room of the famous hostelry was converted into a reception and ball room for the occasion and was beautifully decorated with flowers and the colors of the university and sorority. Nearly every Greek letter society in the institution was represented. Seventy couples participated in the evening's enjoyment. The members of the Kappa Kappa Gamma received gracefully their many guests and as usual proved agreeable hostesses.

The reception tendered by the Lincoln Light Infantry to the assistant secretary of war, Hon. Geo. D. Meiklejohn, at the armory Monday evening was a brilliant success. The quarters were beautifully decorated for the occasion with a profusion of palms and other tropical plants. The arriving guests were directed to the entrance by two guards stationed at the foot of the stairway, and at the head another ushered them into the locker room which, for the time, had been converted into an immense cloak room in charge of a squad of soldiers. The visitors were taken through the parlor and card rooms to the entrance to the quarters, by this means they made the exit, and were escorted upstairs to the magnificent drill hall by the members of the company.

The receiving party, composed of Secretary Meiklejohn, Major and Mrs. Fechet, Adjutant General Barry, Miss Nash, Mr. and Mrs. B. D. Slaughter and Captain and Mrs. Campbell, was stationed at the west end of the large hall and as the guests were presented to Captain Campbell he in turn passed their names to the secretary and so on along the line.

The decorations in the drill hall were composed entirely of national colors and palms, while in the company rooms these decorations were supplemented by the company colors, royal purple and old gold.

Never has a reception on a larger scale been conducted in the city with so little confusion; every detail having been carefully pre-arranged. The members of the company have much cause for gratification on the success of the affair and the comfort and convenience of their quarters.

TRADING BANK CHECKS: HERE TO STAY!

We wish to say to the people of Lincoln and vicinity, that we will be here to redeem Trading Bank Checks, and give out presents as long as the people collect our Trading Bank Checks.

We have entered into an agreement with the merchants in our directory for one year and do not think any merchants who have made contracts can afford to break them with us, much more with their customers.

The contracts with the merchants are that they should not advance the price of their goods, but merely make this an inducement to trade with them and pay cash.

All dealers get a discount for paying cash; why not the customer?

This Association is owned and backed by Benedict Jackson & Co. of Syracuse, N. Y., who have 45 stores in the largest cities of the United States and ample capital to fulfill and carry out any agreement or promises made by the Association, which anybody can ascertain by writing any bank of Syracuse, or asking Dunn's or Bradstreet's Agencies for a report.

We are here to stay!—Ask for the original Blue Trading Bank Checks.

Take no other—and should any of the merchants refuse you Bank Checks ask yourself this question: "Does he want my trade?" Study your own interests, and buy where you can get Blue Trading Bank Checks.

SAM JONES IN BOSTON.

Reform in Boston! Can it be
A mortal man dare preach to thee!
Sam Jones in Boston! Classic shades
And icy matrons! Glass-eyed maids!
Disjointed grammar, southern slang,
Where once the Muses only "sang!"
Where Wendell, Holmes and pork and beans
Were once, of grace, the only means;
Where every family Browning read,
Or else were busy browning bread—
Shall rude evangel from the South,
Who lacks control about the mouth,
Break in upon the perfect peace—
And beans—of this renescent Greece?
